COURTS

Part 1

Establishment and Jurisdiction

1-2-101. Establishment. The judicial power of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes (hereinafter "the Tribes") is vested in the Tribal Court, and such divisions thereof as the Tribal Council may from time to time authorize by statute, and the Tribal Court of Appeals.

1-2-102. Tribal Court. The Tribal Court may hear and decide cases and controversies as provided by Tribal law, subject to any restrictions imposed by the Constitution, treaties, or laws of the United States. Final decisions and orders of the Tribal Court are subject to review by the Tribal Court of Appeals as provided in Sections 1-2- 816 and 1-2-817 of this Code. Failure to legislate in any particular area shall not be deemed a cession of authority to any other government's jurisdiction.

1-2-103. Criminal jurisdiction The Tribal Court shall have criminal jurisdiction over any Tribal member, American or Canadian Indian, or Alaskan Native found within the Flathead Reservation and accused by the Tribes of the commission, within the Flathead Reservation, of an offense enumerated in Title II, Chapter 1, of this Code.

1-2-104. Civil Jurisdiction. (1) The Tribal Court of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes of the Flathead Reservation, Montana, shall have jurisdiction of all suits wherein the parties are subject to the jurisdiction of this Court, and over all other suits which are brought before the Court by stipulation of parties not otherwise subject to Tribal jurisdiction. In suits brought by non-members against members of the Tribes or other persons subject to the jurisdiction of this Court, the complainant shall stipulate in his or her complaint that he or she is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court for purposes of any counterclaims which the defendant may have against him or her.

(2) To the fullest extent possible, not inconsistent with federal law, the Tribes may exercise their civil, regulatory and adjudicatory powers. To the fullest extent possible, not inconsistent with federal law, the Tribal Court may exercise subject matter and personal jurisdiction. The jurisdiction over all persons of the Tribal Court may extend to and include, but not by way of limitation, the following:

- (a) All persons found within the Reservation.
- (b) All persons subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court and involved directly or indirectly in:
 - (i) The transaction of any business within the Reservation;
 - (ii) The ownership, use or possession of any property, or interest therein, situated within the Reservation;
 - (iii) The entering into of any type of contract within the Reservation or wherein any aspect of any contract is performed within the Reservation;
 - (iv) The injury or damage to property of the Tribes or a Tribal member.

(3) As used in this section, "person" means an individual, organization, corporation, governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, or any other legal or commercial activity. Nothing in this chapter waives any aspect of the Tribes sovereign immunity or related privileges.

(4) The Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes shall adopt appropriate laws and regulations governing conduct of Tribal members exercising Treaty rights within the open and unclaimed aboriginal territory outside the Flathead Reservation.

1-2-105. Exclusive and concurrent jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of the Tribal Court, as set out in Sections 1-2-103 and 1-2-104 is exclusive except:

(1) as may be provided otherwise by federal statute or the final order of a federal court, or

(2) where implementation of federal law, by Tribal agreement or otherwise, requires that Tribal Court jurisdiction be concurrent with that of the courts of the State of Montana, and where Tribal statute expressly sets forth such concurrence.

(3) Subject to the conditions and limitations expressed in Section 1-2-104(4), the laws and jurisdiction of the State of Montana, including the judicial system of the State, are hereby extended pursuant to, and subject to the conditions in, the Act of the Montana Legislature of February 27, 1963, Laws of Montana, 1963, Vol. 1, Chap. 81, p. 170, Sections 2-1-301 through 2-1-306, MCA, to Indians within the Flathead Reservation to the extent such laws and jurisdiction relate to the subjects following: (a) compulsory School Attendance; (b) Public Welfare; (c) Domestic Relations (except adoptions); (d) Mental Health, Insanity, Care of the Infirm, Aged and Afflicted, (e) Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Rehabilitation; (f) Adoption Proceedings (with consent of the Tribal Court), (g) Abandoned, Dependent, Neglected, Orphaned or Abused Children; (h) Operation of Motor Vehicles upon Public Streets, Alleys, Roads and Highways, and (i) All Criminal Laws of the State of Montana pertaining to felony offenses (Class E offenses in this Code).

(4) The effectiveness of Subsection (3) above is conditioned upon the following:

(a) Concurrent jurisdiction remains with the Tribal Court and in the Tribal Government (where applicable with Federal Courts) of all matters referred to in Subsection (3); and any matter initiated in either a State or Tribal Court shall be completed and disposed of in that Court, and shall not be subject to re-examination in the Courts of the other jurisdiction.

(b) No person, once convicted of a crime falling within the jurisdiction of the State or the Tribes pursuant to this Ordinance, shall be punished for the identical act in the Courts of the other jurisdiction, but shall be accorded the benefit of the doctrine of former jeopardy as if the separate jurisdictions were one.

(c) Ordinance 40-A (Revised) is subject to possible referendum of the eligible voters of the Confederated Tribes, and if a referendum is authorized and the Ordinance disapproved by a majority under the conditions set forth in Article IX, the Ordinance shall be void and of no effect to transfer jurisdiction to the State of Montana and its judicial system.

(d) All jurisdiction of the Confederated Tribes under its Constitution and Bylaws, and Ordinances enacted pursuant thereto, and of the Federal Government under the United States Criminal Code, and to the extent not expressly transferred by Subsection (3) above, remains in the Confederated Tribes and in the Federal Government respectively to the same extent as if Ordinance 40-A (Revised) had not been adopted.

(e) If any provision of the Act of the Montana Legislature of February 27, 1963, Vol.1, Chap. 81, or of the Ordinance 40-A (Revised) shall be held invalid, or if the Ordinance be held to extend a jurisdiction more extensive that set forth therein, or if any condition herein be not complied with or be invalid or ineffective, then the entire Ordinance 40-A (Revised) shall be held to be void and of no effect from the beginning.

(f) In the event of any alleged violation of the Civil Rights of Tribal members by operation of this Ordinance 40-A (Revised) the Tribal member may seek redress in the Tribal Court system and the Tribal Council reserves the right to conduct an independent investigation of the occurrence and to review the Ordinance upon validation of any such alleged act.

(g) It is further provided that any sentences or convictions, lawfully inflicted under the provisions of the Ordinance 40-A (Revised) shall not be affected by subsequent cancellation or voiding of the Ordinance.

Part 2

Tribal Court Judges

(2) The Judges shall be compensated by salaries as established in an approved Tribal Council pay plan and as set forth in written contracts signed by both the applicable Judge and the Chairman on behalf of the Tribes.

(3) The term of each judicial contract shall coincide with the term of appointment for that judge. The contract shall specify the Judge's compensation, in accordance with the approved pay plan, along with the Judge's specific duties. Each judicial contract shall be subject to all provisions of this Part. (Rev. 4-15-03)

1-2-202. Appointment, staggered terms, and advertisement. (1) Each Tribal Court Judge shall be appointed by a majority of a quorum of the Tribal Council for a term of four years. Any applicable term shall begin on October 1 of the calendar year. The terms of the Tribal Court Judges shall be staggered in relation to each other.

(a) To create the staggered terms, the Tribal Council shall make initial variable term judicial appointments to fill all judicial positions the Tribal Council currently deems appropriate for the Tribal Court. These variable judicial terms shall all begin on October 1, 2000.

(b) The first judicial appointment the Tribal Council makes pursuant to this Part shall be for a term of four years. The second appointment shall be for a term of three years, the third appointment for a term of two years and the fourth appointment for a term of one year. If more than four judges are to be appointed, the Tribal Council may fill more than one vacancy by appointment in any particular year to meet the purpose of this provision.

(c) After these initial variable term judicial appointments are made to create the staggered terms, each judicial appointment the Tribal Council thereafter makes shall be for a period of four years.

(2) At the end of a judicial term, the incumbent Tribal Judge may be eligible for reappointment by the Tribal Council. However, sixty (60) days before the expiration of any particular judicial term, the Tribal Council shall publically advertise that a judicial appointment is to be filled. The Tribal Council shall solicit applications from interested individuals who maintain they are qualified to fill the judicial position. The Tribal Council shall then proceed to fill the judicial position by appointment and contract with an applicant the Tribal Council believes is best qualified to fulfill the judicial duties and responsibilities.

(3) Should a vacancy occur in a judicial position during a judicial term, the balance of the unexpired judicial term shall be filled by the Tribal Council pursuant to the process contained in subsection (2) above.

(4) No judicial appointment shall become effective until the contract as required under Section 1-2-201(2) is signed and entered into by both the applicable Judge and the Tribes.

(5) A person shall be eligible to serve as a Tribal Court Judge only if the person (i) is a member of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, and (ii) has never been convicted of a felony, or, within one year then last past, of a misdemeanor, with the exception of minor traffic violations.

(6) No Judge shall be qualified to preside in any case where she or he has any direct, personal interest or where he or she is prejudiced for or against any of the parties in the action. Nor shall any Judge be qualified to act in any case where any relative by marriage or blood in the first or second degree is a party unless all parties to the action waive this provision.

(7) All Tribal Court Judges shall protect and preserve the high standards of the Tribal judiciary and shall abide by the Model Code of Judicial Conduct adopted by the American Bar Association as it now exists and as it may from time to time be amended.

(8) Qualified individuals with judicial experience may from time to time be appointed by the Chief Judge to sit as Tribal Court judges on individual cases where appointment of an outside judge is called for. Such pro tempore appointments need not be Tribal members. (Rev. 4-15-03)

1-2-203. Removal of a Judge of the Tribal Court. A Judge of the Tribal Court may be suspended, dismissed or removed for cause by the Tribal Council. Cause shall be defined as malfeasance in office, corruption, neglect of duty, or conviction of a felony or misdemeanor, excluding minor traffic violations. A Judge charged by a majority of a quorum of the Tribal Council with conduct constituting cause for suspension, dismissal, or removal shall be given personal, written notice of the basis for the charge and be given adequate time to prepare a defense. The Judge shall then be given a full hearing before the Tribal Council with an adequate opportunity to present a defense, including the production of witnesses and other evidence in the Judge's behalf and an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses against the charged Judge. An affirmative vote of seven members of the Tribal Council is necessary to suspend, dismiss or remove a Judge from office.

1-2-204. Substitution of Judges. (1) Each party to a proceeding is entitled to substitution of a judge without asserting cause for the substitution, if the motion is made within ten days of the party receiving notice of the judge's assignment to the case. (2) Where cause exists, a party to a proceeding may make a timely and sufficient affidavit that the assigned Judge has a personal bias or prejudice either against the party or in favor of any adverse party. Such Judge shall proceed no further therein. The affidavit shall state the facts and the reasons for the belief that bias or prejudice exists, and shall be filed at the earliest opportunity, and not less than ten days before the proceeding is to be heard, or good cause shall be shown for failure to file it within such time. It shall be accompanied by a certificate of counsel of record stating that it is made in good faith. The Chief Judge shall review the affidavit and upon finding cause shall assign another Judge to hear such proceeding. (Rev. 1-27-00)

The same Judge may be designated to preside over more than one subdivision.

(2) The Chief Judge shall establish and maintain a system of assignment of cases, other than Small Claims and Youth Court cases, among the Judges. In the event of disqualification, recusal or other inability of a Judge assigned to a case to serve, the next Judge who would have been assigned in the system established by the Chief Judge shall hear and decide the case. However, if no full-time Judge is qualified or able to hear the case, the Chief Judge may select a temporary or part-time Judge as replacement Judge, as provided in Section 1–2–201.

(5) The Chief Judge may seek and, with the approval of the Tribal Council, accept funds made available through gift, grant, or contract to assist, improve, or enhance Tribal court operations.

1–2–302. Appointment and duties of Clerk of Court. (1) There is established the office of Clerk of Court, which shall be filled by appointment to a four-year term by a majority of a quorum of the Tribal Council in accordance with policies, rules, and classifications of the Tribal Personnel system.

(2) As the budget for administering the Court may permit, the Clerk of Court may employ, in accordance with the Tribal Personnel System, such deputies and court reporters as may be required to assist in fulfilling the duties of the Clerk.

(3) The Clerk shall collect fees and fines paid to the Court and deposit the same within a week of collection with the Executive Treasurer. The Clerk shall make a certified accounting of the same annually to the Tribal Council. The clerk shall be bonded in an amount sufficient to cover the average annual revenues derived from fees and fines paid to the Court.

(4) As required by statute or otherwise where appropriate, the Clerk shall prepare and make available to unrepresented parties forms, approved by the Chief Judge, for pleadings and service of process.

(5) The Clerk shall prepare all documents and ledgers incidental to the functions of the Tribal Court and, upon request and payment of a reasonable fee, shall certify copies of the public record of proceedings as true and accurate representations of the official Court record.

If the individual's income is between 200% and 300% of that standard, he or she may elect to have the Tribal Defenders Office represent them for a fee to be determined by the Tribal Defenders Office and approved by the Tribal Council, but shall not be entitled to representation by that Office in the absence of making that election. If the individual's income is over 300% of the current standard for poverty contained in the Federal Poverty Income Guidelines then he or she shall be responsible for retaining and paying their own attorney or advocate, and shall not be entitled to representation by the Tribal Defenders Office.

Part 5.

(2) An adult Tribal member who wishes to commence an action or who is a named party to an action or proceeding may be represented without remuneration by another Tribal member who is neither an attorney nor an advocate and who has not been convicted of a felony nor been adjudged incompetent. The Clerk of Court shall randomly select 1,000 names from the list. The Clerk shall send juror questionnaires to each one and this group shall comprise the jury pool for the next calendar year. The Clerk shall notify each person of his or her selection and of grounds and methods for the person's excuse from the jury pool. By December 15th, the Clerk of Court shall randomly select 50 names from the pool to serve as the jury panel for January trials. This procedure shall be followed in subsequent months. Each month the Clerk of Court shall make available to counsel involved in jury trials scheduled for that month the questionnaires of the 50 persons selected for that month's panel. The Court shall by Rule of Court specify grounds and procedures for excuse from jury duty.

(2) The Court may summon a panel for purposes of selecting a jury for a particular case or to provide for the availability of a jury in several cases to be tried within a specified period of time, not to exceed one month.

(Rev. 1-27-00)

1-2-603. Composition of a jury for a civil action. (1) A jury shall consist of six persons and an alternate selected from a summoned panel. The Clerk of Court shall notify parties to a case to be tried to a jury of the names and addresses of the summoned panel no later than 10 days prior to the commencement of the trial.

2) Each party to a case is entitled to three peremptory challenges and one peremptory challenge in the event that an alternate juror is selected, unless a lesser number is agreed to by the parties in writing.

3) Each party shall have unlimited challenges for cause, on the basis of lack of qualifications, partiality, or otherwise acceptable reasons, which include the following:

a) having a family relationship within the first or second degree to any party, or to the person allegedly injured;

(b) standing, in relation to a party or person injured, as guardian, ward, employer, employee, debtor, creditor, attorney, client, or being a member of the family of either party, person insured, shareholder, partner, trustor, trustee, or beneficiary;

(c) having been a party adverse to another party in a prior civil action or having complained against or been accused by a party in a criminal prosecution;

(d) having served as a juror or been a witness in a previous trial between the same parties;

(e) having an interest in the event of the action, or in the main question involved in the action;

(f) having a pre-existing opinion or belief as to the merits of the action; or

(g) having a state of mind evincing bias against or in favor of either party or the person injured.

Whether or not cause exists shall be determined by the presiding Judge.

(4) Each challenge must be tried and determined by the Court at the time the challenge is made.

1-2-604. Civil verdicts. After all parties have rested their cases, the Judge shall instruct the jury in the law governing the case and the jury shall bring in a verdict for the plaintiff or the defendant in a civil case. The jury shall be instructed by the Judge in all civil cases that they are to find for the party who has established the position she or he alleges by the burden of proof established by law. The Judge shall render judgment in accordance with the verdict and the existing law. If a jury is unable to reach a unanimous verdict, the Judge may authorize a verdict by a majority vote.

1-2-605. Jurors' compensation and reimbursement. (1) Each juror and alternate juror selected shall be paid the sum of $50.00 plus mileage to and from the Court for each day, or part-day, spent in the business of the Court at the Tribal Complex at Pablo, Montana. (2) Each panel member summoned for selection as a juror and each juror and alternate shall be reimbursed for meals and for mileage traveled within the reservation in connection with the service, unless meals and transportation are provided by the Court, at its option. (Rev. 4-15-03)

1-2-606. Juries in civil cases. (1) In actions at law or in any civil case where monetary damages are prayed for and may be awarded by law, except a matter filed as a small claim, a party may demand a jury trial. Such demand must be made to the presiding Judge, with notification to the other party or parties, no later than 15 working days prior to the time set for trial.

(2) Costs of a jury trial in a civil matter shall be reimbursed to the Court by the party demanding the jury trial. Such costs may be a part of the award if the demanding party prevails. Payment shall be made upon presentation of a statement by the Clerk setting forth said costs, including the cost of summoning a panel, the cost of compensation to panel members, jurors, and alternates, and the costs of meals and mileage of panel members, jurors, and alternates. Taking into consideration the resources of the demanding party and whether there is a reasonable likelihood that the demanding party will prevail, the presiding Judge may require that the demanding party post a bond guaranteeing payment to the Court in an amount not to exceed $5,000 in the event that the demanding party is not the prevailing party.

1-2-607. Power to subpoena witnesses. A Judge of the Tribal Court has the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents either on the Court's own motion or on the request of any party to a case, which shall bear the signature of the Judge issuing the subpoena.

1-2-608. Compensation of witnesses. (1) Each witness, except an expert witness, answering a subpoena to appear in a civil trial shall be paid by the party requesting the subpoena, or by the Court if the subpoena was issued on its own motion, the sum of $50.00 for each day, or part-day, that his or her presence is required in Court or at any deposition location and for transportation costs to and from Court or the deposition location, at the same rate as that established for jurors in Section 1-2-606, or, if travel by air is necessary, at the lowest practicable rate then available for airfare.

(2) An expert witness may be paid a reasonable fee by the party calling the expert. If the Court, on its own motion, finds it necessary in the interests of justice to call an expert witness, it shall pay the witness a reasonable fee, not to exceed the expert's regular hourly rate for such service, and assure that the expert is available for interview by the parties prior to any testimony by the expert.

(3) If attorney's fees and costs are permitted by statute or by agreement of the parties to be awarded to the prevailing party, the Court may also order the award of witness fees and transportation costs to the prevailing party.

1-2-609. Service of subpoenas. Service of subpoena shall be made by a competent person who is at least 18 years of age and not a party to the action. Proof of service of subpoena shall be filed with the Clerk of Court by noting on the subpoena the return date, time and place that it was served.

1-2-610. Effect of failure to obey a subpoena. If a witness fails to obey a subpoena, an order to show cause why the person should not be found in contempt of Court shall immediately issue.

1-2-611. Privileged confidentiality in certain relations. There are particular relations in which it is the policy of the law to encourage confidence and to preserve it inviolate; therefore, a person cannot be examined as a witness in the following enumerated cases:

- (1) Spousal privilege. A husband cannot be examined for or against his wife without her consent or a wife for or against her husband without his consent; nor can either, during the marriage or afterward, be, without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during the marriage; but this exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other or to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other.

- (5) Speech-language pathologist, audiologist-client privilege. A speech-language pathologist or audiologist cannot, without the consent of his client, be examined in a civil action as to any communication made by the client to him.
- (6) Psychologist-client privilege. Nothing in any act of the Tribal Council shall be construed to require such privileged communications to be disclosed.
- (7) Information gathered by psychology teachers and observers. Any person who is engaged in teaching psychology in any school or who, acting as such, is engaged in the study and observation of child mentality shall not, without the consent of the parent or guardian of such child being so taught or observed, testify in any civil action as to any information so obtained.

- (10) Media Confidentiality. Extent of privilege.

(a) Without his or its consent no person, including any newspaper, magazine, press association, news agency, news service, radio station, television station, or community antenna television service or any person connected with or employed by any of these for the purpose of gathering, writing, editing, or disseminating news may be examined as to or may be required to disclose any information obtained or prepared or the source of that information in any legal proceeding if the information was gathered, received, or processed in the course of his employment or its business.

(b) A person described in subsection (a) may not be adjudged in contempt by a judicial, legislative, administrative, or any other body having the power to issue subpoenas for refusing to disclose or produce the source of any information or for refusing to disclose any information obtained or prepared in gathering, receiving, or processing information in the course of his or its business.

(11) Licensed Social Workers. A licensee may not disclose any information acquired from clients consulting in the licensee's professional capacity except:

(a) with the written consent of the client or, in the case of the client's death or mental incapacity, with the written consent of the client's personal representative or guardian;

(b) that he need not treat as confidential a communication otherwise confidential that reveals the contemplation of a crime by the client or any other person or that in his professional opinion reveals a threat of imminent harm to the client or others;

(c) that if the client is a minor and information acquired by the licensee indicates that the client was the victim of a crime, the licensee may be required to testify fully in relation thereto in any investigation, trial, or other legal proceeding in which the commission of such crime is the subject of inquiry;

(d) that if the client or his personal representative or guardian brings an action against a licensee for a claim arising out of the social worker-client relationship, the client is considered to have waived any privilege;

(e) to the extent that the privilege is otherwise waived by the client; and

(f) as may otherwise be required by law.

(12) Public Accountants.

(a) Except by permission of the client, person, firm, or corporation engaging a certified or licensed public accountant or an employee of the accountant or by permission of the heirs, successors, or personal representatives of the client, person, firm, or corporation and except for the expression of opinions on financial statements, a certified public accountant, licensed public accountant, or employee thereof may not be required to disclose or divulge or voluntarily disclose or divulge information that the certified or licensed accountant or an employee may have relative to and in connection with any professional services as a public accountant. The information derived from or as a result of professional services is considered confidential and privileged.

(b) The provisions of this section do not apply to the testimony or documents of a public accountant furnished pursuant to a subpoena in a court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to a board proceeding, or in the process of any board-approved practice review program.

(13) Interpreters. Any information that an interpreter gathers pertaining to any proceeding then pending shall at all times remain confidential and privileged, on an equal basis with the attorney-client privilege, unless such person desires that such information be communicated to other persons. (Rev. 4-15-03)

1-2-612. Waiver of privilege. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), dissemination in whole or in part does not constitute a waiver of provisions of Section 1-2-611.

(2) If the person claiming the privilege testifies, with or without having been subpoenaed or ordered to testify or produce the source, before a judicial, legislative, administrative, or other body having the power to issue subpoenas or judicially enforceable orders, he does not waive the provisions of Section 1-2-611 unless the person voluntarily agrees to waive the privilege or voluntarily discloses the source in the course of his testimony. Except as provided in this subsection, the provisions of Section 1-2-611 may not be waived.

Part 7

Rules of Practice in Actions and Proceedings Before the Tribal Court

Rule 1. Application. Except as otherwise provided herein, the following rules apply in all actions and proceedings before the Tribal Court as follows:

(1) Rules 1 through 19 apply, according to their terms, in all actions and proceedings where any party is represented by an attorney or by a Tribal Court Advocate.

(2) Compliance with Rules 6(1), 7, 11(2), 13(3) and Rules 14 through 19 is not required when all parties represent themselves or are represented by a Tribal member who is not an attorney or a Tribal Court Advocate.

Rule 2. Assignment of Judges.

(1) Assignment of Trial Judge. A judge will be assigned to each docketed case by the Chief Judge of Tribal Court or by the Clerk of Court, if the Chief Judge so directs. A judge may recuse himself or herself for good cause. The Chief Judge may excuse a judge from one or more assignments for reasons of efficient judicial administration. If the Chief Judge determines, on the basis of the pleadings before trial, that the interests of justice would best be served by the appointment of a visiting judge with experience in the legal areas to be litigated, the Chief Judge may substitute such appointment for any assignment already made.

(2) Presiding Judge. Once assigned and unless recused, excused, disqualified, or replaced by a visiting judge, a judge will preside over all proceedings in a case. Pretrial proceedings will be calendered by the Clerk of Court for the presiding judge and the cause will be set for trial as provided by Rule 3.

Rule 3. Trial Scheduling.

(1) Civil Trial Scheduling. The Clerk of Court shall keep a trial calendar upon which all civil causes shall be entered. Within 30 days of the filing of last required responsive pleading, Plaintiff's counsel or the Plaintiff, if unrepresented, shall prepare and serve on opposing counsel and any unrepresented parties and file with the Court a proposed scheduling order. Along with the proposed scheduling order, Plaintiff's counsel or the Plaintiff, if unrepresented, shall certify to the Court that reasonable efforts have been made to consult with all opposing counsel or unrepresented parties concerning the proposed schedule and shall indicate whether or not opposing counsel and/or the unrepresented parties, if any, have agreed to the proposed schedule. Opposing counsel or unrepresented parties shall have 10 days after service of the proposed scheduling order in which to file objections thereto and to submit a counter proposed scheduling order stating the reasons why Plaintiff's proposed schedule is unacceptable. Such objections and counter proposed scheduling order shall be served upon Plaintiff's counsel or the Plaintiff, if unrepresented. Plaintiff's counsel or the Plaintiff, if unrepresented, shall have 10 days after service of the objections and counter proposed schedule in which to respond to the objections and counter proposed scheduling order setting forth the reasons why Defendant's counter proposed schedule is unacceptable. If no objections or counter proposed scheduling order are timely filed, the presiding judge shall enter a scheduling order adopting the Plaintiff's proposed schedule. If objections and a counter proposed scheduling order are timely filed and Plaintiff's counsel or the Plaintiff, if unrepresented, fails to file a timely response thereto, the presiding judge shall enter a scheduling order adopting the counter proposed schedule. If Plaintiff's counsel or the Plaintiff, if unrepresented, files a timely response to the objections and counter proposed scheduling order, the presiding judge may enter a scheduling order on its own or may elect to order a scheduling conference. Any proposed schedule filed pursuant to this Rule shall set forth dates for joinder of necessary parties and amendments to the pleadings, for pretrial conferences, if any, for closing discovery, for exchanging lists of witnesses and exhibits, for filing pretrial motions, and, if the matter is set for a jury trial, for filing jury instructions, or, if the matter is set for a bench trial, filing proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 19 of these Rules of Practice. In addition, the proposed schedule shall indicate the estimated length of the trial and shall include a blank date for commencing the trial to be filled in by the presiding judge. The presiding judge may modify the scheduling order upon a showing of good cause. In the event that no counsel or unrepresented party files a proposed scheduling order within 60 days of the last required responsive pleading, the presiding judge may issue an order to show cause why the case should not be dismissed without prejudice. A party submitting a proposed scheduling order may do so in a form substantially similar to the following form:

Service by mail shall be by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested. All service by mail shall be confirmed by the Court at the time of trial or at the time of the entering of a default judgment, and shall be supported by affidavit from the plaintiff. The affidavit shall include the original return receipt signed by the defendant, a description of documents served on the defendant, and a statement that a diligent search and inquiry was made in an effort to serve the defendant personally.

(3) If, after diligent search and inquiry, the defendant can not be personally served or served by mail, process may be served by publication in the following actions: dissolution, child custody, child support, change of name, eviction, or civil suit brought by the Tribes or a Tribal organization for the collection of an established debt. In such cases, the plaintiff shall file an affidavit with the Clerk of Court prior to any service by publication. The affidavit shall include a statement that the plaintiff has, after diligent search and inquiry, been unable to effect service of process on the defendant. After receiving such an affidavit, the Clerk of Court shall issue a Summons by Publication authorizing service by publication. The Summons by Publication shall be valid for 40 days from the date of issuance, and thereafter void. The other requirements for service by publication are as follows:

(a) The Summons by Publication shall be published in two consecutive issues of the Tribal newspaper and in at least one other newspaper published within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation at least once each week for three consecutive weeks. The Summons by Publication shall: contain the name of the Court and the names of the parties; be directed to the defendant; state the name and address of the plaintiff's counsel, if any, otherwise the plaintiff's address; state that the defendant has 15 days from the last date of publication in which to answer and defend; inform the defendant that failure to answer and defend will result in judgment by default; explain the object of the complaint; and, in an action in which the title to or any interest in or lien upon real property is involved, the publication shall also contain a general or legal description of the property involved.

(b) Service by publication is complete on the date of the last publication of the summons. A copy of each publication of service, certified by the publisher as to date and accuracy of publication, shall be filed by the plaintiff with the Clerk of Court.

(c) At the time of trial or entering of default judgment, the plaintiff shall submit evidence to the Court that the foregoing service by publication procedures were satisfied.

(4) Where service upon a defendant can not be made within the Flathead Reservation, service of process outside the Reservation may be made personally, by mail, or by publication as described in this section with the same force and effect as though service was made within the Reservation. In such cases, the Summons by Publication shall be published in two consecutive issues of the Tribal newspaper and in the newspaper published within the area where the defendant was last known to be found at least once each week for three consecutive weeks. (Rev. 1-27-00) (Rev. 4-15-03)

Rule 10. Pleading in Civil Actions. Except as provided in Section 4–2–601 and following, there shall be a complaint and an answer, and other pleadings deemed necessary. A defendant shall file an answer within 15 days of receiving service of the complaint and summons unless the time is extended in the discretion of the Court. Upon filing of an answer, the defendant shall serve a copy of the answer upon the plaintiff by depositing same in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid, addressed according to the address contained in the complaint. The same timing and procedures shall apply to a plaintiff against whom a counterclaim is asserted and to any party against whom a cross–claim is asserted, with the time calculated from service upon such plaintiff or defendant of the answer asserting the counterclaim or cross–claim. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Rule 11. Jurisdictional Allegations and Defenses in Civil Actions.

(1) Complaint.

(a) Subject to the exception in (b) below, a complaint shall contain a statement of jurisdictional facts. Such statement shall set forth, at a minimum, the status of the parties as to Tribal membership or Indian descent if individuals, or Indian ownership if a business, the place of residence or principal place of business of each party, the place where the cause of action accrued, the status and location of any indispensable parties, and other facts tending to show a relationship of the cause of action to the interests of the Tribes or Tribal members. If the plaintiff is not a Tribal member, the complaint shall also contain plaintiff's consent to the personal jurisdiction of the Tribal Court for purposes of any counterclaim or cross–claim that may be asserted in the context of the filed action.

(b) A complaint need not include a statement of jurisdictional facts if all parties are enrolled members of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes residing within the external boundaries of the Flathead Reservation, or are legal entities organized under Tribal law, and the cause of action arose within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation.

(2) Answer or Other First Responsive Pleading.

(a) If the defendant wishes to deny jurisdictional facts alleged by the plaintiff or to allege different or additional facts, such allegations shall be made by way of an answer or other first responsive pleading.

(b) A defense of lack of personal jurisdiction must be raised by a defendant in the answer or other first responsive pleading or it is waived.

Rule 12. Defenses and Objections in Civil Actions. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to the defenses and objections allowed and the manner of presenting same to the Court; however, the judges shall not be limited to these defenses and objections if in the judge's discretion it is deemed that the interests of justice would be better served by allowing otherwise.

Rule 13. Ex Parte Matters.

(1) Application for Orders. Extensions of time to further plead, file briefs, continue a hearing on a motion, and other permissible ex parte matters may be granted by order of the Court upon written application, stating the grounds for the extension, proposing an early date certain for filing or the hearing and certifying the notice to opposing parties as provided in (2) below.

(2) Certificate of Notice. Prior to the issuance of an ex parte order, the counsel or unrepresented party seeking such order must file a written certification with the Court declaring that opposing counsel and any unrepresented party has been contacted, or that a diligent effort has been made to contact said counsel or unrepresented party, to give reasonable notice of:

- (a) the time and place of the ex parte conference or meeting, and
- (b) the substance of the order sought.

Such certification shall also include information as to whether opposing counsel or any unrepresented adverse party opposes the motion.

(3) Form of Order. All requests for extension of time or continuance or other ex parte matters shall be accompanied by an appropriate form of order.

(4) Emergency Orders. Nothing in this Rule limits the equitable powers of the Court to issue, upon petition, such emergency orders as may be necessary to preserve the status quo or to maintain law and order in the context of a civil case or controversy until the earliest time that the matter may be heard. No emergency or temporary ex parte order shall relieve the party seeking such order of the burden of proof of allegations made in the application or pleading except in those matters where the burden of proof is expressly transferred by Tribal law or by the general rules of law governing the exercise of a court's equitable or extra ordinary powers.

(5) Counseling. Nothing in this Rule precludes any judge from counseling with any Tribal member with respect to individual problems which are not the subject of a pending action or proceeding in Tribal Court. If an action or proceeding involving the same subject matter and persons as those discussed during counseling is later filed, the judge shall recuse himself or herself from the action or proceeding.

Rule 14. Motions.

(1) Form and Content. Unless otherwise approved by the presiding judge, all motions shall be in writing and shall indicate the precise nature of the relief requested.

(2) Motion to Dismiss a Civil Action for Failure to State a Claim. If not supported by a brief within 5 days of filing, a motion to dismiss a civil action for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted shall be summarily denied and an additional 15 days granted in which to further plead.

(3) Briefs. Upon filing a motion or within 5 days thereafter, the moving party shall file a supporting brief indicating, at a minimum, the precise legal points, statutes, and other authorities relied upon, and citing the specifically relevant portions or pages of the statute or other authority. The brief may be accompanied by supporting affidavits or other documents. Within 10 days after the filing of a brief by a moving party, an adverse party shall file an answering brief, which may also be accompanied by appropriate supporting affidavits or other documents. Within 5 days thereafter, the moving party may file a reply brief which shall be directed only to issues raised in the answering brief. All motions and briefs shall be served upon all parties to the action at the time of filing. For the presiding judge's reference, complete copies of key authority asserted to be dispositive upon an issue shall be attached to all briefs filed with the court.

(4) Effect of Failure to File Briefs. Failure to file a brief may subject the motion to summary ruling. Failure to file a brief within 5 days of the filing of a motion shall be deemed an admission that the motion is without merit. Failure to file an answering brief by the adverse party within 10 days shall be deemed an admission that the motion is well taken. Reply briefs by the moving party are optional. In cases where no reply brief is filed, the moving party shall notify the Clerk of Court that the matter is submitted and ready for decision or for argument.

(5) Oral Argument.

(a) The presiding judge may order oral argument or a hearing on a motion upon a request by a party or on the Court's own motion. The judge may limit the amount of time permitted for oral argument.

(b) All motions shall be deemed submitted on briefs unless, within 10 days from the filing of the last responsive brief, the motion is noticed for hearing. At least 5 days' notice shall be given for any hearing on a motion.

(6) Motions to Alter or Amend, for New Trial, or for Relief From Judgment or Order. A motion to alter or amend a judgment or order, a motion for a new trial, or a motion for relief from a judgment or order shall be deemed denied if the Court fails to rule upon the motion within 40 days from the date the motion is filed. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Rule 15. Pretrial Conference and Pretrial Memorandum And Order. Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding judge, a pretrial conference shall be held in all contested cases. Plaintiff's counsel shall convene a conference of all counsel, not later than 5 days prior to the pretrial conference deadline, for the purpose of preparing a pretrial memorandum and order. If counsel can agree upon and file a pretrial memorandum and order before the deadline for the pretrial conference, the scheduled pretrial conference will be vacated. In the event of a dispute as to the contents of the order, such dispute shall be presented to the judge for resolution at the pretrial conference.

Rule 16. Discovery in Civil Actions. (1) Unless otherwise limited by order of the Court, the parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action.

(2) Parties may obtain discovery according to the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, except Rule 26(a)(1)-(4), or in whatever manner and scope the presiding judge deems most appropriate.

(3) Depositions upon oral examinations and interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admissions, and answers and responses thereto will not be routinely filed. If a party or any interested person submits an ex parte request that any of the named documents be filed, the Court may order filing of the documents. When any motion is filed making reference to discovery, the moving party shall submit all relevant unfiled documents with the motion.

Rule 17. Change of Counsel (1) Counsel representing a party in any action or proceeding may be changed at any time upon:

(a) the written consent of both the party and counsel filed with the Clerk of Court and entered in the minutes, or

(b) an order of the Court which may be granted upon written application by either the party or counsel if the applicant has given notice of the application.

(2) Timely written notice of a change of counsel shall be given to the adverse party.

Rule 18. Jury Instructions and Verdict Forms.

(1) Submission. All proposed jury instructions and verdict forms shall be filed and a copy served upon opposing parties at the time set forth in the pretrial order. Thereafter, additional instructions may be allowed to prevent manifest injustice.

(2) Citation of Authorities. Each proposed jury instruction shall be submitted in two forms. One form of each proposed jury instruction shall contain citation of authority supporting the statement of law therein and the other form of each shall be presented without any citation.

(3) Form. All proposed jury instructions and verdict forms shall be on 8 & ½ X 11 inch paper and shall indicate the party on whose behalf it is requested. Each instruction shall be numbered consecutively. Only the jury instructions containing citation of authority may be firmly bound.

(4) Request for Special Findings by Jury. Whenever a party requests special findings by a jury, counsel shall file the requested findings in proper form for submission to the jury and serve a copy upon opposing parties.

Rule 19. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. In civil cases where the Court is the trier of fact, counsel for the parties and any unrepresented party shall submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law no later than 5 days prior to trial and shall serve a copy of the same upon all counsel of record and any unrepresented party. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Rule 20. Orders, Judgments or Decrees.

(1) Presentation of Order, Judgment or Decree. It is the duty of any counsel or unrepresented party seeking an order, judgment, or decree to file a proposed form of the order, judgment, or decree at the time of applying for same. A proposed judgment or decree may be combined with proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law in cases where the Court shall sit as the trier of fact.

(2) Filing. Whenever an order, judgment, or decree is signed by the presiding judge, it shall be delivered to the Clerk of Court and immediately issued and filed in the records of the Court.

(3) Cancellation and Filing of Instrument. In all cases in which a judgment is entered upon a written instrument, such as, without limitation, a promissory note or a contract, the instrument must be presented to the Clerk of Court at the time judgment is granted. The Clerk shall note in ink across the face of the instrument the fact of the entry of judgment and its date. The Clerk shall sign the entry and cancel and file the instrument. The instrument shall not be removed from Court records except by order of the Court in writing setting forth the facts of such removal. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Rule 21. Exceptions Unnecessary. Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the Tribal Court are unnecessary. It is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which the party desires the court to take or the party's objection to the action of the court and the grounds therefor. If a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made and can satisfy the Court of Appeals as to this fact, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice the party. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Court of Appeals

1-2-801. Establishment and Composition. (1) There is established a Court of Appeals to hear and decide appeals on the law taken from judgments, orders, or rulings of the Tribal Court or original proceedings as provided in Section 1-2-815 of this Code. The Court of Appeals is comprised of a Chief Justice and four Associate Justices

(2) Unless a request for a rehearing en banc is made and granted as provided in Rule 21 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure, an appeal or an original proceeding in the Court of Appeals will be heard and decided by a panel of three Justices, two of whom will be attorneys. The panel members will be chosen by rotation, unless another method of selection is prescribed by Court rule. A vacancy on a panel will be filled by appointment by the Chief Justice from among the remaining Justices or if, for reason of recusement, disqualification, or other unavoidable absence, no Justice is available, by appointment of a visiting judge or judges with qualifications corresponding to those of the absent member(s) of the panel.

1-2-802. Administration. (1) The Chief Justice is responsible for the administrative and fiscal management of the Court of Appeals and for the presentation of its annual budget proposal to the Tribal Council. In connection with such management, the Chief Justice may, on behalf of the Court of Appeals, apply for grants and contracts to provide supplementary funding. If such applications require Tribal matching funds for their implementation, prior approval of the Tribal Council is required.

(2) There is an office of Appellate Administration, comprised of an Appellate Administrator and such other personnel as may, from time to time, be approved by the Tribal Council in connection with its approval of the Court's budget. The Appellate Administrator is appointed by the Tribal Council, which shall determine whether the position is full-time or part time on the basis of the workload of the Court and which shall establish the Administrator's compensation. If the workload is insufficient to occupy the Administrator's full time, the Council may combine the Office with another Tribal administrative function and the Administrator may perform such other function in addition to the duties prescribed herein or assigned by the Chief Justice. The Administrator is subject to the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice in the performance of duties herein assigned and such other responsibilities as may be delegated or assigned to the Administrator by the Chief Justice.

(3) Permanent records of proceedings and decisions of the Court of Appeals will be maintained by the Appellate Administrator. Records of proceedings and decisions of the Court of Appeals will be compiled chronologically, indexed by subject matter, docket number, and caption, and made available to the public by the Appellate Administrator. The Chief Justice may order the periodic publication of the decisions of the Court of Appeals and provide for the distribution of the same to law libraries, other appropriate repositories, and subscribers.

1-2-803. Time and format of decision. A decision, order, or judgment of the Court of Appeals shall be rendered in writing by a majority of the Justices hearing the appeal or special proceeding and filed with the Appellate Administrator within 60 days of the date of oral argument or of stipulation by the parties that the matter will be decided on briefs, without oral argument. A Justice who concurs in the result of the majority decision, but not in its reasoning, may file a concurring opinion simultaneously with the majority opinion. A Justice who dissents from the result of the decision may file a simultaneous dissenting opinion. Copies of a ruling and opinion by the Court of Appeals shall be delivered to the parties by the Appellate Administrator within one working day of its filing. Delivery may be made personally or by depositing a copy in the U.S. Mail, first class postage prepaid.

1-2-804. Basis of decision. Every decision shall be based on the record established in the court below and on the law.

1-2-805. Effect of decision. A decision by a simple majority of a panel of the Court of Appeals (or of the full Court upon rehearing en banc) is final and binding upon the parties as to all issues and claims that were raised or might have been raised at trial or upon appeal.

1-2-806. Times of convening. The Court of Appeals will convene in regular session to hear and decide appeals for four weeks a year, which shall be the second week of February, April, June, and October. As necessary, the Chief Justice may call a special session of the Court of Appeals, schedule and assign opinion preparation, and adjourn a regular or special session when the business of the Court is concluded.

1-2-807. Rules of Court. To supplement the Rules of Appellate Procedure at Title I, Chapter 2, Part 9, the Court of Appeals, with the approval of the Tribal Council, may adopt such rules of practice, procedure, and administration as may improve or facilitate Court operations.

1-2-808. Appointment of Justices. One Chief Justice and four Associate Justices of the Court of Appeals shall be appointed by the Tribal Council.

1-2-809. Term and oath of office. The Chief Justice shall be appointed for a four year term, and each Associate Justice shall be appointed for a three year term. Prior to assuming his or her duties, each Justice shall, at the next regular Tribal Council meeting after appointment, take the oath of office prescribed by Article I, Section 6 of the Bylaws of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes.

1-2-810. Qualifications. (1) Three Justices, including the Chief Justice, shall be attorneys at law, qualified to practice before the Tribal Court, with not less than 5 years' experience in the practice of law or on the bench, or a combination or the equivalent thereof. Indian preference will be applied in the selection of these Justices.

(2) Two Justices shall be enrolled Tribal members who have relevant education or experience in law or a law-related field, and who are familiar with Tribal law, customs and tradition and with legal research and writing.

(3) A Justice may not simultaneously serve in another position within the Tribal justice system. Otherwise, a person is not disqualified from appointment to the Court of Appeals for the reason that he or she is otherwise employed, provided that the nature of the employment does not interfere with judicial duties and is neither inherently prejudicial to the exercise of the appellate function nor likely to give rise to an appearance of impropriety.

1-2-811. Vacancies and removal. (1) In the event that a Justice, by reason of resignation or otherwise, fails or is unable to complete an appointed term, the Tribal Council shall fill the vacancy by appointment for the balance of the unexpired term. If necessary, pending such appointment, the Chief Justice may designate a substitute judge as provided in Section 1-2-813. Pending Council appointment, a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice will be filled by an Acting Chief Justice selected from among the Associate Justices by their majority vote.

(2) A Justice may be removed from office during his or her appointed term, after adequate notice to the Justice and an opportunity to be heard, by an affirmative vote of seven members of the Tribal Council, for reasons of misconduct in office, persistent neglect of judicial duties, mental or physical incapacity, or conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction of a felony or misdemeanor, excluding minor traffic offenses.

1-2-812. Additional powers and duties of Justices. (1) In addition to the powers and duties expressed in or necessarily implied from this Part and the Rules of Appellate Procedure,

(a) each Justice has the emergency powers, pending review by the full Court of Appeals,

(i) upon the Justice's own motion or that of a party, to issue a citation for criminal or civil contempt of court or other sanction as may be appropriate in the circumstances to a person appearing before the Court whose conduct is disruptive, contemptuous, or otherwise sanctionable, or to a person disobeying an order of the Court,

(ii) to order the Tribal police to provide for and to maintain the order and security of the courtroom,

(iii) to stay execution of a trial court sentence, judgment, or imposition of sanctions pending appeal, and

(iv) to issue a writ of habeas corpus.

(b) Each Justice has the duty

(i) if a lay Justice, to participate in inservice instruction, training, or consultation with other Justices of the Court and with organizations offering short courses in appellate work. Topics of such in-service education shall include, but are not limited to, such matters as appellate court jurisdiction and procedures, procedures for original or special proceedings in the Court of Appeals, limitations on the appealability of issues of law and fact, remedies, and options for disposition of matters heard,

(ii) if an attorney Justice, to assist with the in-service training of lay Justices,

(iii) to attend bench conferences dealing with the cases to which the Justice is assigned and to prepare or to oversee the preparation of bench memoranda as assigned, and

(iv) to protect and preserve the high standards of the Tribal judiciary, and to abide by the Model Canons of Judicial Ethics of the American Bar Association.

(2) A bench memorandum of law shall be prepared, prior to a bench conference, for each appeal taken. Such memorandum shall be produced in a timely fashion by a Justice who is an attorney and a member of the panel assigned to the case. If sufficient funds are available, the responsible Justice may delegate the preparation of a memorandum of law to an individual or firm qualified to provide legal research assistance.

1-2-813. Disqualification, recusement, and unavoidable absence. (1) (a) Within 10 days of the time a party to a proceeding is notified by the Appellate Administrator of the membership of the panel that is assigned to determine the matter, the party may move the Court of Appeals for the disqualification of a Justice so assigned. One such motion shall be granted as a matter of right for each party to the proceeding.

(b) A party may move at any time that one or more Justices be disqualified from a panel for bias or other good cause shown. Such motion shall be supported by an affidavit and, if opposed by a party or a Justice, shall be heard by a panel of Justices other than those sought to be disqualified.

(c) A Justice shall disclose on the record information that the Justice believes the parties or their lawyers might consider relevant to the question of disqualification, even if the Justice believes there is no real basis for disqualification.

(d) A Justice shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the Justice's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including, but not limited to instances where

(i) the Justice has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party's lawyer, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(ii) the Justice individually or as a fiduciary, or the Justice's spouse, parent or child wherever residing, or any other member of the Justice's family residing in the Justice's household has an economic interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding or has any other than a de minimis interest that could be substantially affected by the proceeding;

(iii) the Justice or the Justice's spouse, or a person related to the Justice in the first or second degree of consanguinity or affinity

(A) is a party to the proceeding or an officer, director or trustee of a party;

(B) is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(C) is known by the Justice to have a more than de minimis interest that could be substantially affected by the proceeding;

(D) has been, or to the Justice's knowledge is likely to be, a material witness in the proceeding.

(E) A Justice disqualified by the terms of subsection (d) above may disclose on the record the basis of the disqualification and may ask the parties and their lawyers to consider, out of the presence of the Justice, whether to waive disqualification. If, following disclosure of any basis for disqualification other than personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, the parties and lawyers, without participation by the Justice, all agree that the Justice should not be disqualified, and the Justice is willing to participate, the Justice may participate in the proceedings. The agreement shall be incorporated in the record of the proceeding.

(2) (a) Upon the disqualification, recusal, or unavoidable absence of a Justice other than the Chief Justice, the Chief Justice shall fill the vacancy

(i) by appointment of a Justice with qualifications corresponding to those of the absent Justice, or

(ii) if no Justice is available, by appointment of a substitute judge with corresponding qualifications.

(b) A substitute judge may be a trial judge of the Tribal Court who had no contact with the case below, or a visiting judge.

(c) In the event that the Chief Justice is disqualified, unavoidably absent, or has recused himself or herself from a proceeding, a substitute Justice or judge, as conditioned in subsection (2)(a)(i) and (ii), shall be appointed by a majority vote of the Associate Justices to serve as Acting Chief Justice for purposes of the proceeding and any associated administration or management of the Court of Appeals.

1-2-814. Compensation. (1) The base retainer salary to be paid to each Justice of the Court of Appeals shall not be less than $10,000 per year for the Chief Justice or $5,000 per year for each Associate Justice. This sum may be increased from time to time by the Tribal Council upon the recommendation of the Chief Justice in connection with the Council's approval of an annual budget for the Court of Appeals. The base retainer salary will compensate Justices for services associated with regular sessions of the Court of Appeals, and the Chief Justice for administrative oversight of Court operations.

(2) A Justice may be additionally compensated for work, such as research and writing, associated with special sessions of the Court or generated by complex cases in regular sessions and assigned by the Chief Justice, at an hourly rate, to be established annually in connection with the Court budget. Eight hours of each day spent in travel or training time or in attendance at national or regional judges' conferences will be compensated at half the hourly rate established by the Council for extra hours of work.

(3) Justices may be reimbursed for off-Reservation travel or training necessitated by their judicial duties and approved by the Chief Justice at the regular Tribal mileage and per diem rates.

(4) A visiting judge, designated by the Chief Justice, or selected as provided in Section 1-2-813, to hear a case or cases in the absence of a Justice or a vacancy on the bench, may be compensated and reimbursed as provided in subsections (2) and (3) above.

(5) One-fourth of the base retainer salary for each Justice will be paid quarterly (in April, June, September, and December). Any additional compensation and reimbursement for expenses incurred for travel or training will be paid to a Justice or a visiting judge within 30 days of submission to the Appellate Administrator of a billing statement and receipts for expenses paid.

1-2-815. Original jurisdiction. (1) The Court of Appeals is an appellate court, but it is empowered to hear and determine such original and remedial writs as may be necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its jurisdiction. The institution of such original proceedings in the Court of Appeals is sometimes justified by circumstances of an emergency nature, as when a cause of action or a right has arisen under conditions making due consideration in the Tribal Court and due appeal to the Court of Appeals an inadequate remedy, or when supervision of the trial court other than by appeal is deemed necessary or proper.

(2) The Court of Appeals shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over all matters involving extraordinary writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, and prohibition.

1-2-816. Scope of appeal in criminal cases. (1) Except as otherwise specifically authorized, the Tribal prosecutor may not appeal a criminal case. The Tribal prosecutor may appeal from any Tribal Court order or judgment which results in

- (a) the dismissal of a case,
- (b) any modification of a jury verdict,
- (c) granting a new trial,
- (d) quashing an arrest or search warrant,
- (e) the suppression of evidence,
- (f) the suppression of a confession or admission, or
- (g) imposing a sentence that is contrary to law.

(2) The defendant may take an appeal only from a final judgment of conviction and order after judgment which affects the substantial rights of the defendant.

(3) On appeal from a judgment, the Court of Appeals may review the verdict or decision and any alleged error objected to which involves the merits or necessarily affects the judgment.

1-2-817. Scope of jurisdiction in civil cases. The Court of Appeals has exclusive jurisdiction over appeals by an aggrieved party from a judgment or order in the following cases:

- (1) From a final judgment entered in an action or special proceeding commenced in the Tribal Court or brought into the Tribal Court from another court or administrative body;
- (2) From an order granting a new trial; or refusing to permit an action to be maintained as a class action; or granting or dissolving an injunction; or refusing to grant or dissolve an injunction; or dissolving or refusing to dissolve an attachment; from an order directing the delivery, transfer, or surrender of property; from any special order made after final judgment; and from such interlocutory judgments or orders in actions involving the custody, guardianship, or conservatorship of minors or incompetent persons as may determine permanently, and not on an emergency or temporary basis pending further proceedings, the rights, interests and responsibilities of the respective parties and direct the disposition of the person or property of the minor or incompetent person in accordance with the determination;
- (3) From a judgment or order granting or refusing to grant, revoking or refusing to revoke, letters testamentary, or of administration, or of guardianship; or admitting or refusing to admit a will to probate, or against or in favor of the validity of a will, or revoking or refusing to revoke the probate thereof; or against or in favor of setting apart property, or making an allowance to a spouse or child; or against or in favor of directing the partition, sale, or conveyance of real property, or settling an account of an executor or administrator or guardian; or refusing, allowing, or directing the distribution of any estate, or the payment of a debt, claim, legacy, or distributive share.

1–2–818. Commencement and conduct of original proceedings. Proceedings to obtain a writ of habeas corpus, mandate, or prohibition or other remedial writs or orders shall be commenced originally in the Court of Appeals and conducted as provided in this Part. All papers filed shall conform to the requirements of Rule 12 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

(1) Notice to trial judge. If an application for a writ or an order is directed against a ruling of a trial judge, the application and all further documents relating to the ruling must be served upon the judge. Such application shall, in its title, contain the name of the judge who issued the ruling.

(2) Filing of applications. An original application may be made to the Court of Appeals at any time. The moving party's application and all supporting documents shall be filed with the Appellate Administrator.

(3) Contents of application. The application for the issuance of the above writs or orders must set forth, in addition to the other requisite matters, the particular questions and issues anticipated to be raised in the proceeding and also the fact which renders it necessary and proper that the writ should issue originally from the Court of Appeals. Each application shall also set forth as exhibits a copy of each judgment, order, notice, pleading, document, proceeding, or court minute referred to in the application, or which is necessary to make out a prima facie case or to substantiate the application or conclusion or legal effect. A memorandum of authorities must be filed with the application. Counsel shall file with the Appellate Administrator the original court file, unless for some reason the same is not available.

(4) Court consideration. (a) A panel of three Justices, as provided in Section 1–2–801(2) of this Code, shall consider whether to accept jurisdiction of an extraordinary writ at a bench conference, which may be held by telephone, within 5 days of the receipt of the application.

(b) As promptly as possible thereafter, the panel shall, on the basis of the application, dismiss the application for want of jurisdiction, accept jurisdiction, or order a response reserving the question of jurisdiction.

(c) Only in extraordinary cases will the Court grant oral argument to determine the necessity and propriety of accepting jurisdiction.

(d) Unless oral argument is ordered by the Court in order to establish jurisdiction, the court will enter an appropriate order forthwith. Such order may dismiss the application, grant the relief requested, order a hearing on the application, or issue any other writ or order deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

(5) Adversary hearing. When ordered by the Court, an adversary hearing on the application shall be held at the time fixed by the order. The oral argument shall be conducted in the same manner as in the argument of appeals, with the same time limits for presentation, and with the applicant opening and closing the argument. Each party shall serve and file briefs in full conformance with Rules of Appellate Procedure 12 and 15 and according to the time schedule set forth in the order, in no event later than 24 hours prior to the time fixed for oral argument.

1–2–819 Writs of mandamus and prohibition.

(1) Definitions.

(a) Mandamus. A writ of mandamus or mandate may be issued to any lower tribunal, corporation, board, or person to compel the performance of an act that the law specially enjoins as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station or to compel the admission of a party to the use and enjoyment of a right to which the party is entitled and from which the party is unlawfully precluded by the lower tribunal, corporation, board, or person.

(b) Prohibition. The writ of prohibition is the counterpart of the writ of mandate. It arrests the proceedings of any tribunal, corporation, board, or person exercising judicial functions when such proceedings are without or in excess of the jurisdiction of such tribunal, board, corporation, or person.

(2) Application of rules of procedure. Except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance or inconsistent herewith, the federal rules of evidence and civil procedure relative to new trials and the Rules of Appellate Procedure herein apply to the proceedings mentioned in this Part.

(3) Procedure for obtaining, serving, and enforcing writ.

(a) A writ of mandamus or of prohibition must be issued upon affidavit, on the application of the party beneficially interested.

(b) A writ of prohibition may be issued by the Court of Appeals to any lower tribunal or to a corporation, board, or person in all cases in which there is not a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law.

(c) The writ may be either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ must be first issued if no 10-day (or shorter, if the Court so allows) notice of the application is given by the applicant to the adverse party. If the application is upon due notice, a peremptory writ may be issued in the first instance.

(d) An alternative writ of mandamus or prohibition must state generally the allegation against the party to whom it is directed and,

(i) if mandamus, command such party, immediately after the receipt of the writ or at some other specified time, to do the act required to be performed or to show cause before the court at a specified time and place, why he or she has not done so, or

(ii) if prohibition, command such party to desist or refrain from further proceedings in the action or matter specified therein until the further order of the Court of Appeals and to show cause before such Court, at a specified time and place, why such party should not be absolutely restrained from further proceedings in such action or matter.

(e) A peremptory writ must be in similar form to an alternative writ, except that the words requiring the party to show cause why he should not be absolutely commanded to do the act or to be restrained, etc., must be omitted and a return day inserted.

(f) The writ must be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action, except when otherwise expressly directed by order of the Court of Appeals.

(g) When a peremptory mandate or prohibition has been issued and directed to any lower tribunal, corporation, board, or person upon whom and writ has been personally served has, without just excuse refused or neglect to obey the writ, the Court may, upon motion, impose a fine not exceeding $10,000. In case of persistence in a refusal of obedience, the Court may order the party to be imprisoned until the writ is obeyed and may make any orders necessary and proper for the complete enforcement of the writ.

1-2-820. Procedure upon return of writ of mandate or prohibition.

(1) Time for return and hearing. Writs of mandate or of prohibition issued by the Court of Appeals may, in the discretion of the Court, be made returnable and hearing thereon may be heard at any time.

(2) Answer of adverse party. On the return of the alternative or on the day on which the application for the writ is noticed, the party on whom the writ or notice has been served may show cause by answer, under oath, made in the same manner as an answer to a complaint in a civil action.

(3) When jury trial may be had. (a) If an answer is made which raises a question of fact essential to the determination of the matter and affecting the substantial rights of the parties or the supposed truth of the allegation upon which the application for the writ is based, the Court may, in its discretion, order the question to be tried before a jury and postpone the argument until the trial can be had. The question to be tried must be distinctly stated in the order for trial. The order may also direct the jury to assess any damages which the applicant may have sustained if it finds for him or her. At trial, the applicant is not precluded by the answer from any valid objection to its sufficiency and may contradict it by proof, either in direct denial or by way of avoidance.

(b) If a jury is required, the jury is to be selected by the Appellate Administrator in the same manner in which a jury is selected in the Tribal Court. The conduct of the trial must be the same as in Tribal Court, and the Appellate Administrator has the same authority to issue process and enter orders and judgments as the Clerk of the Tribal Court.

(c) If no answer be made, the case must be heard on the papers of the applicant. If the answer raises only questions of law or puts in issue immaterial statements not affecting the substantial right of the parties, the Court must proceed to hear or fix a day for hearing the argument of the case.

1-2-821. Judgment on writs of prohibition and mandate.

(1) Default not permitted. Neither a writ of prohibition nor a writ of mandate may be granted by default. The case must be heard by a panel of the Court of Appeals whether the adverse party appears or not.

(2) Judgment for applicant. If judgment is given for the applicant:

(a) the applicant may recover the damages which he or she has sustained, as found by the Court or by the jury, together with costs;

(b) an execution may issue for such damages and costs; and

(c) a peremptory mandate must be awarded without delay.

1-2-822. Writ of Habeas Corpus.

(1) Availability of writ. (a) Except as provided in subsection (1)(b), every person within the jurisdiction of the Tribes imprisoned or otherwise restrained of liberty may prosecute a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of imprisonment or restraint and, if illegal, to be delivered from imprisonment or restraint.

(b) The writ of habeas corpus is not available to attack the validity of the conviction or sentence of a person who has been adjudged guilty of an offense by a court of competent jurisdiction and has exhausted the remedy of appeal, nor is it available to attack the legality of an order revoking a suspended or deferred sentence. Moreover, a person may not be released on a writ of habeas corpus due to any technical defect in commitment not affecting the person's substantial rights.

(c) When a person is imprisoned or detained in custody by the Tribes on any criminal charge for want of bail, such person is entitled to a writ of habeas corpus for the purpose of giving bail upon averring that fact in his petition, without alleging that he is illegally confined.

(2) Issuance of writ.

(a) Application for a writ of habeas corpus is made by petition signed either by the party for whose relief it is intended or be some person on the petitioner's behalf. It must specify:

(i) that the petitioner is unlawfully imprisoned or restrained of liberty;

(ii) why the imprisonment or restraint is unlawful; and

(iii) where or by whom the petitioner is confined or restrained.

(b) All parties must be named if they are known or otherwise described so that they may be identified.

(c) The petition must be verified by the oath or affirmation of the party making the application.

(3) Granting of the writ. Any Justice of the Court of Appeals may grant a writ of habeas corpus upon petition by or on behalf of any person restrained of liberty within the Justice's jurisdiction. If it appears to such Justice that a writ ought to issue, it shall be granted without delay, and may be made returnable to the Court of Appeals.

(4) Time of issuance and requirements for service. (a) A writ of habeas corpus or any associated process may be issued and served on any day, at any time.

(b) The writ must be served upon the person to whom it is directed. If the writ is directed to a Tribal agency or employee, a copy of the writ must be served upon the Tribal prosecutor.

(c) The writ must be served by a Tribal policeman, or any other person directed to do so by the Justice or the Court, in the same manner as a civil summons, except where otherwise expressly directed by the Justice or the Court.

(5) Return of the writ, hearing, appeal. (a) Return. (i) The person upon whom the writ is served shall make a return and state in that return:

(A) whether the petitioner is in that person's custody or under that person's power of restraint; and

(B) if the petitioner is in custody or otherwise restrained, the authority for and cause of the custody or restraint; or

(c) if the petitioner has been transferred to the custody of or otherwise restrained by another, to whom the party was transferred, the time and place of the transfer, the reason for the transfer, and the authority under which the transfer took place.

(ii) The return must be signed and verified by oath unless the person making the return is a sworn Tribal officer making a return in an official capacity.

(b) Appearance and hearing.

(i) The person commanded by the writ shall bring the petitioner before the Court as commanded by the writ unless the petitioner cannot be brought before the court without danger to the petitioner's health. Sickness or infirmity must be confirmed in an affidavit by the person having custody of the petitioner. If the Court is satisfied with the truth of the affidavit, the Court may proceed and dispose of the case as if the petitioner were present or the hearing may be postponed until the petitioner is present.

(ii) Unless the Court postpones the hearing for reasons of the petitioner's health, the Court shall immediately proceed to hear and examine the return. The hearing may be summary in nature. Evidence may be produced and compelled as provided by the laws governing criminal procedures and evidence.

(c) Refusal to obey the writ is contempt. If the person commanded by the writ refuses to obey, that person must be adjudged to be in contempt.

(d) Disposition of petitioner. If the Court finds in favor of the petitioner; an appropriate order must be entered with respect to the judgment or sentence in the former proceeding and any supplementary orders as to reassignment, retrial, custody, bail, or discharge as may be necessary and proper. If the Court finds for the prosecution, the petitioner must be returned to the custody of the person to whom the writ was directed.

Rules of Appellate Procedure

Rule 1. Notice of Appeal. (1) An appeal shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the Appellate Administrator, with a copy to the Clerk of the Tribal Court within 20 days of the date of the final judgment or order of the trial court. Failure of an appellant to timely file a notice of appeal is ground for dismissal of the appeal.

(2) Appeals may be consolidated by order of the Court of Appeals upon its own motion or upon motion of a party, or by stipulation of the parties to the several appeals.

(3) The notice of appeal shall specify the party or parties taking the appeal, and shall designate the judgment, order, or part of either appealed from.

(4) The Appellate Administrator shall serve notice of the filing of a notice of appeal by mailing a copy thereof, together with a copy of the Rules of Appellate Procedure to counsel of record for each party other than the appellant, or, if a party is not represented by counsel to the party at his last known address. The Administrator shall note on each copy served the date on which the notice of appeal was filed. If an appellant is represented by counsel, such counsel shall provide the Administrator with sufficient copies of the notice of appeal to permit the Administrator to comply with the requirements of this rule. Failure of the Administrator to serve notice shall not affect the validity of the appeal. The Administrator shall note in the appellate docket the names of the parties to whom copies have been mailed, with the date of mailing.

Rule 2. Stay of Judgment or Order Pending Appeal. (1) When a criminal defendant files a notice of appeal, any order or judgment resulting in:

(a) imprisonment;

(b) payment of a fine or restitution; or

(c) probation shall be stayed by the trial court pending the posting of reasonable bond as ordered by the Court of Appeals.

(2) The filing of a notice of appeal by the Tribal prosecutor in a criminal case does not stay any order or judgment of the trial court pending decision of the Court of Appeals.

(3) In a civil matter, upon the filing of a notice of appeal, a party may apply to the Chief Justice ex parte for a stay of execution of the judgment or order. The Chief Justice may grant said stay for such period of time and under such conditions as the Chief Justice deems proper, including restraining a party from disposing of, encumbering, or concealing property. The Chief Justice may also order the applicant to provide to the court a surety bond, conditioned for the satisfaction of the judgment or order in full together with costs, interest, and damages for delay, if the appeal is dismissed or if the judgment is affirmed.

Rule 3. Record on Appeal. (1) The original papers and exhibits filed in the Tribal Court, any transcript of the proceedings, and a certified copy of the minute entries prepared by the Clerk of Court shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.

(2) Within 5 days after filing the notice of appeal, the appellant shall order from the court reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already on file as the appellant deems necessary for inclusion in the record. The transcript shall be filed and certified with the Clerk of the Tribal Court as part of the record on appeal within 20 days of the filing of the notice of appeal. In all cases where the appellant intends to urge insufficiency of evidence to support the order or judgment appealed from, it shall be the duty of the appellant to order the entire transcript of the evidence and proceedings. Whenever the appellant appeals a specific finding of fact by the trial court on the ground of insufficiency of evidence, the appellant shall be under a duty to include in the transcript all evidence relevant to such finding. Unless the entire transcript is to be provided, the appellant shall, within the 5–day period, file and serve on the respondent a description of the parts of the transcript which he or she intends to present on appeal. If the respondent deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary he shall, within 5 days after such filing and service, order such parts from the reporter or procure an order from the Chief Justice requiring the appellant to do so. The cost of producing the transcript shall be borne by the appellant unless the chief Justice waives the transcript cost by granting leave to proceed in forma pauperis or for other good cause shown. In the event of such a waiver, the Tribal Court shall provide the transcript. Costs of a transcript are among the costs of appeal that may be awarded by the Court of Appeals to a prevailing party as provided in Rule 21, and if a prevailing appellant's costs have been waived by the Chief Justice, the award will be applied to the transcript costs borne by the Tribal Court.

(3) If no record of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may, within 10 days of the hearing or trial or such time extended as the Chief Justice may allow, prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including his or her recollection. The statement shall be served on the respondent, who may serve objections or propose amendments thereto within 10 days after service. Thereupon, the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted for settlement and approval to the trial judge, and as settled and approved shall be included by the Clerk of the Court in the record on appeal.

Rule 4. Transmission of the Record on Appeal. (1) The record on appeal, including the transcript necessary for the determination of the appeal, shall be transmitted to the Appellate Administrator within 30 days after the filing of the notice of appeal unless the time is extended to a date certain for good cause shown by the Chief Justice upon application of a party.

(2) When the record is complete for purposes of the appeal, the Clerk of Court shall transmit a certified copy to the Appellate Administrator. The Appellate Administrator shall immediately transmit a complete copy of the record to each Justice who will hear the appeal and to any visiting or substitute judge. Documents in bulky containers and physical exhibits will not be transmitted, although a party may move the Chief Justice to make such materials available to the Court at the time when the appeal is first considered at a bench conference by the panel of Justices who will hear the appeal.

Rule 5. Docketing the Appeal and Filing the Record. (1) At the time of filing the notice of appeal, the appellant shall pay to the Clerk of the Tribal Court a fee of $25 for filing and transmitting the record on appeal, unless the fee is waived by the Chief Justice upon the granting of leave to proceed in forma pauperis or for other good cause shown. Failure to pay the filing fee, unless waived, is ground for dismissal of the appeal.

(2) On the date on which the record on appeal is transmitted to the Court of Appeals, the Appellate Administrator will docket the appeal and file the record in a repository. An appeal shall be docketed and filed under the title given to the action in the trial court with such addition as necessary to indicate the identity of the appellant. The Appellate Administrator shall immediately give notice to all parties of the date on which the record was filed and the appeal docketed.

Rule 6. Effect of Dismissal. The dismissal of an appeal is in effect an affirmance of the judgment or order appealed from unless the dismissal is expressly made without prejudice to another appeal.

Rule 7. Harmless Error. No judgment or order shall be reversed upon appeal by reason of any error committed by the trial court affecting the interests of the appellant where the record shows that the same result would have been attained had the trial court not committed an error or errors.

Rule 8. Ruling against Respondent May Be Reviewed. Whenever the record on appeal in a civil case shall contain any order, ruling, or proceeding of the trial court against the respondent, affecting the respondent's substantial rights on the appeal of said cause, the Court of Appeals shall consider such orders, rulings, or proceedings, and shall reverse or affirm the cause on appeal according to the substantial rights of the respective parties, as shown upon the record.

Rule 9. Remedial Powers of the Court of Appeals in Civil Cases. In a civil case, where the proceedings were not stayed, and when the judgment or order is reversed or modified, the Court of Appeals may make complete restitution of all property and rights lost by the erroneous judgment or order, so far as such restitution is consistent with protection of a purchaser of property at a sale ordered by the judgment, or had under process issued upon the judgment.

Rule 10. Certification of Judgment to Clerk of the Tribal Court. When judgment is rendered upon the appeal, it must be certified by the Appellate Administrator to the Clerk of the Tribal Court. The Clerk of Court shall enter the certificate into the records of the Tribal Court. Also, in cases of appeal from a judgment, the Clerk must enter a minute of the judgment of the Court of Appeals on the docket against the original entry; and in cases of appeal from an order, the Clerk must enter a minute against the entry of the order appealed from, containing a reference to the certificate, with a brief statement that such order has been affirmed, reversed, or modified by the Court of Appeals on appeal.

Rule 11. Appeals in Forma Pauperis. An indigent party who desires to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis shall file with the Appellate Administrator a motion for leave so to proceed together with an affidavit showing the party's inability to pay the fees and costs of the appeal or to give security therefor, the party's belief that the party is entitled to redress, and a statement of the issues the party intends to present on appeal. If the motion is granted the Chief Justice may waive the payment of fees or costs or the giving of security therefor.

Rule 12. Filing and Service. (1) Papers required or permitted to be filed with the Court of Appeals must be placed in the custody of the Appellate Administrator within the time fixed for filing. The Administrator shall note upon each such paper or document the time of filing and transmit the same to the Justices and any substitute judge designated to hear the matter.

(2) Copies of all papers filed by any party shall, at or before the time of filing, be served by the party or a person acting for him or her on all other parties to the appeal. Service on a party represented by counsel shall be made on counsel. Service may be personal or by mail. Personal service includes delivery of the copy to a clerk or other responsible person at the office of counsel. Service by mail is complete on mailing. Papers presented for filing shall contain a certification of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service and of the names of the persons served, certified by the person who made service.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in these rules, a signed original and three copies of all papers shall be filed with the Appellate Administrator.

Rule 13. Motions. Unless another form is prescribed by these rules, an application for an order or other relief shall be made by filing a motion in writing for such order or relief. The motion shall state with particularity the grounds therefor and shall set forth the order or relief sought. Counsel shall also note therein that opposing counsel has been contacted concerning the motion and whether opposing counsel objects to the motion. If a motion is supported by briefs, affidavits or other papers, they shall be served and filed with the motion. The Court of Appeals may authorize disposition of motions by a single Justice. If a motion seeks dismissal of the appeal or other substantial relief, any party may file an answer in opposition within 7 days after service of the motion, or within such time as the Court may direct.

Rule 14. Computation and Extension of Time. In computing any period of time prescribed by these rules,

(1) Saturdays, Sundays, and Tribal legal holidays are excluded from the computation, and

(2) the day from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included, but the last day of the period is included.

For good cause shown, the Chief Justice may order an extension of the time prescribed by these rules. All motions or orders for extension of time shall include a date certain on or before which date the act for which an extension of time is requested must be performed.

Rule 15. Briefs. (1) An appellant's brief shall be filed and served within 20 days of the date the record is filed and transmitted. The brief will contain under appropriate headings in the order indicated:

(a) A table of contents and a table of laws, decisions, and other authorities cited, with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited;

(b) A statement of the legal issues presented for review;

(c) A statement of the nature of the case and of the judgment or order appealed from;

(d) A legal argument, which shall contain the contentions of the appellant with respect to the issues presented and the reasons therefor, together with citations to the authorities and pages of the record relied on;

(e) A short conclusion, stating the precise relief sought; and

(f) A copy of the judgment, order, findings of fact, conclusions of law, or decision in question, together with the memorandum opinion, if any.

(2) Respondent's brief shall be filed and served within 20 days after service of the appellant's brief and shall conform to the requirements of subsection (1)(a) through (d) of this rule. A statement of the issues or of the case need not be made if the respondent is satisfied with the statements of the appellant.

(3) Within 14 days of service of the Respondent's brief, the appellant may file a reply brief. Any reply brief must be confined to new matter raised in the brief of the respondent. No further briefs may be filed except with leave of the Chief Justice.

(4) Except by permission of the Chief Justice, briefs shall not exceed 50 pages, double spaced, on 8 ½ x 11 inch paper, exclusive of pages containing the table of contents, tables of citations and any addendum containing statutes, rules, etc.

(5) A signed original and three copies (except as otherwise provided in these rules) of each brief shall be filed with the Appellate Administrator. The brief will contain a certification of service to each party separately represented, and will not be accepted for filing absent such certification.

(6) If an appellant fails to file a brief within the time provided by this rule, or within the time extended, the respondent may move for dismissal of the appeal. If a respondent fails to file a brief, he or she will not be heard at oral argument except by permission of the court.

Rule 16. Oral Arguments. (1) Except in the case of an extraordinary writ or other special or emergency proceeding when the Chief Justice may schedule a special session of the Court, the Chief Justice will set the time and place at which oral argument will be heard during the next regular convening of the appellate bench after the time for filing and service of appellant's reply brief has expired. The Appellate Administrator shall advise all parties of the time and place of hearing. Any request for postponement of the hearing must be made by motion to the chief Justice no later than 10 days prior to the time scheduled for hearing and may be granted for good cause shown.

(2) At oral argument, 45 minutes will be allowed appellant and 35 minutes to respondent. Arguments of multiple parties or amici curiae for appellant or respondent shall be allocated by the parties to conform to these limits. A party is not obliged to use all of the time allowed, and the court may terminate the argument whenever in its judgment further argument is unnecessary.

(3) The appellant is entitled to open and conclude the argument. The opening argument shall include a fair statement of the case, and the closing argument shall be limited to rebuttal of respondent's argument.

(4) If counsel for a party fails to appear, the court may hear arguments on behalf of a party whose counsel is present, and the case will be decided on the briefs and the argument heard. If no counsel appears for any party, the case will be decided on the briefs.

(5) By agreement of the parties, a case may be submitted for decision on the briefs.

Rule 17. Return and Remand. (1) A judgment on appeal shall be entered in full by the Appellate Administrator in the appellate records and transmitted to the Clerk of Court for entry in the records of the case in the trial court.

(2) When a judgment on appeal includes a remand to the court below for further findings of fact, conclusions, or amendment of the trial court judgment or order in keeping with the decision of the Court of Appeals, trial court jurisdiction over the matter is reinstated for the purpose of such further proceedings as may be appropriate. Any party may appeal any amended or modified judgment of the trial court on remand that is not in accord with the appellate decision or instructions or that incorporates new findings or conclusions alleged to be in error.

Rule 18. Entry and Notice of Appellate Orders, Judgments, or Decisions. A notation of an order, judgment or decision of the Court of Appeals in its docket constitutes entry thereof. Upon entry, the Appellate Administrator shall promptly mail to all parties a copy of the order, judgment, or decision, and notice of the date of entry.

Rule 19. Interest on Civil Judgments. If a judgment for money is affirmed, whatever interest is allowed by law shall be payable from the date the judgment was rendered in the trial court. If a judgment is modified or reversed with a direction that a judgment for money be entered in the trial court, the mandate shall contain instructions with respect to interest.

Rule 20. Costs on Appeal. (1) If not otherwise provided by the Court in its decision, costs on appeal and in original proceedings will automatically be awarded to the successful party against the other party; provided however, that costs awarded to plaintiff or relator in special proceedings to review trial court rulings, orders, or judgments will ordinarily be assessed against the real party in interest, namely, the party interested in upholding the trial court's action, rather than against the Tribes or the trial judge.

(2) Costs incurred in the printing or producing of briefs and appendices, in the preparation and transmission of the record, the cost of the reporter's transcript, if necessary for the determination of the appeal, the premiums paid for the cost of supersedeas bonds or other bonds to preserve rights pending appeal, and the fee for filing notice of appeal shall be taken by the Appellate Administrator as costs of the appeal in favor of the party entitled to costs under this rule.

(3) The Appellate Administrator shall, in all civil cases, include in the order of judgment of affirmance, reversal, or modification on appeal or for the issuance of a writ in an original or special proceeding, and in remand, peremptory writ, or judgment, a clause awarding the costs in accordance with this rule or the special order of the Court of Appeals to be recovered by claim as provided by law; and the Administrator shall also furnish therewith an itemized statement of such costs as have been paid by the Administrator or by the Tribal Court.

Rule 21. Petitions for Rehearing en Banc. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this rule, a petition for rehearing before all five Justices may be filed within 10 days after the appellate decision has been rendered by filing an original and five copies of the petition with the Appellate Administrator. The adverse party will have 7 days thereafter in which to serve and file an original and five copies of any objections to rehearing en banc.

(2) No rehearing is allowed for an original proceeding where the entire Court considered the application and participated in the issuance of the order, judgment, or writ.

(3) A petition for rehearing en banc may be presented on the following grounds and no others:

(a) that some fact, material to the decision, or some question decisive of the case submitted by counsel, was overlooked by the Court;

(b) that the decision is in conflict with an express statute or controlling decision; or

(c) that the Court employed inappropriate procedures or considered facts outside the record on appeal.

(4) Within 15 days after receipt of the petition and any objections and upon consultation with his or her colleagues, the Chief Justice may grant or deny the petition for rehearing en banc. If granted, the parties shall submit briefs as provided in Rule 17 on the issues permitted to be raised and the matter will be scheduled for argument unless the parties agree that the matter will be decided on briefs.

Rule 22. Voluntary Dismissal. If the parties sign and file with the Appellate Administrator an agreement that the proceeding be dismissed, specifying the terms as to payment of costs, and whatever fees are due, the Administrator shall enter the case dismissed, and shall give to each party a copy of the agreement filed. An appeal may be dismissed on motion of the appellant upon such terms as to costs as may be agreed upon by the parties or fixed by the Chief Justice.

TITLE II
CHAPTER 1
TRIBAL OFFENSES

Part 1

General Preliminary Provisions

2-1-101. Purpose and construction. The provisions of this Chapter shall be construed in accordance with Tribal customs as well as to achieve the following general principles and purposes:

- (1) to forbid and prevent the commission of offenses and give fair warning of conduct which is declared to be an offense;
- (2) to adequately define the conduct and mental state which constitute an offense and to safeguard permitted conduct;
- (3) to prescribe penalties which are proportionate to the seriousness of the offense and which permit recognition of differing rehabilitative needs of individual offenders while at the same time recognizing the need of the entire Reservation Community to protect itself from offenders;
- (4) to prevent arbitrary and oppressive treatment of persons accused or convicted of offenses and to promote the correction and rehabilitation of such persons; and
- (5) to protect any Tribal member or other person residing on the Reservation whose health or welfare may be adversely affected or threatened due to abuse, neglect or exploitation by family, household members, or other person in a legal or contractual position of providing physical, mental, or medical assistance and support to the affected person.

2-1-102. Civil actions not barred. The Code of Tribal Offenses does not bar, suspend, or otherwise affect any right or liability to damages, penalty, forfeiture, or other remedy authorized by law to be recovered. Civil injury is not merged into the criminal offense.

2-1-103. Exclusiveness of offenses. No conduct constitutes an offense unless so declared by this Code of Tribal Offenses, by any Tribal ordinance, or by specific Montana law incorporated by reference into this Code of Tribal Offenses. The elements of any offense as contained in this code are the sole elements required for conviction in Tribal Court. Extraneous elements required by other jurisdictions shall not be considered by the judge or jury in reaching a verdict of guilt or innocence. However, this provision does not affect the power of the Tribal Court to punish for contempt or to employ any sanction authorized by law for the enforcement of an order, civil judgment, or decree.

2-1-104. Prosecution for multiple offenses. When the conduct of an offender establishes the commission of more than one offense, the offender may be prosecuted separately for each offense. The offender, however, may not be convicted of more than one offense if:

- (1) one offense is included in the other;
- (2) one offense consists only of conspiracy or some other form of preparation for committing the offense;
- (3) inconsistent findings of fact are required to establish the commission of the offenses;

(4) the offenses differ only in that one is defined to prohibit a designated kind of conduct generally and the other to prohibit a specific instance of such conduct; or

(5) the offense is defined to prohibit a continuing course of conduct and the offender's course of conduct was interrupted, unless the law provides that the specific periods of such conduct constitute separate offenses.

2-1-105. Limitation on prosecutions based on same transaction. No person, once convicted of a crime falling within the jurisdiction of the State of Montana or the Tribes shall be punished for the identical act in the courts of the other jurisdiction, but shall be accorded the doctrine of former jeopardy as if the separate jurisdictions were one.

2-1-106. Lesser included offenses. (1) An offender may be convicted of an offense included in an offense charged without having been specifically charged with the lesser included offense. An offense is included when:

(a) it is established by proof of the same or less than all the facts required to establish the commission of the offense charged;

(b) it consists of attempt or solicitation to commit the offense charged or to commit an offense otherwise included therein; or

(c) it differs from the offense charged only in that it is a less serious injury or risk of injury to the same person, property, or Tribal interest, or a lesser kind of culpability suffices to establish its commission.

(2) The Tribal Court need not charge the jury with respect to an included offense unless there is a rational basis for a verdict acquitting the defendant of the offense charged and convicting the defendant of the lesser included offense.

2-1-107. Burden of proof. The defendant in a criminal proceeding is presumed to be innocent until each element of the offense with which the defendant is charged is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. In the absence of such proof, the defendant shall be acquitted.

2-1-109. Time limitations. (1) Unless otherwise specified by statute:

(a) prosecution for any Class A, Class B, Class C, or Class D offense must be commenced within one year after the alleged offense is committed;

(b) prosecution for any Class E offense must be commenced within two years after the alleged offense is committed;

(c) if the victim is a minor or has a mental disorder at the time the offense occurred, prosecution must be commenced within one year after the legal disability terminates.

(2) The period of limitation does not run under the following conditions:

(a) during any period in which the offender is not usually and publicly residing within this Reservation or is beyond the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court;

(b) during any period in which the offender is a public officer and the offense charged is theft of public funds while in public office; or

(c) during a prosecution pending against the offender for the same conduct even if the prosecution is dismissed.

(3) An offense is committed either when every element occurs or, if the offense is based upon a continuing course of conduct, when the course of conduct is terminated. The time starts to run on the day after the offense is committed.

(4) A prosecution is commenced when a complaint is filed.

2-1-110. Sentencing. (1) A person convicted of an offense may be sentenced as follows:

(a) for a conviction of a Class A offense heard in Tribal Traffic Court, the offender may only be sentenced to pay a fine or some other sentence not involving imprisonment;

(b) for a conviction of a Class B offense, the offender may be sentenced to imprisonment for a period not to exceed 10 days, or a fine not to exceed $100, or both, unless another sentence is specified by statute;

(c) for a conviction of a Class C offense, the offender may be sentenced to imprisonment for a period not to exceed 60 days, or a fine not to exceed $250, or both, unless another sentence is specified by statute;

(d) for a conviction of a Class D offense, the offender may be sentenced to imprisonment for a period not to exceed 180 days, or a fine not to exceed $500, or both, unless another sentence is specified by statute; or

(e) for conviction of a Class E offense, the offender may be sentenced to imprisonment for a period not to exceed one year, or a fine not to exceed $5,000, or both, unless another sentence is specified by statute;

(2) The fines listed above may be imposed in addition to any amounts ordered paid as restitution.

(3) Any person adjudged guilty of an offense under this Code shall be sentenced in accordance with this section and Section 2-2-1203, unless otherwise specified.

2-1-111. Mental state. A person is not guilty of an offense unless the person acts purposely, knowingly, or negligently, as the Code may provide, with respect to each element of the offense, or unless the person's acts constitute an offense involving strict liability.

2-1-112. Strict liability. A person may be guilty of an offense without having the requisite mental state only if the Code provision defining the offense clearly indicates the Council's purpose to impose strict liability for the conduct described.

2-1-113. Temporary orders of protection. (1) Whether or not the Tribal Prosecutor files a complaint charging the offense, a person may apply to the Tribal Court for an order of protection if the Prosecutor has reason to believe that a person is a victim of one of the following offenses committed by a person over whom the Tribal Court has jurisdiction: abuse of an elderly or vulnerable person, assault, aggravated assault, intimidation, domestic abuse, criminal endangerment, negligent endangerment, unlawful restraint, kidnaping, aggravated kidnaping, arson, stalking, sexual assault, incest, or sexual intercourse without consent.

(2) The petition for a protective order against a suspected offender shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the alleged victim setting out facts constituting sufficient reason to believe that the suspected offender has committed one of the offenses listed in subsection (1).

(3) The petition may request an order of protection containing any or all of the following provisions for relief of the alleged victim:

- (a) prohibiting the suspected offender from assaulting, threatening, abusing, harassing, following, stalking, or disturbing the peace of the alleged victim;
 - (b) directing the suspected offender to avoid any contact with the alleged victim by staying at least 500 yards from the person, residence, work place, or vehicle of the alleged victim and from the children of the alleged victim and the children's school or daycare facility;
 - (c) directing the suspected offender to avoid any contact with identified family members of the alleged victim or any identified witness to or other identified victim of the suspected offense;
 - (d) directing the suspected offender to refrain from taking, hiding, selling, transferring, or disposing of any property in which the alleged victim has an interest;
 - (e) directing the suspected offender to give the alleged victim possession of necessary personal property;
 - (f) prohibiting the suspected offender from removing any children of the alleged victim from the jurisdiction of the Court; or
 - (g) granting temporary custody of children of the alleged victim solely to the alleged victim.
- (4) Upon a finding that the alleged victim is in danger of harm if the Court does not act immediately, the Court shall issue a temporary order of protection granting some or all of the relief requested and such other relief as may be appropriate in the circumstances. The protective order shall not apply to contacts initiated by the petitioning alleged victim.
- (5) Within 14 days from the date the Court issues a temporary protection order, a hearing must be conducted. At the hearing, the Court shall determine whether good cause exists for the temporary order of protection to be continued, amended, or made permanent. (Rev. 4-15-03)

- (5) "Bodily harm" or "bodily injury" means physical pain, illness or any impairment of physical condition.
- (6) "Citation" means a written direction that is issued by a law enforcement officer and that requests a person to appear before the court at a stated time and place to answer a charge for the alleged commission of an offense.

(9) "Conduct" means an act or series of acts and the accompanying mental state.

(10) "Conviction" means a judgment or sentence entered upon a plea of guilty or no contest, or upon a verdict or finding of a defendant's guilt rendered by a legally constituted jury or by a court of competent jurisdiction authorized to try the case without a jury. Once a conviction has been expunged, it is no longer considered a conviction under Tribal law.

(a) permanently;

(b) for such a period as to appropriate a portion of its value; or

(c) with the purpose to restore it only upon payment of a reward or other compensation.

(14) "Force" means the infliction, attempted infliction, or threatened infliction of bodily harm by a person, or the commission or threat of any other crime by a person against the complainant or another which causes the complainant to reasonably believe that the person has the present ability to execute the threat, thereby causing the complainant to submit.

A person acts knowingly with respect to the result of conduct described by a statute defining an offense when the person is aware that it is highly probable that the result will be caused by the person's conduct. When knowledge of the existence of a particular fact is an element of an offense, knowledge is established if a person is aware of a high probability of its existence. Equivalent terms, such as "knowing" or "with knowledge", have the same meaning.

(19) "Law enforcement officer" means any person who by virtue of his or her office of public or Tribal employment is vested by law with a duty to maintain public order or to make arrests for offenses while acting within the scope of his or her authority.

(21) "Misdemeanor" means a Class A, Class B, Class C, or Class D offense.

(22) "Negligently" A person acts negligently with respect to an element of an offense when the person should be aware of a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the element presently exists or will result from his or her conduct. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that the person's failure to perceive it involves a gross deviation from the standard of care that a reasonable person would observe in the same situation, considering the nature and purpose of the person's conduct and the circumstances known to her or him.

(23) "Obtain or exert unauthorized control" means a person acting without lawful authority:

(a) tries to bring about a transfer of interest or possession in property, whether to the offender or to another; or

(33) "Protective order" is a court order restraining a person from engaging in the commission or continuance of some act which may result in irreparable harm to another.

(34) "Public place" means any place to which the public has access.

(35) "Purposely". A Person acts purposely with respect to a result or to conduct described by a statute defining an offense when:

(a) if the element of the offense involves the nature of his or her conduct or a result thereof, it is his or her conscious object to engage in conduct of that nature or to cause such a result; and

(b) if the element of the offense involves the attendant circumstances, he or she is aware of the existence of such circumstances or he or she believes or hopes that they exist.

(36) "Reasonable apprehension" is deemed to exist in any situation where a person knowingly points a firearm at or in the direction of another person, whether or not the offender believes the firearm to be loaded. Any penetration, however slight, is sufficient.

(41) "Solicit" or "solicitation" means to command, authorize, urge, incite, request or advise another to commit an offense.

(42) "Statute" means any Tribal Code section, Tribal ordinance, or adopted section of the Montana Code Annotated.

(i) The value of an instrument constituting an evidence of debt, such as a check, draft, or promissory note, is considered the amount due or collectible. The figure is ordinarily the face amount of the indebtedness less any portion of the indebtedness that has been satisfied.

(ii) The value of any other instrument that creates, releases, discharges, or otherwise affects any valuable legal right, privilege, or obligation is considered the amount of economic loss that the owner of the instrument might reasonably suffer by virtue of the loss of the instrument.

(iii) The value of electronic impulses, electronically produced data or information, computer software or programs, or any other tangible or intangible item relating to a computer, computer system, or computer network is considered to be the amount of economic loss that the owner of the item might reasonably suffer by virtue of the loss of the item. The determination of the amount of economic loss includes but is not limited to consideration of the value of the owner's right to exclusive use or disposition of the item.

(b) When it cannot be determined if the value of the property is more or less than $1,000 by the standards set forth in subsection (a), its value is considered to be an amount less than $1,000.

Part 2

Liability Principles

2-1-201. Conduct and result. (1) Conduct is the cause of a result if:

(a) without the conduct the result would not have occurred; and

(b) any additional causal requirements imposed by the specific code provision are satisfied.

(2) If knowingly or purposely causing a result is an element of an offense and the result is not within the contemplation or purpose of the offender, either element can nevertheless be established if:

(a) the final result differs from the contemplated result only in the respect that a different person or different property is affected or that the injury or harm caused is less than originally contemplated; or

(b) the result involves the same kind of harm or injury as contemplated but the precise harm or injury is different or occurred in a different way, unless the actual result is too remote or accidental to have a bearing on the offender's liability or on the gravity of the offense.

(3) If negligently causing a particular result is an element of an offense and the offender is not aware or should not have been aware of the probable result, negligence can nevertheless be established if:

(a) the actual result differs from the probable result only in the respect that a different person or different property is affected or that the actual injury or harm is less; or

(b) the actual result involves the same kind of injury or harm as the probable result, unless the actual result is too remote or accidental to have a bearing on the offender's liability or the gravity of the offense.

2-1-202. Voluntary act. An element of every offense is a voluntary act, which includes an omission to perform a duty which the person is mentally, physically and financially capable of performing.

2-1-203. Responsibility. A person who is in an intoxicated or drugged condition is criminally responsible for her or his conduct unless such conduct is involuntarily produced and deprives the person of the capacity to appreciate the criminality of the conduct or to conform her or his conduct to the requirements of the law.

2-1-204. Accountability. (1) A person is legally accountable for the conduct of another when:

(a) having a mental state described by the code provision defining the offense, the person causes another to perform the conduct, regardless of the legal capacity or mental state of the other person;

(b) the code provision defining the offense makes the person accountable;

(c) either before or during the commission of an offense with the purpose to promote or facilitate such commission, the person solicits, aids, abets, agrees, or attempts to aid such other person in the planning or commission of the offense.

(2) However, a person is not accountable if:

(a) the person is a victim of the offense committed; or

(b) before the commission of the crime the person terminates her or his efforts to promote or facilitate the commission of the crime and takes steps to negate the effect or otherwise prevent the commission of the offense.

(3) A person may not be found guilty of an offense on the testimony of one responsible or legally accountable for the same offense unless that testimony is corroborated by other evidence that in itself and without the aid of the testimony of the one responsible or legally accountable for the same offense, tends to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense.

Part 3

Affirmative Defenses and Justifiable Use of Force

2-1-301. Consent. (1) The complainant's or victim's consent to the performance of the conduct constituting an offense or to the result is an affirmative defense which must be proved by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence.

(2) Consent is ineffective if:

(a) it is given by a person who is not legally authorized to approve of the conduct constituting an offense;

(b) it is given by a person who by reason of youth, mental impairment, or mental incapacitation is unable to make a reasonable judgment as to the nature or harmfulness of the conduct charged;

(c) it is induced by force, duress, or deception; or (d) it is against public policy to permit the conduct or the resulting harm, even though consent was given.

2-1-302. Compulsion. A person is not guilty of an offense by reason of conduct which he or she performs under the compulsion of threat or menace of the imminent infliction of death or serious bodily harm if he or she reasonably believes that death or serious bodily harm will be inflicted upon him or her if he or she does not perform such conduct. Compulsion is an affirmative defense which must be proved by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence.

2-1-303. Entrapment. A person is not guilty of an offense if his or her conduct is incited or induced by a public servant or his or her agent for the purpose of obtaining evidence for the prosecution of such person. However, this section is inapplicable if a public servant or his or her agent merely affords to such person the opportunity or facility for committing an offense in furtherance of criminal purpose which such person has originated. Entrapment is an affirmative defense which must be proved by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence.

2-1-304. Self-defense. (1) A person is justified in the use of force or threat to use force against another when and to the extent the person reasonably believes that such conduct is necessary to:

(a) defend herself or himself or another against such other's imminent use of unlawful force;

(b) prevent or terminate such other's unlawful entry into or attack upon an occupied structure; or

(c) prevent or terminate the offender's trespass on, or other tortious or criminal interference with, either real or personal property lawfully in the person's possession, or which the person has a legal duty to protect, or in the possession of another who is a family or household member.

(2) A person is justified in the use of force likely to cause death or serious bodily harm only if the person reasonably believes such force is necessary to prevent imminent death or serious bodily harm to herself or himself or another person.

(3) The defendant has the burden of producing sufficient evidence to raise a reasonable doubt of his or her culpability when the defendant raises self-defense as an affirmative defense.

2-1-305. Use of force by aggressor. Self-defense is not available to a person who (1) is attempting to commit, committing, or escaping after the commission of an offense; or

(2) knowingly or purposely provokes the use of force against herself or himself, unless:

(a) such force is so great that the person reasonably believes there is imminent danger of death or serious bodily harm and the person has exhausted every reasonable means to escape such danger other than the use of force which is likely to cause death or serious bodily harm to the assailant; or,

(b) in good faith, the person withdraws from physical contact with the assailant and clearly indicates to the assailant the desire to withdraw and terminate the use of force but the assailant continues or resumes the use of force.

2-1-306. Use of deadly force. A law enforcement officer, or any person acting under the officer's command to aid and assist, is justified in using deadly force when the officer is performing a legal duty or the execution of legal process and reasonably believes the use of force is necessary to protect herself or himself or others from imminent danger to life.

2-1-307. Resisting arrest. A person is not authorized to use force to resist arrest which the person knows is being made by a law enforcement officer or by a private person summoned and directed by a law enforcement officer to make the arrest, even if the person believes the arrest is unlawful and the arrest is in fact unlawful.

Inchoate Offenses

2-1-401. Conspiracy. (1) A person commits the offense of conspiracy when, with the purpose that an offense be committed, the person agrees with another to the commission of the offense. No person may be convicted of conspiracy to commit an offense unless an act in furtherance of such agreement has been committed by the person or by a co-conspirator.

(2) (a) "Act in furtherance" is any course of conduct which makes it more probable than not that an act towards the commission of an offense will occur and the person's present conduct is not terminated.

(b) Proof of an "act in furtherance" may be drawn from the circumstances surrounding the involved parties' actions and does not require direct proof of an agreement.

(3) It shall not be a defense to conspiracy that the person or persons with whom the accused has conspired:

(a) has not been prosecuted or convicted;

(b) has been convicted of a different offense;

(c) is not amenable to justice;

(d) has been acquitted; or

(e) lacked the capacity to commit the offense.

(4) A person convicted of conspiracy shall be punished not to exceed the maximum sentence provided for the offense which is the object of the conspiracy.

2-1-402. Solicitation. (1) A person commits the offense of solicitation when, with the purpose that an offense be committed, he commands, encourages, or facilitates the commission of that offense.

(2) A person convicted of solicitation shall be punished not to exceed the maximum provided for the offense solicited.

2-1-403. Attempt. (1) A person commits the offense of attempt when, with the purpose to commit a specific offense, the person does any act towards the commission of such offense.

(2) It shall not be a defense to a charge of attempt that because of a misapprehension of the circumstances it would have been impossible for the accused to commit the offense attempted.

(3) A person convicted of attempt shall be punished not to exceed the maximum sentence provided for the offense attempted.

(4) A person shall not be liable under this section if, under circumstances manifesting a voluntary and complete renunciation of the criminal purpose, the person avoided the commission of the offense attempted by abandoning the criminal effort.

(5) Proof of the completed offense does not bar conviction for the attempt.

Part 5

Offenses Involving Damage to the Person

2-1-501. Homicide. (1) A person commits the offense of homicide by purposely, knowingly, or negligently causing the death of another human being.

(2) Homicide is a Class E offense over which the Tribes have concurrent jurisdiction with the State of Montana.

2-1-502. Aiding or soliciting suicide. (1) A person commits the offense of aiding or soliciting a suicide by purposely aiding or assisting another in taking his or her own life.

(2) The fact suicide was not successfully carried out is not a defense.

(3) Aiding or soliciting suicide is a Class E offense over which the Tribes have concurrent jurisdiction with the State of Montana.

2-1-503. Assault. (1) A person commits the offense of assault by:

(a) knowingly or purposely causing bodily harm to another;

(b) negligently causing bodily harm to another with a weapon;

(c) knowingly or purposely making physical contact of an insulting or provoking nature with an individual; or

(d) knowingly or purposely causing reasonable apprehension of bodily harm in another.

(2) "Reasonable apprehension" is deemed to exist in any situation where a person knowingly points a firearm at or in the direction of another person, whether or not the person pointing the firearm believes the firearm to be loaded. In all other circumstances "reasonable apprehension" is a question of fact to be determined by the trier of fact.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), assault is a Class D offense over which the Tribes have exclusive jurisdiction.

(4) If the victim is less than 14 years old and the offender is an adult, the assault is a Class E offense over which the Tribes have concurrent jurisdiction with the State of Montana.

2-1-504. Aggravated assault. (1) A person commits the offense of aggravated assault by knowingly or purposely causing:

(a) serious bodily harm to another;

(b) bodily harm to another with a weapon;

(c) reasonable apprehension of serious bodily harm in another by use of a weapon; or

(d) bodily harm to a law enforcement officer or a person who is responsible for the care or custody of a prisoner.

(2) Aggravated assault is a Class E offense over which the Tribes have concurrent jurisdiction with the State of Montana.

2-1-505. Intimidation. (1) A person commits the offense of intimidation by attempting to have another person perform or refrain from performing a specific act by threatening, under circumstances producing a fear that the threat will be carried out, to:

(a) inflict bodily harm on the person threatened or any other person;

(b) subject any person to physical confinement or restraint; or

(c) commit any Class E offense.

(2) Intimidation is a Class E offense over which the Tribes have concurrent jurisdiction with the State of Montana.

2-1-506. Mistreating prisoners. (1) A person commits the offense of mistreating prisoners, if, being responsible for the care or custody of a prisoner, he purposely or knowingly,

(a) assaults or otherwise injures a prisoner; or

(b) intimidates, threatens, endangers, or withholds reasonable necessities from the prisoner; or

(c) violates any civil right of a prisoner.

(2) Mistreating prisoners is a Class D offense over which the Tribes have exclusive jurisdiction.

2-1-507. Negligent vehicular assault. (1) A person who negligently operates a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol, a dangerous drug, any other drug, or any combination of the three, and who causes bodily injury to another, commits the offense of negligent vehicular assault.

(2) Negligent vehicular assault is a Class D offense over which the Tribes have exclusive jurisdiction.

2-1-508. Negligent endangerment. (1) A person who negligently engages in conduct that creates a substantial risk of death or serious bodily injury to another commits the offense of negligent endangerment.

(2) Negligent endangerment is a Class D offense over which the Tribes have exclusive jurisdiction.

2-1-509. Criminal endangerment. (1) A person who knowingly engages in conduct that creates a substantial risk of death or serious bodily injury to another commits the offense of criminal endangerment.

(2) For the purposes of this Section, "knowingly" means that the person is aware of the high probability that the conduct in which he or she is engaging, whatever that conduct may be, will cause a substantial risk of death or serious bodily injury to another.

(3) Criminal endangerment is a Class E offense over which the Tribes have concurrent jurisdiction with the State of Montana.

2-1-510. Stalking. (1) A person commits the offense of stalking if the person purposely or knowingly causes another person substantial emotional distress or reasonable apprehension of bodily injury or death by repeatedly:

(a) following the stalked person; or

(c) property which constitutes evidence of the commission of a criminal offense.

(2) When a warrant is requested based on oral testimony, communicated by telephone or otherwise, a judge shall:

(a) immediately place the requesting person(s) under oath;

(b) record by voice recording device if available, or otherwise make a verbatim record, of the requesting person's statement and certify the accuracy of this record;

(c) enter on an original warrant the grounds indicating probable cause exists to issue a warrant and the scope of the search warrant as requested or as modified;

(d) sign the original warrant and enter on the face of the original warrant the exact time when the warrant was ordered to be issued; and

(e) direct the requesting party to:

(i) prepare a document identical to the original warrant to be known as a duplicate original warrant;

(ii) sign the duplicate original warrant on behalf of the judge; and

(iii) enter the exact time of execution on the face of the duplicate original warrant.

(3) A judge may require the applicant to furnish further testimony or documentary evidence in support of the application for the warrant.

2-2-209. Scope of search. (1) The scope of any search shall only include those areas specifically authorized by the warrant and is limited to the least restrictive means reasonably necessary to discover the persons or property specified in the warrant.

(2) Upon discovery of the person or property named in the warrant, the law enforcement officer shall take possession or custody of the person or property and search no further under the authority of the warrant.

(3) If, in the course of an authorized search, the law enforcement officer discovers property not specified in the warrant and the officer has probable cause to believe the discovered property constitutes evidence of the commission of a criminal offense, the officer may also take possession of that property.

2-2-210. What may be seized with search warrant. A warrant may be issued under this section to search for and seize any:

(1) evidence;

(2) contraband; or

(3) person for whose arrest there is probable cause, for whom there has been a warrant of arrest issued, or who is unlawfully restrained.

2-2-211. Seizures related to controlled substances. (1) As used in this statute "controlled substance" means any substance designated as a dangerous drug pursuant to Section 2-1-1401.

(2) The following are subject to forfeiture:

(a) all controlled substances that have been manufactured, distributed, prepared, cultivated, compounded, processed, or possessed in violation of 2-1-1401;

(b) all money, raw materials, products and equipment of any kind that are used or intended for use in manufacturing, preparing, cultivating, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of 2-1-1401 except items used or intended for use in connection with quantities of marijuana in amounts of less than 60 grams;

(c) all property that is used or intended for use as a container for anything enumerated in subsection (a) or (b) of this section;

(d) all books, records, research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes and data, that are used or intended for use in violation of 2-1-1401; and

(e) all drug paraphernalia as defined in 2-1-1402(1).

(3) All property subject to forfeiture under subsection (2) of this section may be seized by an officer under a search warrant. Seizure without a warrant may be made if:

(a) the seizure is incident to an arrest or a search warrant issued for another purpose;

(b) the property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the Tribes in a criminal proceeding or a forfeiture proceeding based on this chapter;

(c) the officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(d) the officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of 2-1-1401.

(4) Controlled substances that are possessed, transferred, offered for transfer, manufactured, prepared, cultivated, compounded, or processed in violation of 2-1-1401 and that are seized under the provisions of this part are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the Tribes. Controlled substances which are seized or come into the possession of the Tribes and the owners of which are unknown are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the Tribes.

2-2-212. Procedures for seizures related to controlled substances. (1) Property seized pursuant to Section 2-2-211 (2)(a), (c), (d), or (e) is subject to summary forfeiture.

(2) Property seized pursuant to Section 2-2-211 (2)(b) is subject to the following procedure. An officer who seizes such property shall, within 45 days of the seizure, file a petition to institute forfeiture proceedings with the Clerk of the Court. The Clerk shall issue a summons at the request of the petitioner, who shall cause the same to be served upon all owners or claimants of the property as provided by the civil procedures of this Code.

(3) Within 14 days after the service of the petition and summons, the owner or claimant of the seized property shall file a verified answer to the allegations concerning the use of the property described in the petition to institute forfeiture proceedings. No extension of the time for filing the answer may be granted and failure to answer within 14 days bars the owner or claimant from presenting evidence at any subsequent evidentiary hearing unless extraordinary circumstances exist.

(a) If a verified answer to the petition is not filed within 14 days after the service of the petition and summons, the court upon motion shall order the property forfeited to the Tribes.

(b) If a verified answer is filed within 14 days, the forfeiture proceeding must be set for hearing without a jury no sooner than 60 days after the answer is filed. Notice of the hearing must be given in the manner provided for service of the petition and summons.

(c) An owner of property who has a verified answer on file may prove that the use of the property occurred without his or her knowledge or consent;

(d) A claimant of a security interest in the property who has a verified answer on file must prove that his security interest is bona fide and that it was created after a reasonable investigation of the moral responsibility, character, and reputation of the purchaser and without knowledge that the property was being or was to be used for the purpose charged. However, no person who has a lien dependent upon possession for compensation to which he is legally entitled for making repairs or performing labor upon, furnishing supplies or materials for, or providing storage, repair, or safekeeping of any property and no person doing business within the Flathead Reservation under any applicable law relating to financial institutions, loan companies or licensed pawnbrokers or regularly engaged in the business of selling the property or of purchasing conditional sales contracts for the property may be required to prove that his security interest was created after a reasonable investigation of the moral responsibility, character, and reputation of the owner, purchaser, or person in possession of the property when it was brought to such person.

(4) If the court finds that the property was not used for the purpose charged or that the property was used without the knowledge or consent of the owner, it shall order the property released to the owner of record as of the date of the seizure.

(5) If the court finds that the property was used for the purpose charged and that the property was used with the knowledge or consent of the owner, the property shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) If proper proof of his claim is presented at the hearing by the holder of a security interest, the court shall order the property released to the holder of the security interest if the amount due him is equal to or in excess of the value of the property as of the date of seizure, it being the purpose of this part to forfeit only the right, title, or interest of the owner. If the amount due the secured creditor is less than the value of the property, the property, if it is sold, must be sold at public auction by the Tribal police, or the police may return the property to the secured creditor without an auction.

(b) If no claimant exists and the Law and Order Department wishes to retain the property for its official use, it may do so. If such property is not to be retained, it must be sold.

(c) If a claimant who has presented proper proof of his or her claim exists and the Law and Order Department wishes to retain the property for its official use, it may do so provided it compensates the claimant in the amount of the security interest outstanding at the time of the seizure.

(6) In making a disposition of property under this part, the court may take any action to protect the rights of innocent persons.

(7) Whenever property is seized, forfeited and sold under the provisions of this part, the net proceeds of the sale must be distributed as follows:

(a) to the holders of security interests who have presented proper proof of their claims, if any, up to the amount of their interests in the property,

(b) the remainder, if any, to the Tribal Police Drug Enforcement Fund, and

(c) if the property was seized as a result of the cooperative efforts of the Tribal police and the Mission Mountain Drug Task Force, the remainder, if any, to the funds of the respective agencies in proportion to their involvement.

2-2-213. Disposition of seized property not associated with a drug-related crime. (1) A hearing may be requested before the Tribal Court within 10 working days of any seizure to determine the disposition of all property seized by law enforcement officers.

(2) Upon satisfactory proof of ownership, the property shall be delivered to the owner, unless such property is contraband or is to be used as evidence in a pending case.

(3) Non-contraband property taken as evidence shall be returned to the owner after final judgment has been rendered.

(4) Non-contraband property may be returned to the owner prior to final judgment upon application to and at the discretion of the court.

(5) Property confiscated as contraband or taken as evidence and of unknown ownership and unclaimed for six months shall become the property of the Tribes and may be:

(a) destroyed;

(b) sold at public auction;

(c) retained for the benefit of the Tribes;

(d) lawfully disposed of as ordered by the Tribal Court; or

(e) otherwise disposed of in accordance with Tribal Law.

2-2-214. Investigative stop. In order to obtain or verify an account of the person's presence or conduct or to determine whether to arrest the person, a law enforcement officer may stop any person or vehicle that is observed in circumstances that create a particularized suspicion that the person or occupant of the vehicle has committed, is committing, or is about to commit an offense.

2-2-215. Stop and frisk. A law enforcement officer who has lawfully stopped a person under Section 2-2-214:

(1) may frisk the person and take other reasonable steps necessary for protection if the officer has reasonable cause to suspect that the person is armed and presently dangerous to the officer or another person present;

(2) may take possession of any object that is discovered during the course of the frisk if the officer has probable cause to believe the object is a deadly weapon;

(3) may demand the name and present address of the person; and

(4) shall inform the person, as promptly as possible under the circumstances and in any case before questioning the person, that the officer is a law enforcement officer, that the stop is not an arrest but rather a temporary detention for an investigation, and that upon completion of the investigation, the person will be released if not arrested.

2-2-216. Roadblocks. (1) Law enforcement officers may use a temporary roadblock in order to apprehend a person suspected of committing a criminal offense.

(2) Unless exigent circumstances exist justifying a departure from the requirements given below, the minimum requirements to be met by law enforcement officers when establishing roadblocks include:

(a) establishing a roadblock at a point on the highway clearly visible at a distance of not less than 100 yards in either direction;

(b) placing a sign on the center line of the highway at the point of the roadblock displaying the word "stop" in letters of sufficient size and luminosity to be readable at a distance of not less than 50 yards in both directions either in daytime or darkness;

(c) placing a flashing or intermittent beam of light, which is visible to oncoming traffic for at least 100 yards, on the side of the road at the point of the roadblock; and

(d) placing warning signs, which will attract an oncoming driver's attention, at least 200 yards prior to the roadblock indicating that all vehicles should be prepared to stop.

2-2-217. Duration of stop. A stop authorized under Section 2-2-214 and Section 2-2-216 may not last longer than is necessary to effectuate the purpose of the stop.

Part 3

Commencing Prosecution

2-2-301. Citation. Prosecution for all Class A offenses shall be initiated by citation issued by a law enforcement officer upon Probable cause where the officer has attested to the truth of the allegations contained in the citation under oath.

2-2-302. Complaint. (1) All criminal prosecutions for Class B, Class C, Class D, and Class E offenses shall be initiated by complaint.

(2) The complaint is a written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged.

(3) Application for leave to file a complaint shall be made by a Tribal prosecutor to a judge. An application shall either be by affidavit supported by such evidence as the judge may require or be based on the sworn oral statement of a Tribal prosecutor made on the record. When leave to file a complaint has been granted, a warrant or summons may issue for the defendant's arrest or appearance. The Tribal prosecutor shall file the complaint within 30 days after leave of court is granted.

(4) The complaint shall contain:

(a) the name of the person accused, if known, or a description sufficient to identify the person accused of committing the alleged offense;

(b) the general location where the alleged offense was committed;

(c) the name and code citation of the alleged offense;

(d) a short, concise statement of the specific acts or omissions to act constituting an offense;

(e) the person, if any, against whom the alleged offense was committed, if known, except in the case of a sexual offense or an offense involving a minor;

(f) the date and approximate time of the commission of the alleged offense, if known; and

(g) the signature of a Tribal prosecutor.

(5) No minor omission from or error in the form of the complaint shall be grounds for dismissal unless the defendant is shown to be significantly prejudiced by the omission or error.

(6) A specific Class of an offense need not be included in the complaint. If a factual allegation is contained in the complaint which will supply the information needed to determine the degree of the offense, the Judge may use that information to determine bail. If no factual allegation is made, the offense shall be considered the least degree possible under the offense charged, for the purposes of setting bail.

(7) The judge issuing the complaint shall examine the complainant under oath to:

(a) ascertain the validity of the complaint;

(b) determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the defendant has committed the crime alleged; and

(c) decide whether an arrest warrant or a summons should issue.

2-2-303. Amending the complaint. (1) A complaint may be amended in matters of substance at any time prior to arraignment without leave of the Tribal Court.

(2) A complaint may be amended in matters of substance at any time not less than 5 days before trial with leave of the Tribal Court.

(3) When the prosecution seeks leave to amend a complaint as to a matter of substance, the prosecutor shall file:

(a) a motion for leave to amend stating the nature of the proposed amendment;

(b) a copy of the proposed complaint, as amended; and

(c) an affidavit setting forth facts and circumstances sufficient to show probable cause exists to justify the amended complaint.

(4) If the motion is timely filed and the amended complaint is supported by probable cause, the court shall grant leave to amend.

(5) The defendant shall be arraigned on the amended complaint without unreasonable delay.

(6) The defendant shall be given a reasonable period of time to prepare for trial on the amended complaint.

(7) The court may permit a complaint to be amended as to form at any time before a verdict or a finding if no additional or different offense is charged and if the substantial rights of the defendant are not prejudiced.

(8) No charge may be dismissed because of a formal defect which does not tend to prejudice any substantial right of the defendant.

2-2-304. Joinder and severance of offenses and defendants. (1) Two or more offenses or different statements of the same offense may be charged in the same complaint in separate counts, or alternatively, if the offenses charged are of the same or similar character and are based on the same transactions connected together or constituting parts of a common scheme or plan. Allegations made in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count.

(2) The Tribal Court may order that different offenses or counts set forth in the complaint be tried separately or consolidated.

(3) The prosecution is not required to elect between the different offenses or counts set forth in the complaint and the defendant may be convicted of any number of the offenses charged, except as provided in section 2-2-306. Each offense of which the defendant is convicted must be stated in the verdict or the finding of the Tribal Court.

2-2-305. Discharge of codefendant. (1) When two or more persons are included in the same charge, the Tribal Court may, at any time prior to the defendants presenting their cases and upon application of the prosecutor, direct any defendant be discharged so that the defendant may be a witness for the prosecution.

(2) When two or more persons are included in the same complaint and the Tribal Court determines that there is insufficient evidence to prosecute one of the named defendants, the Tribal Court must discharge that defendant before the evidence is closed so that the discharged defendant may be a witness for the codefendant.

2-2-306. Multiple charges from the same transaction. (1) When the same transaction may establish the commission of more than one offense, a person charged with conduct may be prosecuted for each offense.

(2) A person may not, however, be convicted of more than one offense if:

- (a) one offense is included in the other;
- (b) one offense consists only of a conspiracy or other form of preparation to commit the other;
- (c) inconsistent findings of fact are required to establish the commission of the offenses;
- (d) the offenses differ only in that one is defined to prohibit a specific instance of conduct; or
- (e) the offense is defined to prohibit a continuing course of conduct, and the defendant's course of conduct was interrupted, unless the law provides that the specific periods of the conduct constitute separate offenses.

Part 4

Arrest and Related Procedures

2-2-401. Method of arrest. (1) An arrest is made by actually restraining the person to be arrested or by that person voluntarily submitting to the custody of the person making the arrest.

(2) All necessary and reasonable force may be used in making an arrest, but the person arrested shall not be subject to any greater restraint than is necessary to hold or detain the person.

(3) All necessary and reasonable force may be used to effect an entry into any building or property or part thereof to make an authorized arrest.

2-2-402. Time of making arrest. An arrest may be made any day of the week and at any time of the day or night. A person, however, cannot be arrested in her or his home or private dwelling at night for a Class A, Class B, or Class C offense without an arrest warrant specifically permitting arrest at night except for an offense involving damage to a person and the provisions of 2-2-403 are followed.

2-2-403. Arrest by law enforcement officer. (1) A law enforcement officer may arrest a person within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation under the following circumstances:

(a) when the officer has a warrant commanding that the person be arrested or when the officer believes on reasonable grounds that a warrant for the person's arrest has been issued by the Tribal Court or that a warrant for the person's arrest has been issued in another jurisdiction;

(b) when the person has committed an offense in the officer's presence; or

(c) when the officer has probable cause, as reflected by stated and provable facts, to believe the person to be arrested has committed an offense and exigent circumstances require an immediate warrantless arrest in order to prevent the person from

(i) fleeing the jurisdiction or concealing himself or herself to avoid arrest;

(ii) destroying or concealing evidence of the commission of an offense;

(iii) injuring another person; or

(iv) damaging property belonging to another.

(2) When an arrest is made without an arrest warrant, the arresting officer must inform the person to be arrested, as soon as practicable, of his or her authority to make the arrest and the reasons for making the arrest.

(3) A law enforcement officer may arrest a person, including at her or his place of residence, without an arrest warrant if the officer has probable cause to believe the person is committing or has committed abuse against an elder, family member, or household member, regardless of whether the offense took place in the responding law enforcement officer's presence.

(4) Arrest is the preferred response in situations:

(a) involving bodily harm to an elder, family member or household member;

(b) involving use or threatened use of a weapon against an elder, family member or household member; or

(c) where there appears to be imminent danger of bodily harm to another.

(5) If an arrest is made without a warrant, the Court shall make a determination of the existence of probable cause for the arrest within 48 hours of the arrest.

(6) For any class of offense, in lieu of making a custodial arrest, a law enforcement officer may issue a citation requiring the defendant to appear in Tribal Court at a designated time and on a designated date.

(7) An arrest made outside the boundaries of the Flathead Reservation shall be valid if made pursuant to the laws of the jurisdiction where the arrest occurred.

2-2-404. Arrest warrants. (1) An arrest warrant shall be issued by a judge, based on a sworn complaint or affidavit showing there is probable cause to believe an offense has been committed and the named person has committed the offense. The warrant shall:

(a) be in writing in the name of the Tribes;

(b) set forth the nature of the offense;

(c) command the person against whom the sworn complaint or affidavit was made be arrested, or a description of the person as well as any alias used by the person;

(d) be signed by a judge; and

(e) include any bail amount, if deemed appropriate by the issuing judge.

(2) A law enforcement officer shall, as soon as practicable, inform the person named in the arrest warrant of:

(a) her or his authority to make the arrest;

(b) the intention to arrest the person;

(c) the grounds for the arrest;

(d) the existence of an arrest warrant; and

(e) the amount of bail, if specified in the warrant.

(3) A copy of the arrest warrant must be shown to the person arrested, as soon as practicable.

(4) An arrest made pursuant to a warrant shall not be dismissed due to minor irregularities in the warrant which do not substantially affect any rights of the arrested person.

2-2-405. Notice of rights prior to interrogation. (1) Prior to questioning any person in custody, a law enforcement officer must inform the person in clear and unequivocal terms of the following rights:

(a) that the person has the right to remain silent;

(b) that anything said by him or her can and will be used against the person in any subsequent court proceedings;

(c) that the person has the right to legal counsel or representation as provided in Sections 2-2-503, prior to answering any questions; and

(d) that if, at any point during questioning, the person indicates that she or he wishes to remain silent the questioning will cease.

(2) Any statement obtained in violation of these rights may not be admitted into evidence.

(3) The fact that a person chooses to remain silent cannot be used against her or him in any subsequent criminal proceedings.

2-2-406. Summons. (1) The Tribal Court may or, upon request of a prosecutor, shall issue a summons instead of an arrest warrant.

(2) The summons may be served personally or by first-class mail.

(3) A summons shall:

(a) be in writing in the name of the Tribes;

(b) state the name of the person summoned, along with that person's address, if known;

(c) set forth the nature of the offense charged;

(d) set the date issued;

(e) command the person to appear in Tribal Court at a specified date and time; and

(f) be signed by a judge.

2-2-407. Written report when no arrest made in abuse situation. When a law enforcement officer is called to the scene of a reported incident of elder or domestic abuse but does not make an arrest, the officer shall file a written report with the commanding officer stating the reasons for deciding not to make an arrest.

2-2-408. Notice of rights in abuse situation. (1) Whenever a law enforcement officer is called to the scene of a reported incident of domestic abuse, the officer shall advise the injured party, if present, of the availability of services in the community and give the injured party immediate notice of legal rights and remedies available.

(2) The notice given by the law enforcement officer must include furnishing the injured party with a copy of the following statement:

IF YOU ARE THE VICTIM OF DOMESTIC ABUSE, the Tribal Prosecutor's Office can file criminal charges against your abuser. You also have the right to go to court and file a petition requesting:

(a) that your abuser be restrained from further abuse;

(b) that the abuser leave the household and stay away for a period of time;

(c) that your abuser be restrained from transferring any property except in the usual course of business;

(d) that you be granted temporary custody of your child or children; or

(e) that your abuser be restrained from interfering with your custody of your child or children;

2-2-409. Extradition. (1) If a Tribal law enforcement officer arrests an individual based on a warrant issued by the State of Montana, or a reasonable belief that a warrant has been issued by the State of Montana, the Tribes may hold such individual for up to forty-eight hours, after any Tribal sentence has been served, for transport by State officials. If State officials do not retrieve the defendant within that time, he or she shall be released. The defendant shall be entitled to bail at the amount set in the State warrant.

(2) If a Tribal law enforcement officer arrests an individual pursuant to Section 2-2-403 above based on a warrant from a jurisdiction other than the State of Montana, or based on a reasonable belief that a warrant has been issued by a jurisdiction other than the State of Montana, he shall be entitled to a hearing before the Tribal Court on the following issues:

- (a) whether such warrant exists; and
- (b) whether the individual arrested is the person named in the warrant; and
- (c) whether the court issuing the warrant had jurisdiction to issue the warrant; and
- (d) whether the arrest by Tribal law enforcement was lawful.

After being fully informed of his or her rights, the defendant may, in writing, waive the right to a hearing. If not waived, the hearing shall be held within two days of the arrest, and the defendant shall have the right to be represented by the Tribal Defenders Office. Prior to the hearing the defendant shall be entitled to bail at the sum set in the warrant.

(3) If at the hearing the Court does not find these factors to be established by the Tribal Prosecutor by clear and convincing proof, it shall order the defendant immediately released. If at the hearing the Court finds these factors to be established by the Tribal Prosecutor by clear and convincing proof, it shall order the defendant held for a reasonable time not to exceed ten days, after any Tribal sentence has been served, for the other jurisdiction to retrieve the defendant. After the hearing the defendant may be admitted to bail in an amount set by the Tribal Court, on the condition that he or she surrender himself or herself at a specified time, and on such additional restrictions as the Court deems appropriate. If such other jurisdiction does not retrieve the defendant within that time, the defendant shall be released.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be considered to limit or restrict an individual's right to seek a writ of habeas corpus under Section 1-2-722.

Part 5

Initial Appearance, Presence of Defendant, and Right to Counsel

2-2-501. Initial appearance. (1) A person arrested, whether with or without a warrant, must be taken before a judge of the Tribal Court for an initial appearance within two working days following the arrest.

(2) A person not arrested shall appear for an initial appearance at the time and place designated in the citation or summons. (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-502. Duty of court at initial appearance. (1) The judge shall inform the defendant of:

(a) the charge or charges against him or her;

(b) the maximum penalty allowed under Tribal Law for the offense;

(c) the defendant's right to counsel provided by the Tribal Defender's Office pursuant to Section 2-2-504 or to obtain private counsel at her or his own expense.

(d) the right to call any witness on her or his behalf;

(e) the right to request a jury trial;

(f) the right to remain silent and that any statement made by her or him may be used in evidence against her or him at any subsequent court proceedings;

(g) the general circumstances under which the defendant may obtain pretrial release;

(h) the right to cross-examine the Tribes' witnesses; and

(i) the right to have up to 10 working days before arraignment.

(2) The judge shall admit the defendant to bail as provided by Section 2-2-602 of this Code.

2-2-503. Presence of defendant. Unless otherwise set forth in this chapter, a defendant shall be present at all stages of the proceedings. The Court in its discretion may allow the defendant to appear through counsel.

2-2-504. Right to counsel. (1) During the initial appearance before the court, every defendant must be informed of the right to have counsel, and must be asked if the aid of counsel is desired.

(2) If the defendant desires counsel and is indigent as defined in Section 1-2-402, and if the court desires to retain imprisonment as a sentencing option or if the interests of justice so require, the court shall assign the Tribal Defender's Office to provide counsel to the defendant.

(3) If the defendant wishes to obtain private counsel, the court shall grant a reasonable time prior to arraignment for defendant's attorney to enter an appearance in the cause.

(4) A defendant may waive the right to counsel when the court ascertains that the waiver is made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently in writing.

Part 6

Bail

2-2-601. Release prior to criminal proceedings. A person charged with any offense is bailable before conviction and shall be released from custody by the court upon reasonable conditions that ensure the appearance of the defendant and protect the safety of the community or of any person.

2-2-602. Release or detention. (1) The release or detention of the defendant must be determined immediately upon the defendant's initial appearance.

(2) The criteria for determining the conditions of release include, but are not limited to the following:

(a) defendant's employment status and work history;

(b) defendant's financial condition;

(c) the nature and extent of defendant's family relationships and ties to the Reservation community;

(d) defendant's past and present residences;

(e) names of individuals personally agreeing to assure defendant's court appearance;

(f) the nature and circumstances of the current charge, including whether the offense involved the use of force or violence;

(g) the defendant's prior criminal record, if any, and whether, at the time of the current arrest or offense, the defendant was on probation, on parole, or on other release pending trial, sentencing, or appeal for an offense;

(h) the defendant's record of appearance at court proceedings; and

(i) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would be posed by the defendant's release.

(3) The Court may in its discretion grant temporary release from custody under any conditions the Court deems appropriate.

2-2-603. Release on own recognizance and reasonable bail. (1) Any person in custody, if otherwise eligible for bail, may be released on his personal recognizance subject to such conditions as the court may reasonably prescribe to assure his appearance when required.

(2) In all cases, the amount set for bail must be reasonable.

(3) Reasonable bail reflects an amount which is:

(a) sufficient to ensure the presence of the defendant in any pending criminal proceeding;

(b) sufficient to assure compliance with the conditions set forth in a bail or release order; and

(b) not oppressive.

2-2-604. Conditions upon defendant's release. (1) The court may impose any condition that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the defendant as required or that will ensure the safety of any person or the community, including, but not limited to the following conditions:

(a) the defendant shall remain in the custody of a designated person who agrees to supervise the defendant and report any violation of a release condition to the court, if the designated person is reasonably able to assure the court that the defendant will appear as required and will not pose a danger to the safety of any person or the community;

(b) the defendant may not commit an offense during the period of release;

(c) the defendant shall maintain employment or, if unemployed, actively seek employment;

(d) the defendant shall abide by specified restrictions on the defendant's personal associations, place of abode, and travel;

(e) the defendant shall avoid all contact with an alleged victim of the crime and any potential witness who may testify concerning the offense;

(f) the defendant shall comply with a specified curfew;

(g) the defendant may not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon;

(h) the defendant may not use or possess alcohol, or any dangerous drug or other controlled substance without a legal prescription;

(i) the defendant shall report on a regular basis to a designated agency or individual, or both;

(j) the defendant shall furnish bail; or

(k) the defendant shall return to custody for specified hours following release from employment, schooling, or other approved purposes.

(2) The court shall subject the defendant to the least restrictive condition or combination of conditions that will ensure the defendant's appearance and provide for protection of any person or the community. At any time, the court may, upon a reasonable basis, amend the order to impose additional or different conditions of release upon its own motion or upon the motion of either party.

2-2-605. Bail schedule. (1) The Chief Judge of the Tribal Court shall establish and post a schedule of bail for offenses to be used by law enforcement officers.

(2) A law enforcement officer may accept bail on behalf of the Tribal Court whenever the amount of bail is specified in the warrant of arrest or in accordance with the posted bail schedule.

(3) When a law enforcement officer accepts bail, based on an arrest warrant or current bail schedule, the officer shall give a signed receipt to the offender setting forth the bail received and the name of the person posting the bail. At the earliest time practicable, the law enforcement officer shall deliver the bail and duplicate copy of the bail receipt to the Tribal Court; obtaining a receipt for the bail delivered from a Clerk of Court.

(4) The Chief Judge of the Tribal Court shall replace any existing bail schedule with a revised bail schedule by January 31 of each year.

(5) Bail may be specifically set by a judge for any offense not listed on the posted bail schedule.

2-2-606. Changing bail or conditions of release. (1) Upon application by the Tribes or the defendant, the Tribal Court may increase or reduce the amount of bail, alter the conditions in the bail or release order, or revoke bail.

(2) Reasonable notice of such application must be given to the opposing parties or their attorneys by the applicant.

2-2-607. Forms of bail. (1) Bail may be furnished in the following ways, as the court may require:

(a) by a deposit with the court of an amount equal to the required bail of cash or other personal property approved by the court;

(b) by pledging real estate situated within the Reservation with an unencumbered equity, not exempt, owned in fee simple by the defendant or sureties at a value double the amount of the required bail;

(c) by posting a written undertaking by the defendant and by two sufficient sureties; or

(d) by posting a commercial surety bond executed by the defendant and by a qualified agent for and on behalf of the surety company.

(2) The amount of the bond must ensure the appearance of the defendant at all times required through all stages of the proceeding and remain in effect until final sentence is pronounced in open court.

(3) Nothing in this part prohibits a surety from surrendering the defendant in a case in which the surety feels insecure in accepting liability for the defendant.

2-2-608. Property and surety bonds. (1) If property posted as a condition of release is personal property, the defendant or sureties shall file a sworn schedule that must contain a list of the personal property, including a description of each item, its location and market value, and the total market value of all items listed.

(2) If the property is real estate the defendant or sureties shall file a sworn schedule that must contain a legal description of the property, a description of any encumbrance on the property, including the amount of each encumbrance and its holder, and the market value of the unencumbered equity owned by the defendant or sureties;

(3) If the property is a written undertaking with sureties, each surety must be a Reservation resident and worth the amount specified in the undertaking, exclusive of property exempt from execution; but the court may allow more than two sureties to justify severally and in amounts less than that expressed in the undertaking if the whole justification is equivalent to the amount required.

(4) If the property posted is a commercial bond, it may be executed by any domestic or foreign surety company that is qualified to transact surety business in Montana. The undertaking must state the following:

(a) the name and address of the surety company that issued the bond;

(b) the amount of the bond and the unqualified obligation of the surety company to pay the court should the defendant fail to appear as guaranteed; and

(c) a provision that the surety company may not revoke the undertaking without good cause.

(5) The court may examine the sufficiency of an undertaking and take any action it considers proper to ensure that a sufficient undertaking is posted.

2-2-609. Release of bail. When all conditions of release have been satisfactorily performed and the defendant has been discharged from any obligations imposed by the Tribal Court, the court shall return any security posted by the defendant to satisfy bail requirements.

2-2-610. Violation of a release order. (1) If a defendant violates a condition of release, including failure to appear, the prosecutor may make a motion to the court for revocation of the order of release. The court may issue a warrant for the arrest of a defendant charged with violating a condition of release and declare the bail to be revoked. Upon arrest, the defendant must be brought before the court without unnecessary delay and the court shall conduct a hearing and re-determine bail. On finding probable cause that the defendant has violated a tribal, state, or federal law, or on finding a violation of any other release condition by clear and convincing evidence, the Court may:

- (a) reinstate the original release order on the same conditions and amount of bail; or
- (b) revoke the original bail, increase the amount of the bail and modify the conditions of release; or
- (c) at the defendant's request, revoke the defendant's release for any period of time, up to 10 days, and then reinstate release on the original conditions and bail or on such conditions and bail as the Court deems appropriate. Such time shall not be credited as time served under Section 2-2-1210 or 2-2-1211.

(2) This section provides the exclusive remedy for a violation of a release order. A defendant may not be charged with contempt or found in contempt for violation of a release order.

(3) Neither a cash bond nor a commercial bond may be forfeit for violation of release conditions, except for failing to appear for court proceedings without a lawful excuse.

(4) Notice of an order of forfeiture must be mailed to the defendant and the defendant's sureties at their last-known address(es) within 10 working days of the date of the order or the bond becomes void. (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-611. Forfeiture order. (1) If within 90 days of the forfeiture order, the defendant, or the defendant's surety, appears and presents evidence justifying the defendant's failure to appear or otherwise meet the conditions found in the release order, the Tribal Court may direct the forfeiture of the bail to be discharged upon such terms as are just.

(2) If the forfeiture order is not discharged by the Tribal Court, the court shall proceed with the forfeiture of bail as follows:

- (a) if money has been posted as bail, the court shall pay the money to the Tribal Executive Treasurer; or
- (b) if other property is posted as a condition of release, the property must be sold in the same manner as property sold in civil actions. The proceeds of the sale must be used to satisfy all court costs and prior encumbrances, if any, and from the balance, a sufficient sum to satisfy the forfeiture must be paid to the Tribal Executive Treasurer.
- (3) If a surety bond has been posted as bail, execution may be issued against the sureties or the surety company in the same manner as executions in civil actions. (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-612. Surrender of defendant. (1) At any time before the forfeiture of bail:

- (a) the defendant may surrender to the court or any Tribal law enforcement officer; or
- (b) the surety company may arrest the defendant and surrender the defendant to the court or to any Tribal law enforcement officer.

(2) The law enforcement officer will detain the defendant in the officer's custody and shall file a certificate, acknowledging the surrender, in court. The court may then order the bail exonerated.

Part 7

Arrestment of the Defendant

2-2-701. Joint defendants. Defendants who are jointly charged may be arraigned separately or together in the discretion of the court.

2-2-702. Procedure on arraignment. (1) A defendant shall be arraigned in open Tribal Court whenever a complaint has been filed by a Tribal prosecutor. Arraignment consists of reading the charge, unless the defendant waived the reading, and supplying a copy of it to the defendant and calling on the defendant to plead to the charge.

(2) If a defendant waives his or her right to counsel in writing, the court may arraign the defendant at the initial appearance.

(3) Prior to accepting any plea at the time of arraignment, the presiding judge must: (a) verify that the person appearing before the Tribal Court is the defendant named in the complaint, and that the defendant's true name appears on the complaint and if different from the name used on the complaint, order the complaint amended to reflect the true name;

(b) determine whether the defendant has a mental disorder that would prevent the defendant from understanding the charges, the penalties, or the effects of a plea, and, if the determination is that defendant has a mental disorder, the arraignment may be continued until the defendant is able to proceed; and

(c) allow a reasonable time, not less than 1 day, if the defendant requires it, to answer or plead to the complaint by incorporating appropriate pretrial motions into the answer, or otherwise.

2-2-703. Plea alternatives. (1) A defendant shall enter a plea of guilty, not guilty, or, if the judge agrees, no contest, to all charges each charge contained in the complaint. A plea of no contest may be accepted by a judge only after due consideration of the views of the parties and interest of the Tribes in the effective administration of justice.

(2) The court may not accept a plea of guilty or no contest without first determining: (a) that the plea is voluntary and not the result of force or threats or of promises apart from a plea agreement. The court shall also inquire as to whether the defendant's willingness to plead guilty results from prior discussions between the prosecutor and the defendant or the defendant's attorney;

(b) that the defendant understands the following: (i) the nature of the charge for which the plea is offered, any mandatory minimum penalty, the maximum penalty, and, when applicable, that the court may require the defendant to make restitution to the victim; (ii) the defendant will be giving up his or her right to a trial;

(c) that if the defendant pleads guilty in fulfillment of a plea agreement, the court is not required to accept the terms of the agreement and that the defendant may not be entitled to withdraw the plea if the agreement is not accepted; and

(d) that, in charges for which imprisonment is a possible penalty, there is a factual basis for the plea.

(3) A defendant pleading not guilty must inform the judge at the time of arraignment if a jury trial is requested.

(4) If a defendant voluntarily enters a plea of guilty the judge may impose a sentence at that time or, on the court's own motion or the request of either party, schedule a sentencing hearing in order to allow sufficient time for the involved parties to obtain any information deemed necessary for the imposition of a just sentence.

(5) Prior to the imposition of any sentence, the judge shall allow the defendant an opportunity to inform the court of any extenuating or mitigating circumstances which should be considered by the court in imposing penalties.

(6) With the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecutor, a defendant may enter a plea of guilty or no contest, reserving the right, on appeal from the judgment, to review the adverse determination of any specified pretrial motion. If the defendant prevails on appeal, the defendant must be allowed to withdraw the plea.
(Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-704. Record of arraignment. The Clerk of Court shall prepare and keep a record of all arraignment proceedings.

2-2-705. Plea agreement procedure. (1) A prosecutor and counsel for the defendant, or the defendant when acting pro se, may engage in discussions with a view toward reaching an agreement that, upon the entering of a plea of guilty to a charged offense or to a lesser or related offense, the prosecutor will do one of the following:

(a) move for dismissal of other charges; or

(b) make a recommendation, or agree not to oppose the defendant's request, for a particular sentence, with the understanding that the recommendation or request may not be binding on the court.

(2) A plea bargain agreement may be entered into anytime prior to a verdict or finding of guilt by judge or jury.

(3) Final plea bargain offers shall be given to the defendant no later than 8 working days prior to trial. Plea bargains entered into up to 5 days prior to trial will be reviewed by the court and approved if not unconscionable. After that time, plea bargains will receive heightened scrutiny with no assurance being given of the acceptability of such plea bargains.

(4) If a plea agreement has been reached by the parties, the court shall, on the record, require a disclosure of the agreement in open court at the time the plea is offered.

2-2-706. Telephonic change of plea. In exceptional circumstances and at its discretion, the court may accept a defendant's change of plea through a recorded telephonic proceeding.

Part 8

Pretrial Motions and Discovery

2-2-801. Pretrial defenses and objections. (1) Except for good cause shown, any defense objection, or request which is capable of determination without trial on the general issues must be raised before trial by motion to dismiss or for other appropriate relief. All motions must be in writing and must be supported by a statement of the relevant facts upon which the motion is being made unless otherwise directed by the judge.

(2) Failure of a party to raise defenses or objections or to make requests that must be made prior to trial, except lack of jurisdiction or the failure of a complaint to state an offense which must be noticed by the court at any time during the pendency of a proceeding, constitutes a waiver of the defense, objection, or request. The court, for good cause shown, may grant relief from any waiver provided in this section.

(3) Motions in Limine should be made at least 5 days before trial, unless good cause is shown.

2-2-802. Suppression of evidence. (1) A defendant aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move to suppress as evidence anything obtained by the unlawful search and seizure. The motion must be filed at least 10 days before trial, unless good cause is shown for waiving this time restriction.

(2) The motion must specify the evidence sought to be suppressed and the grounds upon which the motion is based.

(3) When the motion to suppress challenges the admissibility of evidence obtained without a warrant, the prosecution has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the search and seizure were valid.

(4) If the motion is granted, the evidence is not admissible at trial.

2-2-803. Motion to suppress confession or admission. (1) A defendant may move to suppress as evidence any confession or admission given by her or him on the ground that it was not voluntary or that was otherwise obtained in violation of his or her rights.

(2) The motion must be filed at least 10 days before trial, unless good cause is shown for waiving this time restriction.

(3) If the allegations of the motion state facts which, if true, show that the confession or admission was not voluntarily made or was otherwise obtained in violation of the defendant's rights, the Tribal Court shall conduct a hearing on the merits of the motion. The prosecution must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the confession or admission was not obtained in violation of the defendant's rights.

(4) The issue of admissibility of the confession or admission may not be submitted to the jury. If the confession or admission is determined to be admissible, the circumstances surrounding the making of the confession or admission may be submitted to the jury as bearing upon the credibility or the weight to be given to the confession or admission.

(5) If the motion to suppress is granted, the confession or admission may not be admitted into evidence by the prosecution at the time of trial. (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-804. Disclosure by prosecution. (1) At the time of the initial appearance, the prosecutor shall disclose to the defendant the name of the person, if any, against whom the offense was committed if not disclosed in the complaint.

(2) At the arraignment or as soon thereafter as practicable the defendant may request notice of all evidence the prosecutor intends to use in the prosecution case-in-chief at trial.

(3) Upon defendant's request, any of the following information or evidence which is within the possession, custody, or control of the Tribal Prosecutor is subject to disclosure and production and may be copied or photographed, as appropriate for the item, by the defendant:

(a) any relevant written or recorded statement made by the defendant while in the custody of the Tribes and of any person who will be tried with the defendant;

(b) the names, addresses, and statements of all persons whom the prosecutor may call as witnesses in the case in chief.

(c) the defendant's prior criminal record, if any;

(d) any books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, drawings of buildings or places, or other physical or demonstrative evidence which is intended for use by the prosecution at trial;

(e) any written reports of or statements of experts who have personally examined the defendant or any evidence in the particular case, together with results of physical examinations, scientific tests or experiments, or comparisons; and

(f) all material or information that tends to mitigate or negate the defendant's guilt as to the offense charged or that would tend to reduce the defendant's potential sentence.

(4) At the same time, the prosecutor shall inform the defendant of, and make available to the defendant for examination and reproduction, any written or recorded material or information within the prosecutor's control regarding:

(a) whether there has been any electronic surveillance of any conversation to which the defendant was a party;

(b) whether an investigative subpoena has been executed in connection with the case; and

(c) whether the case has involved an informant and, if so, the informant's identity.

(5) Attorney work product of the Tribal Prosecutor's office is not subject to disclosure and production.

(6) The Prosecution shall provide written notice of any evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts, that it intends to offer under Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence, at least two weeks prior to the close of discovery. The notice shall describe the evidence in sufficient detail to inform the Defendant of the date, time, place, and witnesses to the alleged incidents, and shall also state the purpose for which such evidence shall be offered.

(7) The obligations imposed by this section are continuing.

2-2-805. Disclosure by defendant. (1) At any time after the filing of a complaint, the defendant, in connection with the particular offense charged, shall upon written request of the prosecutor and approval of the court:

(a) appear in a lineup;

(b) speak for identification by witnesses;

(c) be fingerprinted, palm printed, footprinted, or voiceprinted;

(d) pose for photographs not involving reenactment of an event;

(e) try on clothing;

(f) provide handwriting samples;

(g) permit the taking of samples of the defendant's hair, blood, saliva, urine, or other specified materials that involve no unreasonable bodily intrusions; and

(h) submit to reasonable physical or medical examination where the examination does not involve psychological or psychiatric evaluation.

(2) Except as provided in Section (4), not later than the close of discovery upon request of the prosecution or at another time as the court for good cause may permit, the defendant or defendant's counsel shall make available to the prosecutor for testing, examination, or reproduction:

(a) the names, addresses, and statements of all persons, other than the defendant, whom the defendant may call as witnesses in the defense case in chief;

(b) the names and addresses of experts whom the defendant may call at trial, together with the results of their physical examinations, scientific tests, experiments, or comparisons, including all written reports and statements made by these experts in connection with the particular case;

(c) all papers, documents, photographs, and other tangible objects that the defendant may use at trial.

(3) (a) At the close of discovery as set forth in the Pre-Trial Order, or at a later time as the Court shall so permit, the defendant shall provide the prosecutor with a written notice of the defendant's intention to introduce evidence at trial of good character or of any affirmative defenses.

(b) The notice must specify for each defense the names and addresses of the persons, other than the defendant, whom the defendant may call as witnesses in support of the defense, together with all written reports or statements made by them, including all reports and statements concerning the results of physical examinations, scientific tests, experiments, or comparisons, except that the defendant need not include a privileged report or statement unless the defendant intends to use the privileged report or statement, or the witness who made it, at trial.

(4) Attorney work product of defense counsel is not subject to disclosure or production.

(5) The obligations imposed by this section are continuing.

2-2-806. Severance. (1) A defendant may move for severance of defendants or charges. Such motion shall be filed at least 10 days prior to trial unless otherwise directed by the Tribal Court.

(2) If it appears that the defendant is prejudiced by a joinder of related prosecutions or defendants in a single charge, or by a joinder of separate charges or defendants for trial, the Tribal Court may order separate trials, grant a severance of defendants, or provide any other relief as justice may require.

2-2-807. Notice of alibi. (1) At the time of the pretrial conference or order, the prosecutor shall provide a written statement of the time, date, and place at which the alleged offense was committed.

(2) If a defendant intends to rely upon a defense of alibi, the defendant will so notify the prosecutor, in writing, within 10 days of receiving the information required by subsection (1).

(3) Defendant's notice of alibi defense shall state the specific place or places where the defendant claims to have been at the time of the alleged offense and the names and addresses of the witnesses the defendant intends to call to establish such alibi.

2-2-808. Motion for continuance. The defendant or the Tribes may file a written motion for continuance, or the court may continue the proceedings on its own motion. If a party so moves less than 10 days before a scheduled hearing or trial, the Tribal Court may require that the motion be supported by an affidavit, whether or not the motion is opposed by the adverse party. This section, however, shall be applied in a manner which insures criminal cases are tried with due diligence consistent with the rights of the defendant to a speedy trial.

2-2-809. Pretrial conference. (1) Any party may move the Tribal Court for one or more conferences to consider such matters as will promote a fair and expedient trial.

(2) In the interest of justice, the Tribal Court may order a pretrial conference based on its own motion.

(3) At the conclusion of any pretrial conference, the presiding judge shall prepare and file a memorandum of the matters agreed upon. No admissions made by the defendant or defendant's counsel at the conference shall be used against the defendant unless the admissions are reduced to writing and signed by the defendant and the defendant's counsel.

(4) In the interest of judicial economy, the Court may Order the parties to prepare a proposed Pretrial Order, without a pretrial conference, for the Court's signature.

2-2-810. Pretrial diversion. (1)(a) At any time, the prosecutor and a defendant who has counsel or who has voluntarily waived counsel may agree to the deferral of a prosecution for a specified period of time based on one or more of the following conditions:

(i) that the defendant may not commit any offense;

(ii) that the defendant may not engage in specified activities, conduct, and associations bearing a relationship to the conduct upon which the charge against the defendant is based;

(iii) that the defendant shall participate in a supervised rehabilitation program, which may include treatment, counseling, training, or education;

(iv) that the defendant shall make restitution in a specified manner for harm or loss caused by the offense; or

(v) any other reasonable conditions, including voluntary exclusion from the reservation.

(b) The agreement must be in writing, must be signed by the parties, and must state that the defendant waives the right to speedy trial for the period of deferral. The agreement may include stipulations concerning the admissibility of evidence, specified testimony, or dispositions if the deferral of the prosecution is terminated and there is a trial on the charge.

(c) The prosecution must be deferred for the period specified in the agreement unless there has been a violation of its terms.

(d) The agreement must be terminated and the prosecution automatically dismissed with prejudice upon expiration and compliance with the terms of the agreement.

2-2-811. When depositions may be taken. (1) A deposition may be taken if it appears that a prospective witness:

(a) is likely to be either unable to attend or otherwise prevented from attending a trial or hearing;

(b) is likely to be absent from the state at the time of the trial or hearing; or

(c) is unwilling to provide relevant information to a requesting party and the witness's testimony is material and necessary in order to prevent a failure of justice. The court shall, upon motion of any party and proper notice, order that the testimony of the witness be taken by deposition and that any designated books, papers, documents, or tangible objects, not privileged, be introduced at the time the deposition is taken.

(2) The witness whose deposition is to be taken may be required by subpoena to attend at any place designated by the court, taking into account the convenience of the parties and of the witness.

(3) If it appears upon the affidavit of counsel for a party that good cause exists to believe that a witness will not respond to a subpoena and the administration of justice requires, a judge may issue an arrest warrant commanding the arrest of a material witness. The arrest warrant must further order a deposition to be taken without unnecessary delay. A person may not be imprisoned for the purpose of securing testimony in any criminal proceeding longer than is necessary to take the person's deposition.

2-2-812. Procedure for taking depositions. (1) The party at whose instance a deposition is to be taken shall give to every other party reasonable written notice of the time and place for taking the deposition. The notice must state the name and address of each person to be examined. On motion of the party upon whom the notice is served, the court for cause shown may extend or shorten the time or change the place for taking the deposition.

(2) A deposition must be taken in the manner provided in civil actions. However, a deposition may not be taken of a party defendant without the defendant's consent, and the scope and manner of examination and cross-examination must be restricted as would be allowed in the trial itself.

(3) The deposition must be filed with the court making the order and held until the trial. Either party shall make available to the other party or the other party's counsel for examination and use at the taking of the deposition any relevant, nonprivileged statement of the witness being deposed that is in the possession of either party.

(4) Objections to deposition testimony or evidence may be reserved for subsequent determination by the court.

(5) Unless a defendant in custody has waived, in writing, the right to be present at the taking of a deposition, the officer having custody of the defendant must be notified of the time and place set for the deposition. The officer having custody shall produce the defendant and keep the defendant in the presence of a witness during the deposition.

(6) A defendant not in custody who fails to appear, without good cause, at the taking of a deposition after being notified of the time and place set for the deposition will be considered to have waived the right to be present. The waiver includes a waiver of any objection to the taking and use of the deposition based upon that right.

(7) Whenever a deposition is taken at the instance of the prosecution or whenever a deposition is taken at the instance of a defendant who is unable to bear the expense of taking a deposition, the court shall direct that the cost of the transcript of the deposition be paid by the Tribes.

2-2-813. Use of depositions at trial. Any deposition may be used by any party for any purpose allowed by the Federal Rules of Evidence.

2-2-814. Subpoenas. A Judge of the Tribal Court has the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents either on the Court's own motion or on the request of any party to a case, which shall bear the signature of the Judge issuing the subpoena. The subpoenas may direct the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents or evidence at a specified date, time, and location. Subpoenas under this section may be issued for purposes of discovery, for pretrial hearing, or for a trial or post trial proceeding.. (Rev. 1-27-00)

Mental Disorder

2-2-901. Mental disorder. As used in this chapter, the term " mental disorder" means any organic, mental, or emotional impairment which has substantial adverse effects on an individual's cognitive or volitional functions. It does not include an abnormality manifested only by repeated criminal or other antisocial behavior.

2-2-902. Evidence of mental disorder admissible as an affirmative defense. Evidence that the defendant suffered from a mental disorder is admissible to prove that the defendant could not appreciate the criminality of his conduct. This is an affirmative defense which the defendant has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence.

2-2-903. Mental disorder excluding fitness to proceed. A person who, as a result of a mental disorder, is unable to understand the proceedings against the person or to assist in the person's own defense may not be tried, convicted, or sentenced for the commission of an offense so long as the incapacity endures.

2-2-904. Examination of defendant. (1) If the defendant or the defendant's counsel files a written motion requesting an examination or if the issue of the defendant's fitness to proceed is raised by the Court, prosecution, or defense counsel, the Court shall appoint at least one qualified psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist to examine and report upon the defendant's mental condition.

(2) The court may order the defendant to be committed to a hospital or other suitable facility for the purpose of the examination for a period not exceeding 60 days or a longer period as the court determines to be necessary for the purpose and may direct that a qualified psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist retained by the defendant be permitted to witness and participate in the examination.

(3) In the examination, any method may be employed that is accepted by the medical or psychological profession for the examination of those alleged to be suffering from a mental disorder. The cost of the examination must be paid by the Tribes. (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-905. Prosecution's right to examination. (1) When the defense discloses the report of the examination to the prosecution or files a notice of the intention to rely on a defense of mental disorder, the prosecution is entitled to have the defendant examined by a qualified psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist.

(2) The report must be disclosed to the defense within 10 days of its receipt by the prosecution. (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-906. Access to defendant for examination. If either the defendant or the prosecution wishes the defendant to be examined by a qualified psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist selected by the one proposing the examination in order to determine the defendant's fitness to proceed or whether the defendant was able to appreciate the criminality of his conduct, the examiner shall be permitted to have reasonable access to the defendant for the purpose of the examination.

2-2-907. Report of examination. (1) A report of the examination must include: (a) a description of the nature of the examination;

(b) a diagnosis of the mental condition of the defendant, including an opinion as to whether the defendant suffers from a mental disorder and may require commitment or has a disability that is expected to continue indefinitely that is attributable to mental retardation, or related neurological conditions or illnesses;

(c) if the defendant suffers from a mental disorder, an opinion as to the defendant's capacity to understand the proceedings against the defendant and to assist in the defendant's own defense;

(d) when directed by the court, an opinion as to the capacity of the defendant to have a particular state of mind that is an element of the offense charged; and

(e) when directed by the court, an opinion as to the capacity of the defendant, because of a mental disorder, to appreciate the criminality of the defendant's conduct.

(2) If the examination cannot be conducted by reason of the unwillingness of the defendant to participate in the examination, the report must state that fact and must include, if possible, an opinion as to whether the unwillingness of the defendant was the result of a mental disorder. (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-908. Psychiatric or psychological testimony upon trial. (1) Upon trial, any psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist who reported under this part may be called as a witness by the prosecutor or by the defense. Both the prosecution and the defense may summon any other qualified psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist to testify, but no one who has not examined the defendant is competent to testify to an expert opinion with respect to the mental condition of the defendant, as distinguished from the validity of the procedure followed by or the general scientific propositions stated by another witness.

(2) When a psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist who has examined the defendant testifies concerning the defendant's mental condition, the psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist may make a statement as to the nature of the examination and the medical or psychological diagnosis of the mental condition of the defendant. The expert may make any explanation reasonably serving to clarify the expert's examination and diagnosis, and the expert may be cross-examined as to any matter bearing on the expert's competency or credibility or the validity of the expert's examination or medical or psychological diagnosis.

2-2-909. Form of verdict and judgment. When the defendant is found not guilty of the charged offense or offenses or any lesser included offense for the reason that due to a mental disorder could not appreciate the criminality of his conduct, the verdict and the judgment must state that reason.

2-2-910. Admissibility of statements made during examination or treatment. A statement made for the purposes of psychiatric or psychological examination or treatment provided for in this section by a person subjected to examination or treatment is not admissible in evidence against the person at trial on any issue other than that of the person's mental condition. It is admissible on the issue of the person's mental condition, whether or not it would otherwise be considered a privileged communication, only when and after the defendant presents evidence that due to a mental disorder the defendant could not appreciate the criminality of his conduct.

2-2-911. Determination of fitness to proceed -- effect of finding of unfitness -- expenses. (1) The issue of the defendant's fitness to proceed may be raised by the Court, by the defendant or the defendant's counsel, or by the prosecutor. When the issue is raised, it must be determined by the Court. If neither the prosecutor nor the defendant's counsel contests the finding of the report, the court may make the determination on the basis of the report. If the finding is contested, the Court shall hold a hearing on the issue. If the report is received in evidence upon the hearing, the parties have the right to subpoena and cross-examine the psychiatrists or licensed clinical psychologists who joined in the report and to offer evidence upon the issue.

(2) (a) If the court determines that the defendant lacks fitness to proceed, the proceeding against the defendant must be suspended, except as provided in subsection (4), and the court shall commit the defendant to an appropriate institution for so long as the unfitness endures.

(b) The institution shall develop an individualized treatment plan to assist the defendant to gain fitness to proceed. The treatment plan may include a physician's prescription of reasonable and appropriate medication that is consistent with accepted medical standards. If the defendant refuses to comply with the treatment plan, the institution may petition the court for an order requiring compliance. The defendant has a right to a hearing on the petition. The court shall enter into the record a detailed statement of the facts upon which an order is made, and if compliance with the individualized treatment plan is ordered, the court shall also enter into the record specific findings that the Tribes have proven an overriding justification for the order and that the treatment being ordered is medically appropriate.

(c) The committing court shall, within 90 days of commitment, review the defendant's fitness to proceed. If the court finds that the defendant is still unfit to proceed and that it does not appear that the defendant will become fit to proceed within the reasonably foreseeable future, the proceeding against the defendant must be dismissed, except as provided in subsection (4), and the prosecutor shall petition the court in the manner provided in Title III, Chapter 4, of this Code, to determine the disposition of the defendant pursuant to those provisions, except as provided in subsection (3), below.

(3) If the court determines that the defendant lacks fitness to proceed because the defendant has a disability that is expected to continue indefinitely that is attributable to mental retardation, or related neurological conditions or illnesses, the proceeding against the defendant must be dismissed and the prosecutor shall petition the court in the manner provided in Title III, Chapter 5, of this Code.

(4) The fact that the defendant is unfit to proceed does not preclude any legal objection to the prosecution that is susceptible to fair determination prior to trial and that is made without the personal participation of the defendant.

(5) The expenses of sending the defendant to an appropriate institution, of keeping the defendant there, and of bringing the defendant back are chargeable to the Tribes. (Rev. 4-15-03)

2-2-912. Proceedings if fitness regained. When the court, on its own motion or upon the application of the prosecution or the defendant or the defendant's legal representative, determines, after a hearing if a hearing is requested, that the defendant has regained fitness to proceed, the proceeding must be resumed. If, however, the court is of the view that so much time has elapsed since the commitment of the defendant that it would be unjust to resume the criminal proceedings, the court may dismiss the charge and may order the defendant to be discharged or, subject to the law governing the civil commitment of persons suffering from serious mental illness set forth in Ordinance 98, order the defendant committed to an appropriate institution.

2-2-913. Commitment upon finding of not guilty by reason of mental disorder -- hearing to determine release or discharge. (1) When a defendant is found not guilty for the reason that due to a mental disorder the defendant could not appreciate the criminality of his conduct, the court shall order a predisposition investigation, which must include an investigation of the present mental condition of the defendant. If the trial was by jury, the court shall hold a hearing to determine the appropriate disposition of the defendant. If the trial was by the court, the court may hold a hearing to obtain any additional testimony it considers necessary to determine the appropriate disposition of the defendant. In either case, the testimony and evidence presented at the trial must be considered by the court in making its determination.

(2) The court shall evaluate the nature of the offense with which the defendant was charged. If the offense:

(a) involved a substantial risk of serious bodily injury or death, or actual bodily injury the court may find that the defendant suffers from a mental disorder that renders the defendant a danger to the defendant or others. If the court finds that the defendant presents a danger to the defendant or others, the defendant may be committed to an appropriate mental health facility for custody, care, and treatment. However, if the court finds that the defendant has a disability that is expected to continue indefinitely that is attributable to mental retardation, or related neurological conditions or illnesses, the prosecutor shall petition the court in the manner provided in Title III, Chapter 5, of this Code.

(b) charged did not involve a substantial risk of serious bodily injury or death, actual bodily injury, the court shall release the defendant. The prosecutor may petition the court in the manner provided in Title III, Chapter 5, of this Code.

(3) A person so committed must have a hearing within 180 days of confinement to determine the person's present mental condition and whether the person must be discharged or released or whether the commitment may be extended because the person continues to suffer from a mental disorder that renders the person a danger to the person or others. The hearing must be conducted by the court that ordered the commitment. The court shall cause notice of the hearing to be served upon the person, the person's counsel, the prosecutor, and the court that originally ordered the commitment. The hearing is a civil proceeding, and the burden is upon the Tribes to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the person may not be safely released because the person continues to suffer from a mental disorder that causes the person to present a substantial risk of:

(a) serious bodily injury or death to the person or others; or

(b) an imminent threat of bodily injury to the person or others.

(4) According to the determination of the court upon the hearing, the person must be discharged or released on conditions the court determines to be necessary or must be committed to appropriate mental health facility for custody, care, and treatment.

(5) A professional person shall review the status of the person each year. At the time of the annual review, the defendant, or his counsel, may petition for discharge or release of the person. Upon request for a hearing, a hearing must be held pursuant to the provisions of subsection (3). (Rev. 4-15-03)

2-2-914. Discharge or release upon motion. (1) If the director of the appropriate mental health facility believes that a person committed may be discharged or released on condition without danger to the person or others because the person no longer suffers from a mental disorder that causes the person to present a substantial risk of serious bodily injury or death to the person or others, a substantial risk of an imminent threat of bodily injury to the person or others, the director shall notify the defendant's counsel, who shall make application for the discharge or release of the person in a report to the Tribal Court and shall send a copy of the application and report to the prosecutor.

(2) The person committed may also make application to the court for discharge or release as part of the person's annual treatment review.

(3) The court shall then appoint at least one person who is either a qualified psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist to examine the person and to report as to the person's mental condition within 60 days or a longer period that the court determines to be necessary for the purpose. To facilitate the examinations and the proceedings on the examinations, the court may have the person confined in any mental health facility located near the place where the court sits that may be suitable for the temporary detention of persons suffering from a mental disorder.

(4) The committed person or the person's attorney may secure a professional person of the committed person's choice to examine the committed person and to testify at the hearing. If the person wishing to secure the testimony of a professional person is unable to do so because of financial reasons, the court shall appoint an additional professional person to perform the examination. Whenever possible, the court shall allow the committed person or the person's attorney a reasonable choice of an available professional person qualified to perform the requested examination. The professional person must be compensated by the Tribes.

(5) If the court is satisfied by the report filed under subsection (1) and the testimony of the reporting psychiatrist or licensed clinical psychologist that the committed person may be discharged or released on condition because the person no longer suffers from a mental disorder that causes the person to present a substantial risk of serious bodily injury or death to the person or others, a substantial risk of an imminent threat of physical injury to the person or others the court shall order the person's discharge.

(6) (a) If the court is not satisfied, it shall promptly order a hearing to determine whether the person may safely be discharged or released on the grounds that the person no longer suffers from a mental disorder that causes the person to present a substantial risk of:

(i) serious bodily injury or death to the person or others; or

(ii) an imminent threat of bodily injury to the person or others.

(b) A hearing is considered a civil proceeding, and the burden is upon the Tribe to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the person may not be safely discharged or released because the person continues to suffer from a mental disorder that causes the person to present a substantial risk of:

(i) serious bodily injury or death to the person or others; or

(ii) an imminent threat of physical injury to the person or others.

(c) According to the determination of the court upon the hearing, the committed person must then be discharged or released on conditions that the court determines to be necessary or must be recommitted, subject to discharge or release only in accordance with the procedures provided in this part.

2-2-915. Application for discharge or release by committed person. A committed person may make application for discharge or release to the Tribal Court by which the person was committed, and the procedure to be followed upon the application is the same as that prescribed in the preceding section. However, an application by a committed person need not be considered until the person has been confined for a period of not less than 6 months from the date of the order of commitment, and if the determination of the court is adverse to the application, the person may not be permitted to file a further application until 1 year has elapsed from the date of any preceding hearing on an application for the person's release or discharge.

2-2-916. Revocation of conditional release. (1) The court may order revocation of a person's conditional release if the court determines after hearing evidence that:

(a) the conditions of release have not been fulfilled; and

(b) based on the violations of the conditions and the person's past mental health history, there is a substantial likelihood that the person continues to suffer from a mental disorder that causes the person to present a substantial risk of:

(i) serious bodily injury or death to the person or others; or

(ii) an imminent threat of bodily injury to the person or others.

(2) The court may retain jurisdiction to revoke a conditional release for no longer than 5 years.

(3) If the court finds that the conditional release should be revoked, the court shall immediately order the person to be recommitted, subject to discharge or release only in accordance with the procedures provided in this part.

Part 10

Trial

2-2-1001. Right to a jury trial. (1) A defendant charged with a Class B, Class C, Class D, or Class E offense has a right to trial by jury of six fair and impartial jurors.

(2) A defendant may waive the right to a jury trial in a written voluntary statement to the Court.

(3) A defendant must maintain contact with his or her counsel. By failing to maintain contact with counsel, a defendant waives his or her right to a jury trial.

2-2-1002. Priority on the Tribal Court calendar. (1) Prosecutions against defendants held in custody must be disposed of in advance of prosecutions against defendants released on bail, unless otherwise directed by the Tribal Court.

(2) Criminal actions take precedence over civil actions when determining a hearing or trial date.

2-2-1003. Questions of law and fact. (1) Issues of fact shall be submitted to the jury, unless a defendant has waived the right to a jury trial. Where there is no jury, issues of fact shall be submitted to the judge.

(2) All questions of law must be decided by the judge.

2-2-1004. Rules of evidence in criminal cases. Unless otherwise directed by a specific code provision, the Federal Rules of Evidence apply in criminal actions. Privileges will be those recognized under Tribal Law.

2-2-1005. Trial preparation time. The defendant is entitled to reasonable time, as determined by the judge, to prepare for trial after entering a plea of not guilty.

2-2-1006. Burden of proof. A plea of not guilty requires that the prosecution prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the crime alleged was committed and that the defendant committed every necessary element of it.

2-2-1007. Order of trial. (1) In a jury trial, after selecting and empaneling the jurors, the Tribal Court shall state the nature of the charges and generally instruct the jurors as to their duties.

(2) Unless waived, the prosecution and the defense will be afforded an opportunity to make an opening statement, prior to the presentation of any evidence or testimony. The defense may reserve her or his opening statement until after the prosecution has presented its case in chief.

(3) After presenting the opening statement(s), the prosecution must offer evidence supporting the allegations contained in the complaint. The defense shall be given an opportunity to cross-examine any witness called by the prosecution.

(4) After the prosecution has rested its case, the defense may give any reserved opening statement and present any defenses or evidence relating to the allegations contained in the complaint. The prosecution shall be given an opportunity to cross-examine any witness called by the defense.

(5) Rebuttal evidence may be presented by the prosecution after the conclusion of the defense case when appropriate, and, if necessary, surrebuttal evidence may be offered by the defense.

(6) No new evidence may be presented after the prosecution and the defense have rested their cases, unless allowed by the judge in the interest of justice.

(7) In a trial by jury, after the close of evidence and before the closing statements arguments are given, the instructions on the law of the case, as submitted in writing by the prosecution and defense shall be considered singly by the court and each one shall be:

- (a) given as requested or proposed by counsel,
- (b) refused based on stated grounds, or
- (c) given with modification by the judge to the jury.

All instructions shall be in writing and filed as part of the record.

(8) After the judge reads the instructions to the jury and gives the jury a copy of the same, the prosecution and the defense may make a closing argument. The prosecution precedes the defense and may also make a rebuttal closing argument.

(9) The jury, or the judge if the case is tried without a jury, shall render a verdict upon the conclusion of the case. If the case is tried to a judge, the verdict shall set forth the court's findings of fact, conclusions of law and a judgment of guilty or not guilty. If the case is tried to a jury, the verdict shall be guilty or not guilty in accordance with the facts and the jury instructions.

2-2-1008. Insufficient evidence. If the Tribal Court determines at the close of the prosecution's case in chief, or at the conclusion of the case, that the evidence presented is insufficient to sustain a conviction for the charged offense or offenses, the Tribal Court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the defense, dismiss the action and discharge the defendant. No new trial may be granted unless the judgment of acquittal is vacated or reversed on appeal.

Part 11

Juries

2-2-1101. Motion to discharge a jury panel. (1) Any objection to the manner in which the venire has been selected or drawn shall be raised by motion to discharge the jury. The motion shall be made at least 7 days prior to the trial date.

(2) The motion shall be made in writing supported by an affidavit which shall state facts which show that the venire was improperly selected or drawn.

(3) If the motion states facts which would show that the venire was improperly selected or drawn, it shall be the duty of the Tribal Court to conduct a hearing. The burden of proof shall be on the movant.

(4) If the Tribal Court finds that the jury was improperly selected or drawn, the court shall order the jury discharged and the selection or drawing of a new jury.

2-2-1102. Examination of prospective jurors. (1) After sending summons and at least 10 days before trial, the Clerk of Court shall notify the prosecution and defense the names and addresses of the members of the jury panel.

(2) In selecting a jury from among the panel members, the initial questioning of the jurors shall be conducted by the judge in order to determine whether each prospective juror is capable of being fair and impartial. Questions to be asked by the court include whether a panel member:

(a) is directly related to any person involved in the action, including, but not limited to, the defendant, defense counsel, arresting officer, alleged victim, or any prospective witness;

(b) is or has been involved in any business, financial, professional, or personal relationship with a party or alleged victim;

(c) has had any previous involvement in a civil or criminal lawsuit or dispute with a party or alleged victim;

(d) has a financial or personal interest in the outcome of the action before the court;

(e) has formed an opinion as to the defendant's guilt; or

(f) has a belief that the punishment fixed by law is too severe for the offense charged.

(3) Any panel member whom the Tribal Court determines incapable of acting with impartiality and without prejudice to the rights of either party shall be excused.

(4) After questioning by the judge, the prosecutor and defendant or defense counsel may question the panel members to determine impartiality. Either party may question the panel members concerning the nature of the burden of proof in criminal cases and the presumption of innocence. The judge may limit the prosecutor's and defendant's or defense counsel's examination of a panel member when the judge believes such examination to be improper.

2-2-1103. Challenges. (1) The prosecution and defense shall have unlimited challenges for cause. Each challenge must be tried and determined by the Court at the time the challenge is made.

(2) The prosecution and defense shall have three peremptory challenges and one peremptory challenge in the event that an alternate juror is selected, unless a lesser number is agreed to by the parties in writing.

(3) All challenges must be made to the Tribal Court before the jury is sworn. When a potential challenge for cause is discovered after the jury is sworn and before the introduction of any evidence, the Tribal Court may allow a challenge for cause to be made.

2-2-1104. Conduct of jury during trial. (1) Once empaneled, jurors shall be instructed by the judge that it is their duty not to converse among themselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with the trial, or to form or express any opinion thereon, until the issues of the case are finally submitted to them.

(2) At each adjournment recess prior to submission of the case to the jury, the judge shall instruct the jurors as to whether they may separate or must remain in the care of the bailiff or other proper officer of the court.

2-2-1105. View of relevant place or property. (1) Upon request by the prosecution or defense, the Court may allow the jury to view any place or property deemed pertinent to the just determination of the case.

(2) If viewing of a place or property is deemed appropriate, the Court shall place the jury under the custody of the bailiff, or other proper officer of the court, who shall then transport the jury to the viewing place.

(3) The place or property will be shown to the jury by a person appointed by the court for that purpose, and the jurors may personally inspect the same.

(4) The bailiff, or other proper officer of the court, must insure that no person speaks or otherwise communicates with the jury, on any subject connected with the trial, while viewing the place or property or traveling to or from the viewing site.

(5) After the jury has viewed the place or property, the bailiff, or other proper officer of the court, shall return the jurors to the courtroom without unnecessary delay or at a specified time, as directed by the court.

2-2-1106. Jury instructions. (1) General instructions may be furnished by the Tribal Court. When either the defendant or the prosecutor desires a special instruction to be given to the jury, such proposed instruction shall be reduced to writing, signed by the party offering the instruction and delivered to the judge at least 5 days before trial unless a different time is established by the judge. For good cause shown, the parties may supplement or withdraw instructions at the close of evidence.

(2) All jury instructions shall adequately inform the jurors of:

(a) which decisions are made by the jury and which by the presiding judge;

(b) the issues of fact in the case;

(c) the rules of law to be applied to the issues of fact;

(d) the burden of proof with respect to each issue of fact; and

(e) the proof needed to discharge that burden.

(3) The party not offering a proposed instruction shall be allowed reasonable opportunity to examine the proposed instruction and object to it. The objection must specifically state on what grounds the instruction is not an accurate statement of the law or is not an appropriate instruction for this particular case and, therefore, should not be given.

(4) A dispute regarding a proposed jury instruction must be settled outside of the jury's presence by the court which may hold a settlement hearing.

(5) A record must be made at a hearing to settle instructions.

(6) A party may not appeal as error any portion of the instructions or omission from the instructions unless an objection was made specifically stating the matter objected to, and the grounds for the objection, at the settlement of instructions or in writing prior to a settlement hearing.

(7) The presence of the defendant is not required during the settlement of instructions.

(8) After all evidence has been presented, and before closing arguments, the court shall give both general and specific instructions to the jurors.

(9) For the record, but not for the jury, the court shall mark or endorse each instruction in such a manner that it shall distinctly appear what proposed instructions were rejected, what were given in whole and what were modified, together with the court's reasons for giving as requested, as modified, or refusing a proposed instruction.

(10) All proposed instructions are part of the court record. All objections to jury instructions must be noted on the court record, as well as the Tribal Court's reasons for either giving as requested, as modified, or refusing a proposed instruction.

2-2-1107. Jury deliberations. (1) After closing arguments, the court shall commit the jury to the care of a bailiff or other officer of the court who shall keep the jurors together and prevent communication between the jurors and others.

(2) Upon retiring to deliberate, the jurors shall select a juror as foreperson.

(3) After the jury has retired for deliberation, if there is any disagreement among the jurors as to the testimony or if the jurors desire to be informed on any point of law arising in the cause, they shall notify the bailiff or the officer appointed to keep them together, who shall then notify the court. The information requested may be given, in the discretion of the court, after consultation with the parties.

2-2-1108. Items that may be taken into jury room. Upon retiring for deliberation, the jurors may take with them the written jury instructions read by the court, notes of the proceedings taken by themselves, and all exhibits that have been received as evidence in the cause that in the opinion of the court will be necessary.

2-2-1109. Activity of the court during jury's absence. While the jury is absent, the court may adjourn or conduct other business, but it must be open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to the jury until a verdict is returned or the jury discharged.

2-2-1110. Form of verdict. (1) The jury shall return a verdict as instructed by the court and for each offense charged. The verdict must be unanimous in all criminal actions. The verdict must be signed by the foreperson and returned by the jury to the judge in open court.

(2) When two or more defendants are involved in the case before the jury, the jurors may reach a verdict regarding any one of the defendants. If the jury cannot agree with respect to all the defendants, the defendant or defendants as to whom it does not agree may be tried again.

2-2-1111. Polling the jury. When a verdict is returned, but before it is recorded, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. If the results of the poll show that the verdict does not reflect unanimous concurrence by each juror, the jury may be directed to return for further deliberations or may be discharged at the court's discretion.

2-2-1112. Conviction of lesser included offense. (1) When it appears to the jury beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant has committed an offense but there is reasonable doubt as to whether he or she is guilty of a given offense or one or more lesser included offenses as provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section, he or she may only be convicted of the greatest included offense about which there is no reasonable doubt.

(2) The defendant may be found guilty of an offense necessarily included in the offense charged or of an attempt to commit either the offense charged or an offense necessarily included in the offense charged.

(3) A lesser included offense instruction must be given when there is a proper request by one of the parties and the jury, based on the evidence, could be warranted in finding the defendant guilty of a lesser included offense.

(4) When a lesser included offense instruction is given, the court shall instruct the jury that it must reach a verdict on the crime charged before it may proceed to a lesser included offense. Upon request of the defendant at the settling of instructions, the court shall instruct the jury that it may consider the lesser included offense if it is unable after reasonable effort to reach a verdict on the greater offense.

2-2-1113. Discharging jurors. When the jury has reached a verdict or has determined that it shall be is unable to either acquit or find the defendant guilty, even with additional deliberation, the court shall discharge the jurors from service.

2-2-1114. Motion for a new trial. (1) Within 20 days of a guilty verdict, the defendant may file with the court, and serve upon the prosecution, a written motion for a new trial. The motion must specify the grounds for a new trial.

(2) After hearing the motion for a new trial, the court may, in the interest of justice:

(a) deny the motion;

(b) grant a new trial; or

(c) modify or change the verdict or finding by finding the defendant guilty of a lesser included offense or not guilty.

(3) The granting of a new trial places the parties in the same position as if there had been no trial.

Part 12

Sentence and Judgment

2-2-1201. Rendering judgment and pronouncing sentence. (1) This Part controls all sentencing in all circumstances. Changes in Montana Law do not apply unless expressly adopted by Tribal Council.

(2) The judgment shall be rendered in open court.

(3) If the verdict or finding is not guilty, judgment shall be rendered immediately and the defendant shall be discharged from custody or from the obligation of his or her bail bond.

(4) (a) If the verdict or finding is guilty, sentence shall be pronounced and judgment rendered within a reasonable time.

(b) When the sentence is pronounced, the judge shall clearly state for the record his or her reasons for the sentence imposed.

2-2-1202. Sentencing considerations. (1) Sentences imposed upon those convicted of crime must be based primarily on the following:

(a) the crime committed;

(b) the prospects of rehabilitation of the offender, including the possible resources and needs of the offender's dependents, if any;

(c) the circumstances under which the crime was committed;

(d) the criminal history of the offender; and

(e) alternatives to imprisonment of the offender.

(f) the ability of the defendant to pay a fine.

2-2-1203. Imposition of sentence. (1) No sentence shall be imposed until:

(a) the offender and the offender's counsel have had an opportunity to examine any pre-sentence report and to cross-examine the preparer of such report on the basis for any sentencing recommendations contained in the report,

(b) the prosecution and defense have had an opportunity to present evidence, witnesses, and an argument regarding the appropriateness of a sentencing option; and

(c) the offender has had the opportunity to speak on his or her own behalf and to present any information likely to mitigate the pending sentence.

(2) Sentencing shall be imposed on all offenses pursuant to Tribal law. To the extent that any Montana statute incorporated into Tribal law provides a penalty that conflicts with Tribal sentencing law, Tribal sentencing law will control.

(3) An offender found guilty of an offense may be sentenced to one or more of the following penalties:

(a) deferred imposition of sentence with reasonable restrictions and conditions monitored by the Tribal Probation Officer, and with the following characteristics:

(i) the record of the offense shall be expunged upon satisfactory performance by the offender of the restrictions and conditions of deferral for a period not to exceed one year for Class A, Class B, Class C, and Class D offenses and three years for a Class E offense, and

(ii) imposition of sentence will occur immediately upon violation of a restriction or condition of the deferral;

(b) suspended execution of all or part of a sentence for one year for Class A, Class B, Class C, and Class D offenses and three years for a Class E offense, with the offender being placed on probation under reasonable restrictions and conditions for the period of suspension, and with a violation of a restriction or condition resulting in execution of the suspended portion of the sentence;

(c) imprisonment for a period of time not to exceed the maximum permitted for the offense;

(d) a fine in an amount not to exceed the maximum permitted for the offense;

(e) community service;

(f) any diagnostic, therapeutic, or rehabilitative measures, treatments, or services deemed appropriate;

(g) restitution to a victim of an offense for which the offender was convicted; or

(h) a person may be allowed to serve home arrest at the person's expense, but will not be eligible for parole under Section 2-3-302.

(4) The court may impose any or all of the following restrictions or conditions as part of a sentence, suspended or otherwise, or a deferred imposition of sentence, for rehabilitative purposes or to protect the Reservation community:

(a) prohibiting the offender from owning or carrying a dangerous weapon;

(b) restricting the offender's freedom of movement;

(c) restricting the offender's freedom of association;

(d) requiring the offender, if employed, to remain employed and, if unemployed, to actively seek employment; and

(e) any requirement or limitation intended to improve the mental or physical health or marketable skills of the offender.

(5) Unless the Tribal Court otherwise directs in its pronouncement of sentence, all sentences stemming from offenses occurring in the same transaction or course of conduct shall run concurrently and not consecutively.

(6) Any monies paid to the Tribes or to the victim of an offense as a result of this provision shall be paid through the Clerk of Court.

(7) Where the Court in its discretion deems it appropriate, a form of traditional punishment may be imposed in addition to or in place of any punishment provided in this Code.

2-2-1204. Execution of sentence. (1) If the offender is sentenced to imprisonment, the court shall deliver a Detention Order or Judgment outlining the specific requirements of detention to the Tribal law enforcement officers serving as Tribal jailers. The offender shall be discharged from custody by the Tribal law enforcement officers after satisfactorily fulfilling the conditions of the imposed sentence or upon earlier order of the court.

(2) If judgment is rendered imposing a fine only, the offender must be discharged after making acceptable arrangements to pay the fine within the period of time specified by the court. The Tribal Court may also allow the offender to perform community service to offset any fine or allow the offender to be imprisoned until the fine is satisfied, applying $50.00 for every day served, unless a different amount is otherwise established by Tribal Council. If no such permission is included in the sentence, the fine shall be paid prior to formal release.

(3) If judgment is rendered imposing both imprisonment and a fine, the offender shall be discharged after fulfilling the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) The Court may in its discretion grant temporary release from custody under any conditions the Court deems appropriate.

2-2-1205. Restitution. (1) When restitution is ordered, the court shall specify the amount, method and payment schedule imposed upon the offender. Before restitution may be ordered, the defendant shall receive notice of the amount and terms requested and shall be entitled to a hearing upon his or her timely request.

(2) The fact that restitution was ordered is not admissible as evidence in a civil action and has no legal effect on the merits of a civil action.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, restitution paid by an offender to an injured person must be deducted from any monetary award granted to said injured person in a civil action arising out of the facts or events which were the basis for the restitution. The court trying the civil action shall determine the amount of any reduction due to payment of restitution by an offender under this section. However, in the event that criminal and civil actions against an offender arising from the same transaction or events are heard in courts of different jurisdictions, one of which is the Tribal Court, the Tribal Court shall adjust offender's payments within its jurisdictional control for restitution or otherwise to assure that an injured party does not recover twice for the same harm.

(4) An offender may petition for modification of sentence imposing restitution and request a hearing on the matter. The injured person shall be given notice by the offender of any proposed modification and afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposed modification. (Rev. 4-15-03)

2-2-1206. Payment of fines and restitution. (1) All monies collected as the result of a fine imposed by the Tribal Court shall be paid through the Clerk of Court. Upon receiving the monies, the Clerk shall:

(a) issue a receipt to the paying person;

(b) credit the account of the offender, noting whether the fine is paid in full or what balance, if any, remains due; and

(c) transfer the monies to the general fund of the Tribes, unless otherwise specifically directed by a provision of this Code.

(2) All monies collected for restitution shall be paid through the Clerk of Court. Upon receiving the monies the Clerk shall:

(a) issue a receipt to the paying person;

(b) credit the account of the offender, noting whether the fine is paid in full or what balance, if any remains due; and

(c) transfer the monies to the person to whom restitution is to be paid.

2-2-1207. Revocation of parole or suspended or deferred sentence. (1) If a petition requesting revocation has been filed and a revocation hearing held, the Tribal Court may revoke a defendant's parole or suspension or deferral of sentence if a preponderance of the evidence shows the imposed conditions of the parole, or suspension, or deferral of sentence have been violated.

(2) A petition seeking revocation of a parole or a suspended sentence or imposition of a sentence previously deferred must be filed during the period of parole, suspension or deferral, or within 5 days after the period of parole, suspension, or deferral ends if the offender's violation of a condition of parole or probation occurred within the final 48 hours prior to the end of the period. Expiration of a parole or the time ordered under a suspended or deferred sentence prior to a hearing for revocation does not deprive the Tribal Court of jurisdiction to rule on the revocation petition.

(3) This is the exclusive remedy for violation of a condition of parole, or suspended or deferred sentence.

2-2-1208. Dismissal and expungement after deferred sentence. Whenever the court has deferred the imposition of sentence and after expiration of the period of deferral and after the defendant's successful completion of any conditions of deferral, upon motion by the court, the defendant, or the defendant's counsel, the court shall allow the defendant to withdraw his or her plea of guilty or strike the verdict or judgment expunging the court records of all record of the proceedings by entering an order of dismissal of charges and expungement, inscribing each record of the proceedings with the word "Expunged" and sealing the file.

2-2-1209. Failure to pay a fine. (1) If a defendant sentenced to pay a fine or restitution fails to make payment as ordered, the Court or the Prosecutor may move that the offender show cause why the offender's nonpayment should not be treated as contempt of court. Notice of a show cause hearing on the contempt charge shall be served on the offender by law enforcement officers at least five days prior to the date set for hearing. Notice shall also be served on the victim if the show cause was issued for failure to pay restitution.

(2) Unless the offender shows that the nonpayment was not attributable to an intentional refusal to obey a Tribal Court order or the offender's failure to make a good faith effort to make the ordered payments, the Tribal Court may find the offender in contempt and order the person incarcerated until the fine is satisfied. Time served shall be credited against the fine at the rate of $50.00 per day unless otherwise set by the Tribal Council.

(3) If the Court determines that the offender's nonpayment does not constitute contempt, the Court may modify the original sentence, judgment, or order, allowing the offender additional time to pay the fine or restitution or reducing the amount owed. (Rev. 4-15-03)

2-2-1210. Credit for time served. If a defendant has served any of the defendant's sentence under a commitment based upon a judgment that is subsequently declared invalid or that is modified during the term of imprisonment, the time served must be credited against any subsequent sentence received upon a new commitment for the same criminal act or acts. This does not include time served pursuant to Section 2-2-610(1)(c). (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-2-1211. Credit for incarceration prior to conviction. (1) Any person incarcerated on a bailable offense and against whom a judgment of imprisonment is rendered must be allowed credit for each day of incarceration prior to or after conviction, except that the time allowed as a credit may not exceed the term of the prison sentence rendered. This does not include time served pursuant to Section 2-2-610(1)(c).

(2) Any person incarcerated on a bailable offense who does not supply bail and against whom a fine is levied on conviction of the offense must be allowed a credit for each day of incarceration prior to conviction, except that the amount allowed or credited may not exceed the amount of the fine. The daily rate of credit for incarceration is $50.00 per day unless otherwise set by the Tribal Council. This does not include time served pursuant to Section 2-2-610(1)(c). (Rev. 1-27-00)

Part 13

Traffic Court Procedure

(Enacted 4-15-03.)

2-2-1301. Purpose. The Traffic Court is a division of the Tribal Court of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes. The procedure in this part is intended to provide for the just determination of traffic cases through a simple and uniform process and the elimination of unnecessary expense and delay.

2-2-1302. Traffic Court Proceedings. All proceedings in Traffic Court shall be held before a Judge of the Tribal Court designated to hear such cases. Traffic Court Trials shall be tape recorded, and the tape shall be maintained for a period of 20 days after entry of Judgment, but the tape will not be archived unless a timely appeal is filed in the manner provided by this Code.

2-2-1303. Presumption of Innocence and Burden of Proof. Traffic Court defendants shall be presumed innocent until proven guilty or until a plea of guilty or no contest is entered. A plea of not guilty requires that the Tribes prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant committed the cited traffic offense.

2-2-1304. Defendants Rights in Traffic Court. All defendants in Traffic Court matters shall have the following rights:

- (1) the right to be informed of the charge(s) against the defendant and the maximum penalty allowed under Tribal law for each charge;
- (2) the right to have assistance from or be represented by an attorney (at the defendants own expense) or to have another Tribal member speak on the defendant's behalf (see Tribal Member Representation, §1-2-506 of this code);
- (3) the right to plead either guilty, not guilty, or no contest, and if the defendant pleads guilty or no contest, to have the Judge immediately sentence the defendant as provided in the CSKT Laws Codified or if the Defendant pleads not guilty to have the Judge immediately schedule a trial of the charge(s);
- (4) the right to a prompt, open and public trial before the Judge and at that hearing to cross-examine the Tribes witnesses and to call witnesses and present relevant evidence on the defendant's behalf;
- (5) the right to remain silent and, if the defendant chooses to remain silent, the right to have no inference drawn from the defendant's silence;
- (6) the right to be advised that any statement made by the defendant may be used in evidence against the defendant;
- (7) the right to request that the Court issue subpoenas for witnesses;
- (8) the right to appeal the Judge's final judgment to the Tribal Appellate Court within 20 days of the date of final judgment.

2-2-1305. Initial Appearance in Traffic Court. (1) A defendant shall make an initial appearance in Traffic Court on the date and time specified on the traffic citation. If the defendant is under the age of eighteen (18) years, a parent or guardian must accompany the defendant to the initial appearance, be available to advise the defendant, and sign applicable forms with the defendant.

(2) At the Initial Appearance, the judge shall advise the defendant of his or her rights and of the Traffic Court procedures for appearance.

(3) After informing the defendant of the charge(s) and possible penalties, the judge shall ask the defendant how he or she pleads.

(4) If the defendant pleads guilty or no contest, the judge shall then proceed to sentencing. After the judge informs the defendant of the sentence, the defendant may make arrangements for the payment of any fines imposed. A Judgment form shall be completed and signed by the judge and a copy shall be provided to the Defendant. The Judgment shall announce the Judgment rendered, sentence imposed, and the fine payment deadline.

(5) If the defendant pleads not guilty, the judge shall schedule a date and time for a Traffic Court Bench Trial. Jury trials are not provided in Traffic Court.

(6) If the defendant pleads not guilty, the judge shall order the citing officer to provide the defendant with a written report describing the circumstances of the offense. The report shall be provided at least 10 days before the trial.

2-2-1306. Forfeiture of Bond in lieu of Appearance. A defendant may pay and forfeit the scheduled bond for the cited offense and thereby be relieved of the obligation to appear. Forfeiture of the bond shall constitute a conviction on the cited offense and shall no further proceedings.

2-2-1307. Traffic Court Bench Trials.(1) Traffic Court Bench Trials shall be held in the Tribal Courtroom on the date and time set in the Scheduling Order. Either the defendant or the citing officer may request a continuance of the bench trial which shall be granted for good cause by the Court.

(2)The citing officer and the defendant each bear the responsibility of notifying the witnesses they wish to call to testify at the bench trial. Upon request by either party, the Court shall issue subpoenas for any witness whose testimony is necessary for a just adjudication of the case at trial.

(3) Traffic Court Bench Trials shall be recorded as provided in § 2-2-1301 of this code and all witnesses shall be sworn before being allowed to testify.

(4) The citing officer shall present the Tribes' case first. The citing officer may testify and present evidence to the Court. The Defendant may cross-examine the citing officer and any witnesses called by the citing officer.

(5) After the citing officer has presented the Tribes' case, the defendant may then present his or her case to the Court. The defendant may elect to testify, but may not be required to testify. The defendant may call witnesses to testify on his or her behalf and may present other evidence regarding the charge(s). The citing officer may cross-examine the defendant's witnesses.

(6) After the defendant has concluded his or her case, the parties may make concluding arguments before the Court.

(7) On the record, after considering the testimony and evidence presented at trial, the judge shall find the defendant either guilty or not guilty on the charge(s). If the defendant is found guilty, the judge shall announce the sentence for each offense and the deadline for payment of fines or the completion of other penalties. The defendant may enter into a payment schedule agreement with the Court.

2-2-1308. Failure to Appear. (1) If a defendant fails to appear in Traffic Court on the date and time scheduled for initial appearance or on the date and time scheduled for trial, the Judge may issue a warrant for the defendant's arrest.

(2) If a juvenile defendant fails to appear in Traffic Court on the date and time scheduled for initial appearance or on the date and time scheduled for trial, the judge may issue a Summons for the defendant and for the defendant's parent or guardian to appear and show cause for non-appearance.

(3) If a juvenile defendant and the defendant's parent or guardian fail to appear after having been summonsed to show cause, the Judge may issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant's parent or guardian for contempt and may further refer the matter to Juvenile Court for action.

2-2-1309. Sentencing in Traffic Court. Traffic Court may only hear cases involving violations punishable by a fine or other penalty which does not include jail time. No one appearing in Traffic Court may be sentenced to serve time in jail unless he or she is found in contempt. Violations cited into Traffic Court which carry a possible jail sentence shall be transferred to the Criminal Court Division.

2-2-1310. Appeal. Decisions rendered in Tribal Traffic Court may be appealed according to the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

2-2-1311. Record of Convictions. The Clerk of Court shall submit a record of conviction to the Montana Department of Motor Vehicles for all Tribal Traffic Court convictions which become part of defendant's driving record.

CHAPTER 3

PROBATION AND PAROLE

Part 1

Administration

2-3-101. Establishment of Department of Tribal Probation and Parole. There is established a Tribal Department of Probation and Parole (hereafter "the Department"), the purposes of which include the protection of the Reservation community by providing for the acceptance of custody and the supervision and rehabilitation of juvenile and adult offenders placed on probation or released on parole by the Tribal Court.

2-3-102. Organization of the Department. The Department is managed by a Department Head, subject to the supervision of the Tribal Executive Secretary, and is comprised of adult probation officers, juvenile probation officers, community service officers, support staff, and such other personnel as may be deemed necessary and approved by the Tribal Council by means of its budgeting process.

2-3-103. Powers and duties of juvenile probation officers. The powers and duties of juvenile probation officers are those set forth in the Tribal Juvenile Justice Code, Ordinance 99A.

2-3-104. Definitions. As used in this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Notice to the probationer or parolee" is the personal service of a warrant or a summons and petition for revocation of the parole or probation to a supervised offender.

(2) "Parole" means the release to the community of an adult prisoner as provided by law prior to the expiration of the prisoner's term, subject to the conditions imposed by the Court and subject to the supervision of the Department upon direction of the Court.

(3) "Probation" means the release by the Court without imprisonment of an adult offender found guilty of a crime upon verdict or plea, subject to conditions imposed by the Court and subject to the supervision of the Department upon direction of the Court.

(4) "Supervised offender" is an adult offender (a) sentenced to probation, (b) whose sentence is deferred, or (c) released from incarceration subject to conditions imposed by the Court and subject to the supervision of the Department.

2-3-105. Adult Probation Duties of the Department. The duties of the Department are:

(1) To undertake investigations and make reports, including a pre-sentence investigations and reports, which may include alternative sentencing recommendations, requested by the Tribal Court;

(2) To supervise an adult probationer or parolee when requested to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, in accord with the conditions set by the court;

(3) To assure that a copy of the conditions of probation or parole is signed by the supervised offender and given to him or her;

(4) To regularly advise and consult with the supervised offender to encourage him or her to improve his or her condition;

- (5) To keep records and report on the progress of persons supervised as the court may require;
- (6) To identify and, where necessary, mobilize Tribal or community programs to which supervised offenders may be assigned for evaluation, treatment, or rehabilitation, or for the purpose of performing community services, and to monitor the execution and progress of any such court-ordered assignment; and
- (7) To cooperate with all agencies, Tribal, public and private, that are concerned with the treatment or welfare of persons on probation or parole.

2-3-106. Powers of the Department of Adult Probation. (1) An adult probation officer, in his or her supervision of an adult offender, is vested with all the authority of a Tribal law enforcement officer, including, without limitation,

- (a) the authority to carry firearms, including concealed firearms, when necessary,
- (b) the authority to request a judge of the Tribal Court to issue a warrant for arrest of the supervised offender or for search and seizure of the offender's person or property,
- (c) the authority to arrest a supervised offender without a warrant for violation of a condition of probation or parole and commit the offender to Tribal jail by presenting to the Tribal police a written statement that the offender has, in the judgment of the officer, violated the conditions of his or her release, and
- (d) the authority to conduct a search without warrant upon reasonable cause.

(2) The Department may:

- (a) recommend to the Tribal Council for adoption rules for the conduct of adults placed on parole or probation, except that the Department may not recommend, and the Council may not adopt, any rule conflicting with conditions of parole or probation imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction; and
- (b) adopt requirements for the training of adult probation officers.

Part 2

Probation

2-3-201. Declaration of purpose and policy. The Tribal Council finds and declares that probation is a desirable disposition of appropriate criminal cases because:

- (1) It provides a framework by which the Tribes can supervise positive rehabilitative measures imposed on an offender by a court;
- (2) The offender remains under the purview of the Court while engaging in the educational, therapeutic and community restorative pursuits that add up to a successful rehabilitation;
- (3) It maximizes the liberty of the individual while at the same time vindicating the authority of the law and effectively protecting the public from further violations of the law;
- (4) It affirmatively promotes the rehabilitation of the offender by continuing normal community contacts; and
- (5) It minimizes the impact of the conviction upon innocent dependents of the offender.

2-3-202. Penalty upon revocation of probation or parole. (1) A person who is found, after a hearing, to have violated a condition of his or her probation may be required:

- (a) In the case of probation during a suspended sentence, to serve in the Tribal jail up to the entire period for which execution of sentence was suspended; or
 - (b) In the case of deferred imposition of sentence, to serve such sentence as may be imposed by the Court after a sentencing hearing.
- (2) Parole is not available to a supervised offender whose probation is revoked, but appellate review of the trial court's revocation decision may be had on the ground that the supervised offender was deprived of liberty without due process of law.

2-3-203. Arrest for violation of a condition of probation. (1) As provided in Section 2-3-106(1)(b) and (c), an adult probation officer may arrest a supervised offender for violation of a condition of probation. Any probation officer may arrest the prisoner without a warrant or may deputize any other officer with power to arrest to do so by giving him or her a written statement setting forth that the prisoner has, in the judgment of the probation officer, violated the conditions of his release. The written statement delivered with the prisoner by the arresting officer to the Tribal jail shall be sufficient warrant for the detention of the probationer or conditional release. Pending hearing upon a charge of violation the prisoner may be incarcerated in the Tribal jail.

- (2) In the event of such arrest, the probation officer shall forthwith cause to be filed a petition for revocation of probation, which shall include, but not be limited to, facts showing the basis for the arrest and for revocation of probation.
- (3) An arrested probationer is entitled to determination of probable cause for the grounds for his or her arrest within 48 hours, exclusive of weekend and holidays, of the time of arrest.
- (4) If probable cause is found for the arrest, the arrested probationer shall be held in the Tribal jail without bail until the probation revocation hearing is held.

2-3-204. Probation revocation hearing. (1) A probationer is entitled to a hearing before the Court prior to revocation of probation within 10 days of the date of notice of revocation or the date of arrest for violating a condition of probation, unless good cause for delay exists. The burden is on the party asking for the delay to show that good cause exists.

(2) The subject matter of a revocation hearing is limited to alleged knowing violation(s) of probation condition(s). A violation of a condition is deemed to be a knowing violation if the probationer signed, and was given a copy of, the conditions of probation.

(3) Supervised offenders do not have a right to a jury trial at a revocation hearing.

(4) If the probationer admits to violating a condition of probation, the Court, after the probationer has had the opportunity to offer testimony or evidence regarding any circumstances tending to mitigate the violation, may revoke the probation.

(5) If the probationer does not admit to violating a condition of probation, the prosecutor has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the probationer violated a condition of the probation. Prosecution evidence may not be suppressed on the ground that, if an admission of a violation, no warning was given of a right not to incriminate oneself.

(6) The probationer has a right to counsel and may call witnesses or introduce evidence in his or her own behalf and may cross examine any prosecution witness. Hearsay evidence is admissible, although a decision to revoke probation may not be based solely on hearsay evidence. The prosecutor may show any aggravating circumstances, and the probationer may show any mitigating circumstances.

(7) The Court shall determine the appropriate disposition of a petition for revocation by balancing the probationer's interest in liberty, employment, family ties, responsibilities, health, or community ties against the Tribes' interest in rehabilitation, public safety, victim(s)' rights, and the probationer's duty to comply with each condition of probation.

(8) An order revoking probation shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact, including, but not necessarily limited to, those required in subsection (7), and conclusions of law supporting the revocation.

Part 3

Parole

2-3-301. Duties of the Adult Probation and Parole Officer. (1) The adult probation and parole officer shall retain custody of all persons placed on parole and shall supervise the persons during their parole periods in accordance with the conditions set by the Court.

(2) The adult probation and parole officer shall review and monitor a person who is eligible for parole in preparing a parole plan. The officer shall make a report of the officer's efforts and findings to the Court prior to its consideration of the case of the eligible person.

(3) A copy of the conditions of parole must be signed by the parolee and given to the parolee and to the parolee's probation and parole officer, who shall report on the parolee's progress to the Court as may be necessary or desirable.

(4) To assist parolees the adult probation and parole officer may, in addition to other services, provide the following:

- (a) Employment counseling and job placement;
- (b) family and individual counseling and treatment placement;
- (c) financial counseling;
- (d) vocational and educational counseling and placement; and
- (e) referral services to any appropriate agency.

2-3-302. Eligibility for parole. An offender sentenced to confinement in the Tribal correctional facility for 40 days or more on any conviction or combination of convictions, who has served at least one-half of the imposed sentence, and whose confinement is not the result of a probation or parole violation, may file a petition for parole with the Tribal Court.

2-3-303. Parole hearing. The Court shall hold a hearing on the petition within 10 days of its filing. All persons desiring to speak at the hearing shall be heard, including, but not limited to law enforcement officers, the Tribal prosecutor, family and friends of the offender, the offender and the offender's attorney, any victim of the offense for which the offender was sentenced in incarceration, and immediate, adult, family members of such victim. Notice of hearing shall be given to all parties at least 5 days prior to the hearing.

2-3-304. Granting parole. (1) In determining whether to grant parole, the Court shall consider all pertinent information including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) The circumstances and nature of the offense;
- (b) The past criminal record of the petitioner;
- (c) The past employment record of the petitioner;
- (d) The conduct of the petitioner during imprisonment;
- (e) The results of any physical or psychological reports; and

(f) The petitioner's employment status, family and community ties and responsibilities, and health, which may be balanced against the Tribes' interest in rehabilitation, public safety, and victim's rights.

(2) The order granting parole shall set forth:

(a) The duration of parole;

(b) The conditions of parole;

(c) Commitment to the custody of the adult probation and parole officer; and

(d) The consequences of violating a condition of parole.

2-3-305. Penalty for violation of a condition of parole. Any person who violates a condition of parole may be apprehended and required to serve the remainder of the original sentence. Further parole in this instance is not allowed.

2-3-306. Arrest of alleged parole violator. Any parole officer may arrest the prisoner without a warrant or may deputize any other officer with power to arrest to do so by giving him or her a written statement setting forth that the prisoner has, in the judgment of the parole officer, violated the conditions of his release. The written statement delivered with the prisoner by the arresting officer to the Tribal jail shall be sufficient warrant for the detention of the parolee or conditional release. Pending hearing upon a charge of violation the prisoner may be incarcerated in the Tribal jail.

2-3-307. Determination of probable cause after arrest. An arrested parolee is entitled to a determination within 48 hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, of whether there is probable cause to believe that the arrested parolee has committed acts which would constitute a violation of parole conditions. (Rev. 1-27-00)

2-3-308. Parole revocation hearing. (1) Upon a finding of probable cause or waiver of the hearing or upon issuance of a notice of parole violation by the Adult Probation Officer, the Officer shall file a petition for revocation of parole with the Court. Such petition must be filed within the parole period and served upon the parolee.

(2) The parolee is entitled to a revocation hearing within 10 days of arrest for a parole violation or receipt of a notice of revocation unless the court finds that good cause for delay exists.

(3) The subject matter of the hearing is limited to alleged violation(s) of condition(s) of parole.

(4) The parolee has no right to a jury trial when a violation of a condition of parole is alleged.

(5) Unless the parolee admits the parole violation, the Adult Probation Officer or Tribal Prosecutor must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the parolee violated a condition of his or her parole. Evidence that the parolee violated a condition of parole is not excludable on the grounds that the parolee was not warned of his or her right not to incriminate himself or herself prior to admitting a violation.

(6) A parolee has the right to legal counsel.

(7) A parole may not be revoked based solely on hearsay, but hearsay testimony may be admitted.

(8) A parole revocation is appealable on the grounds that the revocation deprived the parolee of liberty without due process of the laws. The court's refusal to revoke a parole is not appealable by or on behalf of the Tribe.

TITLE III

CHAPTER 1

DOMESTIC RELATIONS

Part 1

3-1-101. Marriages. The Tribal Court of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes shall have jurisdiction over marriages of Indians residing on the Flathead Reservation and of other persons who consent to the Court's jurisdiction. Judges of the Tribal Court are authorized to perform marriage ceremonies.

3-1-102. Annulment. (1) The Tribal Court of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine matters of annulment upon the application of one of the parties:

- (a) when either party to the marriage shall be incapable of consenting thereto.
- (b) when the consent was obtained by force or fraud.
- (c) when the party making application was of unsound mind at the time of the marriage.
- (d) when either party was at the time of the marriage incapable of consummating the marriage and the incapacity is continuing.
- (e) when the marriage was invalid on one of the grounds as set in Section 40-1-402 of the Montana Code Annotated, which grounds are incorporated herein by reference.

(2) If, after termination of any of the foregoing defects, the parties shall continue to live together as husband and wife, the marriage shall not subsequently be subject to annulment because of such defect.

(3) Procedures for annulment must be instituted by the party laboring under the disability or upon whom the force or fraud is imposed.

(4) The legitimacy of children conceived or born prior to judgment shall be conclusive only as against the parties to the action and those claiming under them.

3-1-103. Divorce or separation. (1) A marriage may be dissolved by divorce or legal separation in the Tribal Court of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes for incompatibility of the parties for whatever reason using the guidelines of the Uniform Marriage and Divorce Act set forth in the Montana Code Annotated.

(2) During the pendency of proceedings for divorce or legal separation or for annulment, the Tribal Court may order:

- (a) the husband and wife to provide for the separate maintenance of his or her spouse and children as the Court may deem just upon application therefor;
- (b) the care, custody and maintenance of the minor children of the marriage,
- (c) the restraint of either spouse from in any manner threatening or interfering with the other or the minor children.

(3) In addition to the dissolution of marriage by decree, the Tribal Court shall have the power to impose judgment as follows:

- (a) for future custody and care of the minor children of the marriage as may be in the interest of the children.
 - (b) for the recovery from either spouse and to allow for the care and custody of such children an amount of money that may be just and proper for the party to contribute toward the education and support of the children.
 - (c) for the recovery from either spouse an amount of money or personal property as may be just and proper for the party to contribute to the maintenance of the other.
 - (d) for the recovery and delivery to each of the parties any of their personal property in the possession or control of the other at the time of the giving of judgment.
 - (e) or whatever equitable distribution of marital property as the Court deems just and proper based on considerations of age of the parties, health, education and skills, financial circumstances of each, and the duration of the marriage.
 - (f) for the restoration of the maiden name of the wife.
- (4) If a party requests a decree of legal separation rather than a decree of divorce, the Court shall grant the decree in that form unless the other party objects and a legal separation shall convert into a divorce decree upon request of either party. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-1-104. Procedure. (1) All proceedings for the annulment, separation or divorce shall be commenced in the manner provided in Rule 8 of the Rules of Practice, Title I, Ch. 2, Part 7, of the CSKT Laws Codified.

(2) The complaint shall allege the grounds for annulment; or in a proceeding for separation or divorce that the parties are incompatible; and shall set forth:

- (a) the age, occupation and residence of each party and his/her length of residence in this state;
 - (b) the date of the marriage and the place at which it was registered;
 - (c) that the jurisdictional requirements exist in that either the parties are Indian or that the parties have consented to the Court's jurisdiction;
 - (d) the names, ages and addresses of all living children of the marriage and whether the wife is pregnant;
 - (e) any arrangements as to support, custody and visitation of the children and maintenance of a spouse; and
 - (f) the relief sought.
- (3) Either or both parties to the marriage may initiate the proceeding. If one party commences the proceeding, the other party must be served in the manner set forth in Rule 9 of the Rules of Practice, Title I, Ch. 2, Part 7, of the CSKT Laws Codified, and may, within fourteen days after the date of service, file a verified response. No decree may be entered until twenty days after the date of service.

(4) The Court may join additional parties proper for the exercise of its authority to implement this act. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-1-105. Separation agreement. The parties in an action for legal separation or divorce may enter into a separation agreement containing provisions for disposition of any property owned by either of them, maintenance of either of them, and support, custody and visitation of their children. The terms of the separation agreement, except those providing for support, custody and visitation of the children, are binding on the Court, unless the Court finds the agreement to be unconscionable.

3-1-106. Adoption. (1) The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction to hear, pass upon and approve applications for family adoption of or by members of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes.

(2) Adoption proceedings shall be initiated by filing a petition with the Court, which shall conduct the proceedings in a manner that shall assure that all concerned parties, including minors, shall have proper notice of hearings, and be accorded the right to professional counsel or lay representative at their own expense, the opportunity to introduce evidence, to be heard on their own behalf, and to examine witnesses.

(3) A petition for adoption shall be signed by petitioners, witnessed by a Judge of the Tribal Court, and shall specify:

(a) the full names, ages and place of residence of the petitioners, and if married the place and date of the marriage.

(b) when the petitioners acquired or intend to acquire custody of the child and from what person or agency.

(c) the date and place of birth of the child, if known.

(d) the name used for the child in the proceeding, and if a change in name is desired, the new name.

(e) that it is the desire of the petitioners that the relationship of parent and child be established between them and the child.

(f) a full description and statement of value of all property owned or possessed by the child.

(g) facts, if any, which excuse consent on the part of a parent, to the adoption.

(4) Any surviving natural parent must consent in writing, unless the Court determines that the necessity of consent has been waived by acts of a natural parent that constitute willful abandonment of the child, or if the parent has been judicially deprived of the custody of the child on account of abuse or neglect.

(5) The person or persons seeking to adopt the child shall appear before the Court and be examined and the Court may require a report to be prepared by the Tribal Social Services Division or the Bureau of Indian Affairs or public agency or person designated by the Court to make such a report on the qualifications of the adoptive person or persons.

(6) If the child is over the age of 14 years, the child must also appear before the Court and consent in writing to such adoption.

(7) Unless the Court shall otherwise order, all hearings held in proceedings under this act shall be confidential and shall be held in closed Court without admittance of any person other than interested parties and their counsel. All papers, records and files pertaining to the adoption shall be kept as a permanent record by the Court and withheld from inspection. No person shall have access to such records except on order of the Judge of the Court for good cause shown.

(8) After the Court has heard all the facts in such an adoption proceeding, and believes that it is in the best of the child to be adopted, it shall enter an Order accordingly, which may be interlocutory or final, and cause the Order to be kept in the records of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the appropriate agency of the State of Montana for statistical reporting.

3-1-107. Paternity and support. (1) The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction of all suits brought to determine the paternity of a child, if the Tribal Court has personal jurisdiction of the alleged father.

(2) All proceedings in this section shall assure that concerned parties, including minors, shall have proper notice of hearings, and be accorded the right to professional counsel or lay representative at their own expense, the opportunity to introduce evidence, to be heard on their own behalf, and to examine witnesses. If the alleged father does not appear after notice through service of process, the hearing may be held and decree rendered in his absence.

(3) Any hearings or trial held under this section shall be in closed Court without admittance of any person other than those necessary to the action. All papers, records of files, other than the part of the permanent record of the Court or of a file of any agency, are subject to inspection only upon consent of the Court and all interested parties, or in exceptional cases only upon an Order of the Court for good cause shown.

(4) A judgment of the Tribal Court establishing the identity of the father of the child shall be conclusive of the fact in all subsequent determination of inheritance and in criteria for enrollment with the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes.

3-1-108. Dependent and neglected children. (1) The Tribal Court of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes shall have jurisdiction to hear petitions alleging the neglect or dependency of any person under 18 years of age, subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, to order investigation by social services personnel of such allegations, to hold hearing in the matter, and to determine the proper disposition of the case.

(2) For the purposes of this Chapter, a "Neglected Child" is a child found to be in one or more of the following situations:

- (b) a child whose parent, guardian or custodian has subjected him/her to mistreatment or abuse.

The hearing shall be so conducted that all concerned parties, including minors, shall have the right to professional counsel or lay representation at their own expense, the opportunity to introduce evidence, to be heard on their own behalf, and to examine witnesses.

(6) Before depriving any parent of the custody of his or her child, the Tribal Court shall give due consideration to the preferred rights of parents to the custody of their children, and shall not transfer custody to another person, agency, or institution, unless the Court finds from all of the circumstances in the case that the welfare of the child or the public interest requires that the child be taken from his/her home.

(7) If a child is found to be dependent or neglected, the Tribal Court may enter its judgment making any of the following dispositions to protect the welfare of the child:

(a) permit the child to remain with his/her parents or guardian subject to those conditions and limitations that the Court may prescribe;

The petition must contain a statement to the effect that the rights of the parent or parents are proposed to be permanently terminated in the proceeding. The parties, including minors, shall have the right to professional counsel or lay representative at their own expense, the opportunity to introduce evidence to be heard on their own behalf, and to examine witnesses.

(2) If the Tribal Court concludes after a hearing provided for in Section 3-2-313 that parental rights or the rights of a guardian of a child should be permanently terminated, the child may be placed in the adoptive custody of the Tribal Court, or in the adoptive custody of the appropriate Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs social services agency.

(3) If the rights of only one parent have been terminated, the right of the other parent to consent to adoption is not affected by an order placing the child for adoption as provided in the preceding section.

(4) The case records of the Court and any agency involved in any action under this section shall be confidential unless the Court orders their release. All hearings pursuant to this section shall be in closed Court without admittance of any person other than those necessary to the action. (Rev. 4-15-03)

- (6) No guardian may dispose of any of the ward's property without the approval of the Court in advance.

- (8) Any guardianship over the person or property of a minor or incapacitated person shall terminate upon application of the ward or a person interested in his or her welfare and the approval of the Court.
- (9) A special guardian may be appointed for the special purpose of signing deeds, contracts or other documents on behalf of a minor or a person who is incapable of managing his/her own affairs. The document to be valid must be approved by the Tribal Court and also approved by the Secretary of the Interior if it involves trust or restricted property or funds.

Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the guardian or mailed to him/her by ordinary mail at his/her address as listed in the Court records and to his/her address as then known to the petitioner.

3-1-111. Probate, descent and distribution. (1) When any member of the Tribes dies, leaving property other than an allotment, or other trust property subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, any person claiming to be an heir of the decedent may petition the Tribal Court of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes to have the Court determine the heirs of the decedent and to divide among the heirs such property of the decedent. The Court may, on its own motion, initiate probate proceedings after a reasonable time if the heirs and/or other interested parties have neglected to file a petition with due diligence for commencement of probate. No determination of heirs shall be made unless all possible heirs known to the Court, the Tribes, the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the claimant shall have been notified of the suit and given full opportunity to come before the Court and defend their interests. Possible heirs who are not residents of the Flathead Reservation must be notified by registered mail and a copy of the notice must be preserved in the record of the case.

(2) When any member of the Tribes dies, leaving a will disposing only of property other than an allotment or other trust property subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, the Tribal Court shall, at the request of any person named in the will, determine the validity of the will after giving notice to appear in Court to all persons who might be heirs of the decedent. A will shall be deemed by the Court to be valid if the decedent had a sane mind and understood what he/she was doing when he/she made the will and was not subject to any undue influence, and if the will was made in accordance with the laws of the State of Montana. If the Court determines the will to be validly executed, it shall order the property described in the will to be given to the persons named in the will or their heirs.

(3) In under either of the two preceding Sections of this Chapter, the Tribal Court may, in its discretion, appoint from among the survivors of a decedent, an administrator of the estate, who will take possession and control of the property of the decedent until the administration of the estate has been completed and he/she has been discharged by Order of the Court.

CHILDREN

Part 1

General Provisions and Definitions.

3-2-101. Purpose. The Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes have enacted this Chapter, recognizing that Tribal children are the Tribes' most important resource and their welfare is of paramount importance to the Tribes. It is the purpose of this Chapter to provide and assure that each Tribal child within the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court shall receive the care and guidance needed to prepare such children to take their places as an adult member of the Tribes; to prevent the unwarranted break-up of Indian families by incorporating procedures that recognize the rights of children and parents or other custodial adults, and, where possible, to maintain and strengthen the family unit; to preserve and strengthen the child's individual, cultural, and Tribal identity. Wherever possible, family life shall be strengthened and preserved, and the primary efforts will be toward keeping the child with his or her family, and if this is not possible, then efforts shall be made toward maintaining the child's physical and emotional ties with the child's extended family and with the Tribal community.

3-2-102. Intent. It is the intention of the Tribes in enacting this Chapter to incorporate to the fullest extent possible the honored customs and traditions of the child's particular Tribe, consistent with the Indian Civil Rights Act, 25 U.S.C. Section 1301 et seq., (1968), and with the needs and realities of Tribal members' lives and conditions upon the Flathead Reservation. Evidence may be adopted in any proceeding conducted pursuant to this Chapter of such customs and traditions. Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the judge having jurisdiction over the hearing that the customs and traditions of the child in particular Tribe are consistent with the provisions of this Chapter, then the judge shall adopt such customs and traditions for the purposes of the hearing and such customs and traditions shall have the effect of law governing that particular hearing.

3-2-103. Jurisdiction. The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction over any child custody proceeding involving an Indian child residing or domiciled within the Flathead Reservation or having significant contacts with the Reservation community and over all Indian children who are members of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes. The Court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction over all child custody proceedings involving any Indian child who is a Tribal member of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes who resides or is domiciled within the Flathead Reservation or is a protected child of the Tribes.

3-2-104. Protected Children (Wards) of the Court. In any case where a Court transfers legal custody of an Indian child subject to this jurisdiction to the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribal Court, to Tribal Social Services of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, to any person other than a natural parent of the child, or to any agency or institution of the Tribes, the Tribal Court shall reserve Jurisdiction over all future child custody proceedings involving that child, unless otherwise specified by a Tribal Court Order, and the child shall become a Protected Child of the Tribes. For purposes of Tribal Court jurisdiction, a Protected Child of the Tribes shall be a ward of the Tribal Court, and such wardship status shall continue until terminated by the Tribal Court or until the child reaches the age of eighteen (18) years. All children who are wards of the Court by previous action of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribal Court, or for any other reason, at the time of the adoption of this Code shall be considered Protected Children of the Tribes. Any Indian child having at least one parent who is an enrolled member of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes may become a Protected Child of the Tribes upon the certified consent of both of the child's natural parents. Such consent shall be certified under oath, before a Tribal Judge, the Tribal Clerk of Court, or a Public Notary of any State of the United States. Each such certification shall be filed and recorded by the Clerk of the Tribal Court. Such consent may later be withdrawn by the parents of the child by filing a Notice of Revocation of such consent with the Clerk of the Tribal Court. Upon the filing of such Notice of Revocation by each living parent of the child, the child shall no longer be a Protected Child of the Tribes.

To the best extent possible, efforts shall be made toward maintaining the child's identity and ties with his or her family and with the tribal community and provisions for the child's spiritual development shall remain a priority goal.

3-2-302. Reports and Action on Reporting. Upon the receipt of any report or information regarding a Tribal child who may be a youth in need of care, it shall be the duty of the Director of Tribal Social Services to investigate or cause to be investigated the circumstances surrounding the report, including the home environment of the child, any physical or emotional injuries suffered by the child, and all other matters which, in the discretion of the Director or appropriate Tribal personnel, shall be relevant to the investigation. 3-2-303. Responsibility and Confidentiality of Reporting. (1) Any individual who knows or suspects that a child is a Tribal child in need of care should report case to the Tribal Social Services, Tribal police, or the Court. (1) An Abused Child: One who has suffered or is likely to suffer a physical injury, inflicted upon the child by other than accidental means, which causes or creates a substantial risk of death, disfigurement, impairment of bodily functions or serious physical or emotional harm, as determined by appropriate medical or professional personnel. The following are examples of circumstances in which a child could be found to be an abused child, but as such are not intended to be all-inclusive:

(a) A child who has been excessively beaten or suffered other unusual or inappropriate corporal punishment.

(b) A child who suffers injury to his or her psychological functioning, as determined by an appropriate professional person, as a result of psychological or other abuse.

(c) A child who has been subjected to obscene or indecent sexual activities as a result of pressure, guidance, or approval of the child's parent or custodian.

(4) A Dependent Child: One who has no parent or custodian available, willing or able to care for the child. Nothing in these definitions shall be used to interfere with or prohibit the cultural and spiritual development and with traditional child-raising practices of the child's family or Tribe.

3-2-305. Temporary Protective Care.

(1) Authorization and duties of Tribal Police and Tribal Social Services.

Whenever a Tribal police officer or Tribal Social Services worker has reasonable grounds to believe that a child is in danger of serious and imminent physical or emotional harm and that the removal of the child from the child's home residence is necessary to avoid harm, and if the Court is unavailable to issue a custody order, or if the issuance of a custody order would involve a delay that would contribute to the risk of harm to the child, the police officer or Social Services worker may take the child into temporary protective care.

(2) Procedure Upon Removal of a Child. Upon the removal of a child into emergency protective care, the Tribal police officer or Social Services worker shall:

(a) Immediately notify the child's parents or custodian of such removal, and the reasons therefor. If attempts to so notify the child's parents or custodian are unsuccessful, then best efforts shall immediately be made to notify the child's nearest relatives.

(b) Immediately notify the Director of Social Services, or the Social Services personnel designated to take such notice, of such removal.

(c) If return of physical custody of the child can be accomplished without danger of harm to the child, the child shall be returned to the parents or custodian.

(d) If the return of the child to the child's parents or custodian is impossible or would involve continued risk of such harm to the child, then the child shall be placed in the physical custody of a responsible adult member of the child's extended family if such a person is available and if placement can be accomplished without risk of harm to the child. In order to protect the privacy of the parents or custodian, the Tribal police officer or Tribal social worker shall contact the child's relatives only to the extent necessary to investigate the case and determine whether appropriate placement can be made within the extended family.

(e) If temporary protective care as set forth above is not available, then the child shall be placed with a secure home, family, or shelter care facility having been approved for such placement by Tribal Social Services. A child shall not be placed in a Jail facility or other environment where the child is in contact with persons in such a facility for the reason of having been accused or convicted of a crime or delinquent act, unless such a placement is determined, by a Tribal Court Judge, to be necessary for the benefit of the child or to insure the child's continued presence in the area.

(f) Upon the placement of the child, the Tribal police officer or Social Services worker shall make and deliver a report to the Director of Tribal Social Services containing a summary of the circumstances surrounding the temporary protective care and the basis therefor.

3-2-306. Termination of Protective Care. In no case shall protective temporary care extend beyond 72 hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays. At the expiration of this period, the Director of Tribal Social Services shall:

(1) Cause the child to be returned to the child's parents or custodian; or

(2) Have the child brought before a Tribal Court Judge for an emergency hearing to determine further placement of the child pending further proceedings in the case. In the case of an emergency hearing, Tribal Social Services shall use best efforts to notify the child's parents or custodian of the time and place of the hearing, and inform the parent or custodian of the time and place of the hearing, and inform the parents or custodian of their right to attend the hearing and be heard. At the time of hearing, the Court shall determine the placement of the child pending further proceedings, and may appoint a Guardian ad Litem for the child. A Tribal Advocate may be appointed for the parents or custodian if so requested, and if the parents or custodian cannot afford one. Such continued protective custody pursuant to an emergency hearing order shall extend no longer than is necessary for the filing of petition, notification of interested parties and the holding of a preliminary hearing as set forth in this part.

3-2-307. Initiation of Proceedings Petition. All Court proceedings under this part shall be initiated by a petition entitled "Petition for Declaration of Youth in Need of Care." Such petition shall be prepared and filed by the Tribal Social Services Advocate, the Tribal Attorney, or some other Tribal Advocate. The petition shall contain the following information:

(1) The name and birth date of the youth;

(2) The name of the parents or custodian of the youth;

(3) The basis of the Court's jurisdiction;

(4) An allegation that the youth is a youth in need of care, and a plain statement of facts supporting this allegation;

(5) Any facts relevant to the present physical or legal custody of the youth;

(6) A summary of any efforts which have been made by Tribal Social Services or others to divert the case from the Court system to community groups or advisors;

(7) Whether temporary custody of the youth is requested by Tribal Social Services;

(8) A statement of any other relief requested by Tribal Social Services, including termination of any parental or custodian rights or appointment of a substitute custodian.

3-2-308. Guardian ad Litem. Upon the filing of a petition, the Clerk of the Tribal Court shall immediately notify a Court judge, and the Court may appoint a Guardian ad Litem if one has not already been appointed, or other qualified person to act as a Tribal advocate in the proceedings upon the petition and represent the youth.

3-2-309. Notice. Written notice of any initial hearing or other hearing held under this Section shall be given, at least five (5) days prior to hearing date, to all parents or legal custodians of the child, and to other persons as the Court may direct. A copy of the petition shall also be served no later than five (5) days prior to the hearing.

3-2-310. Intervention. Intervention into the proceedings shall be allowed as follows:

(1) Any extended family member shall be allowed to intervene as an interested party.

(2) Community counselors, spiritual leaders, and other persons may be allowed to intervene as interested parties at the discretion of the Court. Where applicable, the Court shall follow the traditions and customs of the child's Tribe regarding the involvement of such interested persons. Notice of intervention shall be served by mail, by the Clerk of the Court, upon all parties to the proceedings at least five (5) days prior to hearing. Such Notice may be excused by the Court if the Court determines that lack of Notice has not detrimentally affected the other parties. If the Court finds such detrimental effect, the Court may:

(a) Deny intervention; or

(b) Continue the hearing date for an appropriate time.

3-2-311. Initial Hearing. (1) Within ten (10) days of the filing of the petition, an initial hearing shall be conducted unless another time has been set for good cause. All hearings under this Section shall be in closed Court, including only officers of the Court, the child, parents, custodians, social services person net, and such other persons who, in the discretion of the Court, may aid in the proceedings or have sufficient interest in the case. Upon the request of a parent, custodian, or the child, the hearing may be open to the public if the Court determines that the benefit of public hearing outweighs the right of privacy of the parties involved in the proceedings.

(a) The parents or custodians of the child shall be advised of:

(i) The nature of the charges;

(ii) The factual allegations therefor;

(iii) The present custodial situation;

(iv) The relief requested by Tribal Social Services;

(v) The right to be represented by legal counsel at their own expense and the right to request a Tribal Advocate appointed at the Tribe's expense if the parent or custodian cannot afford representation and if an advocate is available;

(vi) The right to request an informal adjustment conference. If an informal adjustment conference is requested and consented to in accordance with Section 3-2-312, the Court may suspend further proceeding pending the conference and diversion period.

(b) The parent or custodian will be allowed to admit or deny the allegations in the petition.

(c) Unless the allegations are admitted, the Tribal Social Services Advocate shall have the burden of proving, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the child is a Youth in Need of Care if permanent or long-term custody and care is petitioned for. However, the Tribal Social Services Advocate may request further time with which to prepare its case following a denial of the allegations in the petition, and the Court may continue the proceedings for such time as the Court determines necessary for further investigation and preparation by the Tribal Social Services.

(2) If temporary custody is requested, the Tribal Social Services Advocate shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing evidence, that such relief is necessary for the protection of the child.

(3) Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the Court shall issue a temporary order, including the following:

(a) Its jurisdiction over the case;

(b) Whether it has been proven that the child is a Youth in Need of Care. If the Court does not so find, the petition be dismissed.

(c) If temporary custody is requested, whether such is necessary for the protection of the child. If the Court does not so find, the custody of the child shall remain with or be returned to the parent or custodian.

(d) The date of dispositional hearing upon the petition. The dispositional hearing shall determine the further custody or placement of the child, and such hearing shall be set no later than ninety (90) days after initial hearing.

(4) In addition, the Order may direct:

- (a) That notice of the proceedings be given to additional interested parties;
- (b) That the child, parents, or custodians undergo medical or psychological examinations and that reports be submitted to the Court;
- (c) That further investigation be conducted by Tribal Social Services or other agencies;
- (d) That the family or the child participate in such counseling, advice, or other program as the Court may deem beneficial; and
- (e) That such other actions consistent with the purposes of this Code be taken.

(5) The initial hearing shall be held in two (2) parts: The adjudicatory hearing and the temporary disposition hearing. Such hearings shall be conducted according to the Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Evidence of the Tribal Court, and consistent with all due process and other rights afforded the parties by the Indian Civil Rights Act. The burden of proof on all matters shall be upon Tribal Social Services. The adjudicatory hearing shall be conducted solely to determine whether the Tribal child is a Youth in Need of Care. For good cause, the adjudicatory hearing and the temporary dispositional hearing may be bifurcated and held in two (2) proceedings. Either the adjudicatory hearing phase of the proceedings may be transferred to another Court of competent jurisdiction for proceedings and determinations consistent with this Code. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-2-312. Division – Informal Adjustment Conference.

- (1) It shall be the duty of Tribal Social Services, the Tribal Advocates, and the Tribal Court to encourage satisfactory, out-of-court solutions to cases under this Code prior to the final disposition hearing.
- (2) Any party to a proceeding may request an informal adjustment conference. The request shall be granted one time as a matter of right and thereafter at the discretion of the Court. The request may be made at any time, after the filing of a petition, up to the Court's issuance of the Order following final disposition hearing.
- (3) Such parties may be present at the conference as the Court may direct. The Judge may be present. Alternatives to further proceedings may be discussed.
- (4) Any disposition of the case pursuant to such a conference must be voluntarily agreed to by all parties to the proceedings. If such disposition is agreed to, the court shall enter a conference agreement, and this shall have the effect of a Court Order. The conference agreement may include the following dispositions:
 - (a) Release of the child to the parent or custodian with no further action, and dismiss case;
 - (b) Suspend the proceedings for a specified time, releasing the child to the parent, custodian, or other person as the Court may direct, with appropriate remedial conditions;
 - (c) Order final disposition of the case, consistent with the provisions for an order following final disposition hearing.

3-2-313. Final Disposition Hearing.

- (1) Notice of final disposition hearing shall be given in accordance with Section 3-2-309. All interested parties may testify, and otherwise give evidence in their behalf regarding the present circumstances of the child and of the parents, custodians, or possible custodians of the children. The Court shall inquire into the compliance with any temporary order issued by the Court, including remedial conditions.
- (2) Rules of procedure and evidence, and burdens of proof, shall be as set forth in Section 3-2-311 for initial hearings.

(3) The Court may order any of the dispositional alternatives permissible under temporary dispositional orders or informal adjustment conference orders. If the Court's Order does not finally conclude the case, the Court shall specify in its Order the date for further reporting to the Court, and the date for further dispositional hearing. In addition, the Court may order any of the following dispositions:

(a) Temporarily suspending parental rights for a specified period of time, placing the child's legal custody for such period with the Tribal Social Services and the physical custody of the child with an extended family member, foster home, shelter-care home, or other appropriate person or facility.

(b) Suspend parental rights for an indefinite period of time, placing legal custody of the child with Tribal Social Services, and the physical custody of the child as set forth in this Section.

(c) Terminate parental rights, and place the child with an appropriate custodian. Where practicable, the custodian shall be an extended family member of the child or a member of the child's community.

(4) In any of the above situations set forth in this Section, where the parental rights have been suspended or terminated, but the child has not been adopted, the child shall be considered a Protected Child of the Tribes or Ward of Court.

(5) No suspension or termination of parental rights may be ordered unless the Court determines, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the continued custody of the child by the parent or custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child. No termination of parental rights may be ordered unless, in addition, the Court determines that the risk of serious emotional or physical damage to the child will continue due to circumstances that are irreparable by further efforts of the Court and Tribal Social Services.

(6) If the Court terminates parental rights, the Court shall include in its Order that the Court has considered the question of inheritance and residual parental rights, and the Court shall determine as follows:

(a) (i) That the inheritance rights of the child and natural parents have been terminated; or

(ii) That the inheritance rights of the child or natural parents, or both, shall be continued, with such conditions as the Court may place.

(b) (i) That all of the natural parents' rights to the child have been terminated; or

(ii) That the natural parents may enjoy certain residual parental rights. Such parental rights may include:

(A) The right to communication;

(B) The right to visitation;

(c) The right or obligation to contribute to support or education;(d) Disposition of per capita payments or other benefits as determined by the Court;

(D) The right to be consulted regarding the child's religious affiliation, major medical treatment, marriage, or other matters of major importance in the minor child's life; or

(E) Such other residual rights as the Court may deem appropriate, considering the circumstances.

(7) The Court may grant similar residual rights to extended family members upon the termination of parental rights.

(8) Nothing in this Code shall prohibit a parent whose parental rights have been terminated under judicial process to petition the Court to restore the parent to certain residual parental rights. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Part 4

Suspension or Termination of Parental Rights.

3-2-401. Definitions.

- (1) "Suspension of parental rights" means the temporary or indefinite severance of the legal relationship between parent or child.
- (2) "Termination of parental rights" means the permanent cancellation of the legal relationship between parent and child, subject only to such residual parental rights as the Court may determine.

3-2-402. Methods of Termination. The following shall be the exclusive methods of suspension or termination of parental rights.

- (1) Voluntary suspension or termination by the parent or parents.
- (2) Involuntary termination under Part 3 of this Chapter.
- (3) Involuntary termination of the rights of one parent, when requested by the other parent, subject to all due process and Indian Civil Rights Act protections and guarantees. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-2-403. Duration of Suspension or Termination of Parental Rights. Parental rights of a natural or adoptive parent may be severed temporarily or permanently. Upon the temporary suspension of parental rights, the person assuming the traditional parental rights of the child shall be deemed a custodian. Upon the permanent termination of parental rights, the person assuming the traditional parental rights shall be deemed as adoptive parent.

3-2-404. Preservation of Tribal Rights. The termination of parental rights shall not adversely affect the child's rights and privileges as an Indian, nor as a member of any Tribes to which the child is entitled to membership, nor shall it affect the child's enrollment status with the child's Tribe, nor shall it interfere with child's cultural level and traditional and spiritual growth as a member of the Indian community.

3-2-405. Suspension of Parental Rights. Parental rights may be suspended involuntarily or voluntarily.

- (1) Involuntarily Suspension. Involuntary suspension of parental rights, and custodianship may only be created according to the provisions of Part 3 of this Chapter.
- (2) Voluntary Suspension. Voluntary suspension of parental rights or custodianship may be created by formal Court process or informally.
 - (a) Formal Custodianship. A formal, voluntary custodianship may be created by petition and order of the Court.
 - (i) Petition. The process for creation of a voluntary custodianship shall be initiated by the filing of a petition entitled "Petition for Custodianship." The petition shall be filed in the name of a parent having custody of the child or a proposed custodian. The petition shall contain the following information:
 - (A) The name, age, and residence of each living parent of the child;
 - (B) The name, age, and residence of the child;
 - (C) The name, age, and residence of the proposed custodian or custodians;
 - (D) The jurisdictional basis of the Tribal Court over the matter;

(E) A statement of the facts indicating that the custodianship is in the best interests of the child;

(F) The duration of the proposed custodianship, and whether such is to be of a definite or indefinite duration;

(G) Whether the custodianship is consented to by each living parent of the child, and, if not, any facts excusing such consent, including any facts related to the physical care or custody of the child, past or present, which may be relevant to the petition;

(H) A full statement of the value of any property of the child's, or of which the child is expected to become entitled to during the duration of the custodianship, and recommendation for disposition of per capita pay meets during the custodianship period.

(ii) Consent. The written consent of each parent consenting to the custodianship shall be filed with the petition. Such consents shall be executed before an adult witness. Such consents shall not be invalidated by reason of the minority of the consenting parent.

(iii) Investigation. Upon the filing of a petition, the Court may order such investigation as it deems necessary for a full determination upon the petition.

(iv) Summary Order. If the Court determines that the proposed custodian is a member of the child's extended family or community, or otherwise has significant ties to the child, and that the custodianship has been consented to by each living parent of the child, and that the custodianship is in the best interests of the child, the Court may enter a summary order of custodianship as requested in the petition.

(v) Notice. If the custodianship has not been contested to in writing by each living parent of the child, then each such parent not having consented shall be given written notice of the proceedings, including the date of hearing upon the petition and a copy of the petition. Such notice shall be served personally where the whereabouts of the parent is known and such service is practicable, otherwise service shall be made as ordered by the Court by the most effective means and consistent with the due process rights of the parent.

(vi) Hearing. Unless the custodianship is granted by summary order, the Court shall hold a hearing upon the petition and shall determine if the custodianship is in the best interests of the child. If a nonconsenting parent appears at the hearing and contests the custodianship, the petition shall be denied unless the Court determines, upon clear and convincing evidence, that the custodianship is in the best interests of the child, and the non-consenting parent is unable to furnish a home for the child, and the nonconsenting parent is unable to furnish a home for the child which is more beneficial to the needs and the normal development of the child than the home of the proposed custodian.

(vii) Order. Upon a determination that the petition should be granted, the Court shall enter an order of custodianship. Such order shall contain the following:

(A) The jurisdiction basis of the Court;

(B) The name of the custodian or custodians;

(C) The duration of the custodianship – whether of definite or indefinite duration;

(D) A factual finding that the custodianship is in the best interests of the child and the reasons therefor;

(E) Any specific conditions of custodianship, including rights of the parents.

(viii) Termination of Custodianship. The custodianship shall terminate upon any of the following:

(A) The duration specified in the Order; or

(B) The further order of the Court, terminating custodianship, or the death of the custodian or other circumstances creating a practical inability of the custodian to care for the child.

(C) Upon termination of the custodianship, all legal parental rights shall be returned to the person or persons having such rights prior to the creation of the custodianship.

(b) Informal Custodianship. An informal custodianship, or traditional custodianship, may be created by the placement of a child by a natural parent or parents with another person or family, without Court involvement.

(i) Creation of informal custodianship. Such a custodianship must be voluntarily entered into by the natural parent or parents involved and the custodian, and shall be recognized as a legal custodianship for so long as the consensual relationship continues.

(ii) Rights of non-consenting parent. No informal custodianship may be created over the objections of a natural parent having custody or joint custody of the child. A natural parent who does not have custody of the child, and who has not consented to such a traditional custodianship may petition the Court for denial or termination of the custodianship status, for custody of the child, or for such other appropriate relief as the parent believes may be in the best interests of the child.

(iii) Hearing upon petition. Upon the filing of such a petition, by a non-consenting parent, the Court shall hold a hearing in accordance with Subsection (2)(a)(vi), above, and the matter shall thereafter be determined in accordance with the proceeding rules for determination of a formal custodianship petition.

(iv) Termination. After the creation of a traditional custodianship status, if the natural parent or parents consenting to the custodianship shall elect to terminate the custodianship and request the return of the child, such request shall be granted by the custodian and the child shall be returned to the parent or parents so requesting. If the custodian does not believe that the termination of the custodianship status is in the best interests of the child, the custodian may, in the alternative, file or cause to be filed, a petition asking that the youth be declared a Youth in Need of Care under Part 3 of this Chapter. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-2-406. Adoptions. An adoption may be accomplished either involuntarily or voluntarily.

(1) Involuntary. An involuntary adoption may only be accomplished by a termination of parental rights under Part 4 of this Chapter, and a further hearing under Subsection (8) of this Section to determine whether the proposed adoption is in the best interests of the child.

(2) Voluntary. A voluntary adoption may be accomplished by formal Court process or informally.

(a) Petition. The process for a voluntary adoption shall be initiated by the filing of a petition entitled "Petition for Adoption." The petition shall be filed in the name of the proposed adoptive parent and shall contain the following information:

(i) The name, age, and residence of each living parent of the child;

(ii) The name, age, date of birth, and residence of the child, and the Tribal affiliation of the child;

(iii) The name, age and residence of the proposed adoptive parent or parents;

(iv) The basis of the Court's jurisdiction over the adoption of such child;

(v) Whether the adoption is consented to by each living parent of the child, and, if not, any facts excusing such consent;

(vi) A full statement of the value of any property of the child, or of which the child is expected to become entitled after the adoption;

(vii) Any facts related to the physical care or custody of the child either present or past, which is relevant to the petition;

(viii) Any facts relative to the adoptive parent's ability to provide for cultural, traditional and spiritual development of the child.

(3) Consent. Such consents must be executed in writing and recorded before a Judge and accompanied by the Judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of consent were fully explained in detail and were fully understood by the parent or Indian custodian. The court shall also certify that either the parent or custodian fully understood the explanation in English or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood. Any consent given prior to, or within ten (10) days after birth of the child, shall not be valid.

(4) Withdrawal of consent. A consent executed by a minor parent may be withdrawn, for any reason, at any time prior to final Order of Adoption. A consent executed by an adult may be withdrawn, in the discretion of the Court, upon a showing that such a withdrawal is in the best interest of the child, at any time prior to final Order of Adoption. After entry of a final decree, a parent may withdraw consent thereto if consent was obtained through fraud or duress and the parent may petition the Court to vacate such decree.

(5) Investigation. Upon the filing of a petition for adoption, the Court shall order such investigation as it deems necessary for a full determination upon the petition.

(6) Summary Order. The Court may enter a Summary Order of Adoption if such is requested in the petition, provided the Court upon investigation and inquiry determines as follows:

(a) That one of the proposed adoptive parents is a member of the child's extended family or community, or otherwise has significant ties to the child;

(b) That the adoption has been consented to by each living parent of the child;

(c) That the proposed adoptive home is an adequate environment for the development of the child;

(d) That the proposed adoptive parents can provide the child with the unique values of Indian culture; and

(e) That the adoption is in the best interests of the child.

(7) Notice. If the adoption has not been consented to in writing by each living parent of the child, then each such parent not having consented shall be given written notice of the proceedings, including the date of the hearing upon the petition and a copy of the petition. Such Notice shall be served personally whenever the whereabouts of the parent or parents is known and such service is practicable, otherwise service shall be made as ordered by the Court by the most effective means and consistent with the due process rights of the parent or parents.

(8) Hearing. (a) Unless the adoption is granted by Summary Order, the Court shall hold a hearing upon the petition. The first part of the hearing shall address the question of the termination of parental rights of any non-consenting living parent. The burden of proof shall be upon the petitioner to present evidence at the termination stage of the proceeding to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the non-consenting parent's rights should be terminated, and that there is supporting evidence therefor.

(b) The second part of the hearing shall address the proposed adoption, and the petitioner shall have the burden of proof therein to prove, upon clear and convincing evidence that the adoption is in the best interests of the child.

(c) The hearing may be bifurcated to hear the separate parts of the hearing at different times, and the hearing may be continued at any stage, in the Court's discretion, for such time as may be necessary for a full determination of parental rights or whether the proposed adoption is in the best interests of the child.

(9) Termination of Parental Rights. Parental rights may be terminated if the Court determines, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the parent in question has severed the parent–child relationship, and that the continuing of the parent–child relationship is no longer in the best interests of the child. The following circumstances may be indicative of the severance of the parent–child relationship, but are not meant to be exclusive circumstances for termination:

(a) Where the parent is no longer living with the child and has failed to maintain any meaningful contact with the child for a significant time;

(b) A parent who has committed serious acts or omissions which cause the child to become a Youth in Need of Care, under the standards of Part 3 of this Chapter;

(c) A parent who has failed to contribute to the financial and emotional support of the child during a period of more than one year prior to the filing of a petition, under the circumstances where the parent could have contributed support, and such support would have been beneficial to the child's welfare.

(10) Order. Upon a determination that good cause beyond a reasonable doubt exists to terminate the parental rights of the living parent or parents of the child, or that all living parents have freely and voluntarily consented to the adoption with full knowledge of the effect of the adoption, the Court shall enter an Order of Adoption. The Order shall include the following:

(a) The name, age, and residence of each parent of the child;

(b) The name, age and date of birth, and residence of the child, and all relevant facts as to Tribal affiliation and membership of the child;

(c) The jurisdiction of the Court;

(d) Whether the adoption is consented to by each living parent of the child, and, if not, facts excusing the consent upon which the Court relies in terminating the parental rights of a non–consenting parent or parents;

(e) A full statement of the property of the child, and the value thereof, and any provisions the Court may impose for the protection or distribution of such property;

(f) That the adoptive parents are fit to provide a home environment for the healthy development of the child, and that the adoption is in the best interests of the child;

(g) Facts showing that all parties entitled to notice were given notice consistent with their rights to due process.

(h) In accordance with Indian custom, the Court may determine that an open adoption in some degree is best for the child and family. In that case, the Court will decide that a full termination of parental rights is not in the best interests of the child, and that certain residual parental rights will be maintained by the natural parents of the child. Such residual rights may include rights to visitation, contact, to be informed of matters of major importance affecting the health, welfare, education or spiritual training of the child, or such other residual rights as the Court may determine in the best interests of the Child.

(11) Relationship of Adoptive Parent and Child. Upon the entry of an Order of Adoption, the relation of parent and child and all rights, duties, and other legal consequences of the natural relation of child and parent shall thereafter exist between the adopted child and the adoptive parents. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the child shall be entitled to inherit real and personal property from the adoptive parent or parents, and the kindred of the adoptive parent or parents, according to the customs of the Tribe, and the adoptive parent or parents shall be entitled to inherit property from the adopted child as if the adopted child was their natural child. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the rights, duties, and obligations, including the rights of inheritance, between the child and the child's natural parents shall be canceled. However, the Order shall state that the Court has determined questions of inheritance and residual parental rights and determined that certain specified inheritance rights shall be continued between the natural parents and the child.

(12) Failed Adoptions. In cases of failed adoptions, notices of any hearing regarding the child shall be sent to the natural biological parents and any previous Indian custodians. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-2-407. Confidentiality of Records and Proceedings. Unless the Court shall otherwise order, all hearings held in proceedings under this Chapter shall be confidential and shall be held in closed Court without admittance of any person other than interested parties and their advocates. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-2-408. Informal Adoptions. An informal adoption, or traditional adoption, may be created by placement of the child by the natural parent or parents with another person or family, without Court involvement.

(1) Creation of informal adoption. Such an adoption must be voluntarily entered into by the natural parent or parents involved and the custodian, and shall be recognized as a legal adoption. The natural parent or parents consenting to the adoption must do so with knowledge of the permanent nature and effect upon their natural parent rights.

(2) Rights of non-consenting parent. No informal adoption may be created without the consent of each living, natural parent of the child unless that natural parent's parental rights have been previously terminated by order of the Tribal Court, or some other court of competent jurisdiction. A non-consenting parent may petition the Court at any time within two (2) years of the discovery of the creation of the informal adoption, and request the Court to deny the adoption, or for such other appropriate relief as the parent believes may be in the best interest of the child and consistent with the rights of the natural parent under the laws of the child's Tribe and this Code.

(3) Hearing upon petition. Upon the filing of such a petition, the Court shall hold a hearing in accordance with Section 3-2-406(8) and the matter shall thereafter be determined in accordance with the proceeding rules for determination of a formal adoption petition.

(4) Residual rights of the natural parent. By agreement between the natural parent or parents and the adoptive parent, or by order of the Court, certain residual rights may be maintained by the natural parents of the child. The extent and nature of the residual rights shall be determined by the agreement of the natural parents and adoptive parent, or by order of the Court, in the case of the filing of a petition under this part. Residual rights shall be in accordance with this Chapter.

(5) Relationship of adoptive parent and child. Following the effective creation of an informal adoption, the relation of parent and child and all rights, duties, and other legal consequences of the natural relation of the child and the parent shall be in accordance with Section 3-2-406(11), as specified for formal adoptions. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Part 5

Referrals Under the Indian Child Welfare Act.

3-2-501. Purpose. The purpose of this Part is to provide for the speedy and effective procedures for the processing of referrals under the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978 from State or Tribal Courts, in order to best protect the interests of the child of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes and the interests of the Tribes. It is intended that the Tribes will investigate cases referred to them, and will act to transfer to the Tribal Court those cases in which transfer is in the best interests of the child. The procedures found in this Section are aimed at producing a thoughtful and wise decision in the matter of transfers.

3-2-502. Receipt of Referrals. Referral of cases shall be received by the person or persons who shall be designated, from time to time, to the Secretary of Interior and upon the Federal Register, to receive such referrals. Upon receipt of referral, each person so receiving shall immediately deliver the referral to the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court, or in the absence of the Chief Judge to a designated Associate Judge of the Tribal Court, and shall immediately also deliver a copy of the referral to the Clerk of the Tribal Court.

3-2-503. Duties of the Clerk of Court. The Clerk of the Tribal Court, upon receipt of such referral by a Tribal Judge, shall document in a record all essential information relevant to the referral, including:

- (1) The source of the referral;
- (2) The names and addresses of the child and parent, guardian, or custodian;
- (3) The date of the referral;
- (4) The form of the scheduled proceedings in the outside Court; and
- (5) The Tribal affiliation and blood quantum of the child, if known.

3-2-504. Duties of the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court. The Chief Judge of the Tribal Court, or such Associate Judge as the Chief Judge may designate, shall receive referral and, in consultation with the Tribal Attorney where practicable, shall immediately determine if it is necessary to request the twenty (20) day extension to prepare the case, and, if so, shall direct the Tribal Attorney to so request.

3-2-505. Investigation of Referral. Upon receipt of referral and request of the twenty (20) day extension, the Chief Judge shall investigate the referral or direct appropriate Tribal personnel to assist in the investigation. The investigation shall include the following:

- (1) Contact appropriate sources to determine the child's membership status of the Tribes;
- (2) Investigate and determine whether the child custody referral is one properly referred to the Tribes under the Indian Child Welfare Act;
- (3) Contact the parent or custodian of the child, and notify them of the fact of referral to the Tribes and the Tribes' considering transfer of the case to Tribal jurisdiction. Contact shall be made by personal delivery of the notice of the parent or the custodian, where practicable. Where such personal service is not practicable, then notice shall be given by registered mail with return receipt requested;
- (4) Contact social, medical, legal, or other sources to obtain necessary information regarding the circumstances of the case;
- (5) Make a decision as to whether the transfer of the case would be appropriate and in the best interests of this child. The Court may consider the past and present residences of the child, the child or the child's family ties with the Tribes or the Tribal community, any special conditions of the child in the ability of Tribal or reservation facilities to deal with such conditions, whether jurisdiction should be taken before or after the adjudication stage of the proceedings, considering the location of witnesses, documents, and other evidence and the existence of subpoena and other process limitations of Tribal jurisdictions;

(6) Continuity in the child's surroundings and emotional contact;

(7) The wishes of the child's family, extended family, and other interested persons;

(8) Notify the parent, guardian, or custodian of the child, and all other interested persons having contacted the Tribal Court, of the decision regarding transfer. Notification to parent, guardian, or custodian shall be by registered mail, return receipt requested.

(9) If the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court shall determine that the transfer is in the best interests of the child, the said Chief Judge shall file or cause to be filed a petition with the referring Court for transfer of jurisdiction to the Tribal Court. In addition, the Court shall cause to be filed with the referring Court a notice of willingness to accept jurisdiction, such affidavits, consents of parent or parents, and other documentation as may be necessary.

(10) Determine whether, without transfer, the Court should intervene in the proceedings in the referring Court, and, if so, cause such intervention procedures to be initiated.

(11) The Chief Judge of the Tribal Court shall complete the above duties within ten (10) days after receiving the notice of referral, unless request has been made, in writing by registered mail, for the twenty (20) day extension as provided in the Indian Child Welfare Act.

3-2-506. Proceedings upon transfer. When transfer of a case has been made by a referring Court, the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court shall immediately notify Tribal Social Services and a petition under this Chapter shall be filed at the earliest practicable date. (Rev. 4-15-03)

CHAPTER 4
MENTAL HEALTH

Part 1

Statement of Policy, Purpose and Definitions

3-4-101. Statement of Policy. It is the policy of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes to promote the health, safety, culture, and general welfare of the Tribal Community; to recognize mental illness as a disease subject to a variety of treatment alternatives and choices; and to recognize that the person who has a mental illness is entitled to the opportunity to heal in the least restrictive and most culturally relevant environment.

3-4-102. Purpose. The purpose of this part of the Chapter is to:

- (1) secure each person who may be mentally ill, seriously mentally ill or suffering from a mental disorder such care and treatment as will be suited to the needs of the person and to insure that such care and treatment are skillfully and humanely administered with full respect for the person's dignity and personal and cultural integrity;
- (2) accomplish this goal whenever possible in a community-based setting;
- (3) accomplish this goal in an institutionalized setting only when less restrictive alternatives are unavailable or inadequate and only when a person is seriously mentally ill as to require institutionalized care; and
- (4) assure that due process of law is accorded any person coming under the provisions of this Chapter. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-4-103. Definitions. For the following purposes of this Chapter, the following definitions will apply:

- (1) "Emergency situation" means a situation in which any person is in imminent danger of death or bodily harm from the activity of a person who appears to be seriously mentally ill.
- (2) "Mental disorder" means any organic, mental, or emotional impairment which has substantial adverse effects on an individual's cognitive or volitional functions.
- (3) "Mental health facility" or "facility" means a public hospital or licensed private hospital which is equipped and staffed to provide treatment for persons with mental disorders or a community mental health center or any mental health clinic or treatment center approved by the Tribes. No correctional institution or facility or jail may be used as a mental health facility within the meaning of this part.
- (4) "Mentally ill" means suffering from a mental disorder which has not resulted in self-inflicted injury or injury to others or the imminent threat thereof but which:
 - (a) has resulted in behavior that creates serious difficulty in protecting the person's life or health even with the available assistance of family, friends, or others;
 - (b) is treatable, with a reasonable prospect of success and is consistent with the least restrictive course of treatment as provided in this code, at or through the facility to which the person is to be committed;
 - (c) has deprived the person of the capacity to make an informed decision concerning treatment;
 - (d) has resulted in the person's refusing or being unable to consent to voluntary admission for treatment; and

(e) poses a significant risk of the person's becoming seriously mentally ill, within the meaning of this section, or will, if untreated, predictably result in further serious deterioration in the mental condition of the person. Predictability may be established by the patient's medical history.

(5) "Seriously mentally ill" means suffering from a mental disorder which has resulted in self-inflicted injury or injury to others or the imminent threat thereof or which has deprived the person afflicted of the ability to protect his or her life or health. For this purpose, injury means physical injury. No person may be involuntarily committed to a mental health facility or detained for evaluation and treatment because he or she is an epileptic, developmentally disabled, senile or suffering from a mental disorder, unless that condition causes the person to be seriously mentally ill.

Elders are recognized by the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes as one of the most valued resources and custodians of the Tribes' history, culture and tradition. It is in the interest of the health, safety, and welfare of the Tribes and its people to provide procedures for protecting elder and vulnerable adult abuse. This Chapter shall be liberally interpreted and implemented in the least restrictive manner possible in order to achieve its purpose. (Rev. 4-15-03)

3-5-102. Eligibility. Adult protective services may be provided to any elder or vulnerable adult identified as being at risk of abuse, neglect, sexual abuse, and/or exploitation. Adult protective services are available on a voluntary and time-limited basis for those elders or vulnerable adults not declared incapacitated by the Tribal Court or a court of competent jurisdiction. Adult Protective Services may be court-ordered for those persons legally determined to be unable to care for themselves and/or to lack the capacity to understand the nature of the services offered.

3-5-103. Civil nature of Chapter. The provisions of this Chapter are civil and regulatory in nature and are intended to provide assistance and protection to elders and vulnerable adults who may be at risk of abuse, sexual abuse, neglect, and/or exploitation. (4) Adult protective services will be provided based on the least restrictive alternative, and shall involve the input of the elder/vulnerable adult to the extent that said person is able.

(5) Adult protective service intervention will only be maintained until the risk is reduced or removed, or alternatively, until the elder or vulnerable adult declines to accept services provided that said elder or vulnerable adult is able to care for himself or herself and/or has the capacity to understand the nature of the services offered.

(6) An elder or vulnerable adult and/or caretaker shall be informed about an investigation of elder or vulnerable adult abuse, neglect or exploitation before it begins unless an emergency situation exists, in which case the elder or

(f) If a guardianship or conservatorship over any or all of the financial affairs is requested, then a general description of the income or other financial resources or personal property of the elder or vulnerable adult;

(g) The names, addresses and relationship of the elder's or vulnerable adult's children, so long as such information is reasonably available, and any brothers, sisters, grandchildren or other parties who have been significantly involved in the care of the elder or vulnerable adult during the past three years;

(h) Whether a guardian has been appointed for the elder or vulnerable in any other tribal or state proceeding;

(i) The requested length of time for which the petitioner is requesting the guardianship or conservatorship; and

(j) List any other person(s) and relationship to the elder or vulnerable adult, if any, who may be available to share the guardianship responsibilities with the petitioner.

(3) Service of Petition and Notice of Hearing.

(a) Before appointing a guardian or conservator, a notice of hearing and a copy of the petition shall be given personally to the elder or vulnerable adult over whom the guardianship or conservatorship is requested. A certificate of personal service shall be filed with the Tribal Court.

(b) Notice and a copy of the petition shall be personally given to the elder or vulnerable adult's spouse residing within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation, if any, unless such person waives, in writing, the personal service of notice and petition.

(c) By first-class United States mail, notice and a copy of the petition shall be given to: all children of the elder or vulnerable adult; the spouse of the elder or vulnerable adult if residing off the Flathead Reservation; any other person with whom the elder or vulnerable adult is living with; and the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribal Health and Human Services.

(d) The Tribal Court, upon receipt of a petition for guardianship or conservatorship, shall appoint an advocate to represent the elder or vulnerable adult, a physician to examine the elder or vulnerable adult for the purposes of determining capacity, and a visitor.

(e) A hearing on the petition shall be held not less than twenty and not more than forty days from the service of the notice and petition on the elder or vulnerable adult over whom the guardianship is requested. Following the hearing, the Court may appoint a full or limited guardian if it is satisfied that the person for whom the guardianship is sought is incapacitated and that judicial intervention in his/her personal freedom of action and decision is necessary to meet the essential requirements for health and safety.

(f) In the event of an emergency, where serious harm to the allegedly incapacitated elder's or vulnerable adult's health or property is likely to occur before a hearing can be held, the Court may appoint with or without notice a temporary guardian for the allegedly incapacitated elder or vulnerable adult for a specified period not to exceed six (6) months. The Court may not invest a temporary guardian with more powers than are required by the circumstances necessitating the appointment.

(g) Any guardian shall advise the Court by written report at least once a year or upon request of the Court on the parties involved or the actions of the guardian on behalf of the elder's or vulnerable adult's person or estate..

(h) No guardian may dispose of any of the elder's or vulnerable adult's property without advance approval from the Court.

3-5-113. Adult protection team. (1) Composition. The Adult Protection Team shall be comprised of a multi-disciplinary group of professionals representing various tribal disciplines and agencies who meet on a regular basis to assist in developing a case plan and coordination of protective services for elder's and vulnerable adult's who are victims of abuse, neglect, or exploitation.

(2) Purpose. The Adult Protection Team shall be charged with the responsibility of helping an elder or vulnerable adult resolve any civil conflict or problems that may prevent the proper care, treatment, and respect for the elder or vulnerable adult involved. The Adult Protection Team may suggest and encourage resolutions based on tribal custom and tradition.

(3) Appointment.

(a) The Adult Protection Team shall be chosen by the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribal Council;

(b) The Adult Protection Team shall be comprised of at least five people, but not more than seven (7) people; and

(c) The Adult Protection Team shall be composed of individuals who are knowledgeable in one or more of the following areas:

(i) Tribal culture;

(ii) Tribal Health and Human Services available to elders/vulnerable adults;

(iii) Legal remedies;

(iv) Available medical services; and

(v) Tribal administrative procedure.

(4) Adult Protection Team Time Limits. If the Adult Protection Team determines that it cannot be effective in helping resolve the elder or vulnerable adult's situation, it shall refer the matter back to the Designated Tribal Authority within 90 days of receipt of the case.

(5) Confidentiality. The case records and personal information regarding any elder or vulnerable adult that a member of the team provides shall be kept confidential and shall be used only by team members for the purpose of assessing the needs of the elder or vulnerable adult, and developing and monitoring a protective services plan.

3-5-114. Regulations. The Designated Tribal Authority shall coordinate with the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribal Health and Human Services and shall submit proposed rules and regulations to the Tribal Council of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes for adoption.

3-5-115. Severability. If any provision or application of this Chapter is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions or application thereof.

TITLE IV

CHAPTER 1

CIVIL ACTIONS, LIMITATIONS, AND LIABILITY

Part 1

Civil Actions

4-1-101. No merger of civil and criminal actions. Actions are of two kinds, civil and criminal. A civil action is prosecuted by one party against another for the enforcement or protection of a right or the redress or prevention of a wrong. Title II, above, defines and provides for the prosecution of a criminal action. When the violation of a right admits of both a civil and criminal remedy, the right to prosecute the one is not merged in the other.

4-1-102. Availability of civil actions. (1) Civil actions are those causes, within the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court, originating in:

(a) Tribal law, including Tribal custom or tradition as defined by statute or by Tribal Court rule or decision,

(b) common law or equity, if not inconsistent with Tribal law, and

(c) federal or Montana statute, if the Tribal Court has the power to effectuate the statutory remedies, PROVIDED that

(i) if the cause is one accepted by the United States for litigation in federal court under the Federal Tort Claims Act, it may not be brought in Tribal Court,

(ii) if state court or federal court jurisdiction over the cause is concurrent with that of the Tribal Court and

(A) the cause is pending in the courts of the foreign jurisdiction, the Tribal Court shall dismiss any complaint with the same parties and raising the same issues as the foreign pending cause, or

(B) the cause was filed first or solely with the Tribal Court, but the interests of justice, of the parties, of judicial economy, and of comity are, in the judgment of the Court, paramount, the Tribal Court may stay or dismiss the action in deference to the more appropriate or convenient court of the foreign jurisdiction.

(2) If the cause arising under a federal or Montana statute replaces a common law or equitable cause in the law of such jurisdiction, the statutory rights and remedies will govern.

4-1-103. Bases for civil actions. A civil action arises out of:

(1) an obligation, which is a legal duty by which one person is bound to do nor not to do a certain thing and arises from contract or operation of law; or

(2) an injury, which may be to a person or to property. An injury to property consists in depriving its owner of the benefit of it, which is done by taking, withholding, deteriorating, or destroying it. Every other injury is an injury to the person.

4-1-104. Laws applicable in civil actions. (1) In all civil actions, the Tribal Court shall first apply the applicable laws, Ordinances, customs and usages of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes and then shall apply applicable laws of the United States and authorized regulations of the Department of the Interior. Where doubt arises as to customs and usages of the Tribes, the Tribal Court may request the advice of the appropriate committee which is recognized in the community as being familiar with such customs and usages. Any matter not covered by Ordinances, customs and usages of the Tribes or by applicable federal laws and regulations may be decided by the Court according to the laws of the State of Montana.

(2) Pursuant to 25 U.S.C.A. 483a(a), foreclosure or sale pursuant to terms of a mortgage or deed of trust to land shall be in accordance with Title 71, Chapter 1, Part 2, of the Montana Code Annotated, with the exception that under Tribal law a 90 day period to redeem shall be available to debtors in foreclosure actions. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-1-105. When action accrues and commences. For the purposes of statutes relating to the time within which an action must be commenced:

(1) a claim or cause of action accrues when all elements of the claim or cause exist or have occurred and the right to maintain an action on the claim is complete; and

(2) an action is commenced when the complaint is filed.

4-1-106. Survival of cause of action and action for wrongful death. (1) An action, cause of action, or defense does not abate because of the death or disability of a party or transfer of any interest therein, but whenever the cause of action or defense arose in favor of such party prior to his or her death or disability or transfer of interest, it survives and may be maintained by his or her successors in interest. If the action has not been begun or defense interposed, it may be commenced in the name of his or her successors in interest.

(2) When injuries to and the death of one person are caused by the wrongful act or neglect of another, the personal representative of the decedent's estate may maintain an action for damages against the person causing the death or, if such person be employed by another person who is responsible for his or her conduct, then also against such person.

(3) Actions brought under this section must be combined in one legal action, and any element of damages may be recovered only once.

4-1-107. Action by parent or guardian for injury to child or ward. Either parent may maintain an action for an injury to a minor child and a guardian for injury to a ward when such injury is caused by the wrongful act or neglect of another. Such action may be maintained against the person causing the injury or, if such person is employed by another person who is responsible for his conduct, also against such other person. If a parent or guardian brings such an action on behalf of a child, the statute of limitations set out in section 4-1-202(1) is not tolled during the child's minority.

Part 2

Statutes of Limitation

4-1-201. Period of limitation on civil actions. (1) Except as otherwise provided by law, a civil action must be commenced within three calendar years of the time the cause of action accrued.

(2) Failure to commence an action within the time provided is a defense that may be waived by a party if not raised in the party's first pleading.

(3) Unless otherwise provided by statute, the period of limitation begins when the claim or cause of action accrues. Lack of knowledge of the claim or cause of action, or of its accrual, by the party to whom it has accrued does not postpone the beginning of the period of limitation.

(4) Where a right exists but a demand is necessary to entitle a person to maintain an action, the time within which the action must be commenced must be computed from the time when the demand is made, except that where the right grows out of the receipt or detention of money or property by an agent, trustee, attorney, or other person acting in a fiduciary capacity, the time must be computed from the time when the person having the right to make the demand has actual knowledge of the facts upon which that right depends.

(5) The period of limitation does not begin on any claim or cause of action for an injury to person or property until the facts constituting the claim have been discovered or, in the exercise of due diligence, should have been discovered by the injured party if:

(a) the facts constituting the claim are by their nature concealed or self-concealing; or

(b) before, during, or after the act causing the injury, the defendant has taken action which prevents the injured party from discovering the injury or its cause.

4-1-202. Circumstances which extend period of limitation. The period of limitation is extended in the following circumstances:

(1) If a person entitled to bring an action is, at the time the cause of action accrues, a minor, seriously mentally ill, or imprisoned on a criminal charge or under a sentence for a term less than for life, the time of such disability is not a part of the time limited for commencing the action. However, the time so limited cannot be extended more than 6 years by any such disability except minority. No person may avail himself of a disability unless it existed when his or her right of action accrued.

(2) When a cause of action accrues against a person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court but who is not found within the Flathead Reservation and cannot be served with process, the action may be commenced within three years after the defendant's return to the Reservation. But if, after the cause of action accrues a defendant departs from the Reservation and cannot be served with process, the time of his absence is not part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

(3) If a person entitled to bring an action dies before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof and the cause of action survives, an action may be commenced by the personal representative after the expiration of that time and within one year from the person's death. If a person against whom an action may be brought dies before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof and the cause of action survives, an action may be commenced against the personal representative after the expiration of that time and within one year after the appointment of the personal representative.

(4) When the commencement of an action is stayed by injunction or other order of the court or judge or statutory prohibition, the time of the continuance of the injunction or prohibition is not part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

(5) A written acknowledgment, signed by the party to be charged thereby, or a witnessed oral acknowledgment, or the part payment of a debt is sufficient evidence to cause the statute of limitations to begin running anew. Part payment is any payment of principal or interest.

Liability

4-1-301. Liability for negligence as well as willful acts. Except as otherwise provided by law, everyone is responsible not only for the results of his willful acts but also for an injury occasioned to another by his want of ordinary care or skill in the management of his property or person except so far as the latter has willfully or by want of ordinary care brought the injury upon himself or herself.

4-1-302. Comparative negligence. Contributory negligence shall not bar recovery in an action by any person or his legal representative to recover damages for negligence resulting in death or injury to person or property if such negligence was not greater than the negligence of the person or the combined negligence of all persons against whom recovery is sought, but any damages allowed shall be diminished in proportion to the amount of negligence of the person recovering.

4-1-303. Products liability. (1) A person (including a manufacturer, wholesaler, or retailer) who sells a product in a defective condition unreasonably dangerous to a user or consumer or to the property of a user or consumer is liable for physical harm caused by the product to the ultimate user or consumer or to his property if:

(a) the manufacturer, wholesaler, or retailer, hereafter identified as "the seller", is engaged in the business of selling such a product; and

(b) the product is expected to and does reach the user or consumer without substantial change in the condition in which it is sold, except that this subsection does not apply to a claim for relief based upon improper product design.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) apply even if:

(a) the seller exercised all possible care in the preparation and sale of the product; and

(b) the user or consumer did not buy the product from or enter into any contractual relation with the seller.

(3) Except as provided in this subsection, contributory negligence is not a defense to the liability of a seller, based on strict liability in tort, for personal injury or property damage caused by a defectively manufactured or defectively designed product. A seller named as defendant in an action based on strict liability in tort for damages to person or property caused by a defectively designed or defectively manufactured product may assert the following affirmative defenses against the user or consumer, the legal representative of the user or consumer, or any person claiming damages by reason of injury to the user or consumer:

(a) the user or consumer of the product discovered the defect or the defect was open and obvious and the user or consumer unreasonably made use of the product and was injured by it; or

(b) the product was unreasonably misused by the user or consumer and such misuse caused or contributed to the injury.

(4) The affirmative defenses referred to in subsection (3) of this Section mitigate or bar recovery and must be applied in accordance with the principles of comparative negligence.

Part 4

Tribal Governmental Immunity

4-1-401 Immunity from suit. The Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, as a sovereign government and landowner, and its elected Tribal Council in either their official or personal capacity, as well as Tribal officers, agents and employees acting within the scope of their authority, share sovereign immunity from suit and may not be made parties defendant to a lawsuit without the express, written consent of the Tribal Council. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-1-402 Limited waivers of immunity. (1) The Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, the Tribal Council, as well as its officers, agents and employees may be made a party defendant in a lawsuit in Tribal Court in the following circumstances:

(a) when a claim for injunctive, declaratory or mandamus relief is properly alleged for an abridgment or infringement by an action of Tribal government of any civil or constitutional right of an individual arising under the Tribal Constitution and Bylaws or the Indian Civil Rights Act (25 U.S.C. § 1302);

(b) when the Tribal Council enacts a Resolution or Ordinance providing a waiver of sovereign immunity for the purposes described therein or for judicial review of governmental implementation of the Resolution or Ordinance;

(c) when the Tribal Council authorizes intervention as a party in a lawsuit between other parties, but such authorization does not waive immunity to a counter-claim;

(d) when the Tribal Council enters into a written agreement with the United States pursuant to a federal law that requires the Tribes to purchase liability insurance, and thereby consents to a waiver of immunity to the policy limits;

(e) when the Tribal Council enters into a written agreement expressly waiving immunity; or

(f) when an officer, agent or employee of the Tribes, acting within the scope of his or her authority, is alleged to have caused serious personal injury or death to another by negligently breaching a duty of care owed to the other.

(2) Business corporations owned, in whole or in part, by the Tribes are authorized to sue and be sued according to the term of their articles of incorporation or charter. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Part 5

Defense and Indemnification of Tribal Officers, Agents and Employees

4-1-501. Purpose. The purpose of this Part is to provide for the defense and indemnification of Tribal Council members, Tribal officers, agents, and employees civilly sued for their actions taken within the course and scope of their employment or official duties. As used hereafter in this Part, "employee" means Tribal Council members, Tribal officers, agents, and employees, but shall not mean a person or other legal entity while acting in the capacity of an independent contractor under contract to the Tribes.

4-1-502. Scope. In a noncriminal action brought against any employee for a negligent act, error, or omission, including alleged violations of any civil or constitutional right arising under the Tribal Constitution and Bylaws or the Indian Civil Rights Act, 25 U.S.C. § 1302, or other actionable conduct committed while acting within the course and scope of the employee's office or employment, the Tribes, except as provided in 4-1-506, shall defend the action on behalf of the employee and indemnify employee.

4-1-503. Procedure. Upon receiving service of a summons and complaint in a noncriminal action against him or her, the employee shall give prompt written notice to the supervisor, or to the Tribal Council in the case of elected or appointed employees, requesting a defense to the action. Except as provided in 4-1-506, the Tribes shall offer a defense to the action on behalf of the employee. The defense may consist of a defense provided directly by the Tribes. Within 10 days after receipt of notice, the Tribes shall notify the employee as to whether they will provide a direct defense. If the Tribes refuse or are unable to provide a direct defense, the defendant employee may retain other legal counsel. Except as provided in 4-1-506, the Tribes shall pay all reasonable expenses relating to the retained defense and pay any judgment for damages entered in the action that may be otherwise payable hereunder.

4-1-504. Indemnification. In any noncriminal action in which a Tribal government employee is a party defendant, the Tribes shall indemnify the employee for any money judgments or legal expenses, including attorney fees, either incurred by the employee or awarded to the claimant or both, to which the employee may be subject as a result of the suit, unless the employee's conduct falls within the exclusions provided in 4-1-506.

4-1-505. Bar to other actions on same subject. Recovery from the Tribes under the provisions of this Title constitutes a complete bar to any action or recovery of damages by the claimant, by reason of the same subject matter, against the employee whose negligence or wrongful act, error or omission or other actionable conduct gave rise to the claim. In any such action against the Tribes, the employee whose conduct gave rise to the suit in whole or in part is immune from liability for the same subject matter if the Tribes acknowledge or are bound by a judicial determination that the conduct upon which the claim is brought arises out of the course and scope of the employee's employment, unless the claim constitutes an exclusion provided in (b) through (d) of 4-1-506.

4-1-506. Conduct not indemnified. In a noncriminal action in which a Tribal employee is a party defendant, the Tribes shall neither defend nor indemnify the employee for any money judgment or legal expenses, including attorney fees, to which the employee may be subject as a result of the suit if a judicial determination is made that:

- (a) the conduct upon which the claim is based constitutes oppression, fraud, or malice, or for any other reason does not arise out of the course and scope of the employee's employment;
- (b) the conduct of the employee constitutes a criminal offense;
- (c) the employee compromised or settled the claim without the consent of the Tribes; or
- (d) the employee did not cooperate in the defense of the case.

4-1-507. Disputed exclusions. If no judicial determination has been made applying the exclusions described in 4-1-506, the Tribes may determine whether those exclusions apply. If there is a dispute as to whether the exclusions should apply and the Tribes decide they must clarify their obligation to the employee arising under this section by commencing declaratory judgment action or other legal action, the Tribes shall provide a defense or assume the cost of the defense of the employee until a final judgment is rendered in such action holding that the Tribes had no obligation to defend the employee.

CHAPTER 2

CIVIL REMEDIES

Part 1

Traditional Remedies

4-2-101. When available. Where the relief requested by a party includes a traditional remedy or penalty and

(1) all parties are Tribal members and all partake of the cultural heritage of the same tribe or band forming a part of the Confederated Tribes, or

(2) all parties consent to the award of traditional remedies to the prevailing party, the court may grant the relief requested or any traditional remedy, statutory remedy, or combination of traditional and statutory remedies that it finds to be in the interests of justice.

4-2-102. Objection to traditional relief. If a complaint or counterclaim prays for the award of a traditional remedy or penalty, an opposing party may move in the first responsive pleading to strike or amend the prayer on grounds that the relief requested is not, in fact, traditional, or, if traditional, inappropriate to relieve the injury complained of. Such motion shall be treated in the same manner as other pretrial motions and may be the subject of an evidentiary hearing if requested by a party or deemed advisable by the court.

Part 2

Damages

4-2-201. Detriment defined. Detriment is a loss or harm suffered to person or property.

4-2-202. Right to compensatory damages. Every person who suffers detriment from the unlawful act or omission of another may recover from the person at fault a compensation in money, which is called damages. Damages must, in all cases, be reasonable.

4-2-203. Right to damages for future detriment. Damages may be awarded in a judicial proceeding for detriment resulting after the commencement of the action and certain to result in the future.

4-2-204. Limitation on tort recovery from Tribes and Tribally owned corporations.

(1) General provisions.

(a) In all instances, damages must be reasonable.

(b) Damages which are not specifically quantifiable cannot be recovered.

(c) Recovery is prohibited for emotional or mental distress.

(d) Recovery under any implied covenants is prohibited.

(e) Monetary judgments against officers, agents or employees of the Tribal government acting within the scope of their authority shall be treated as a judgment against the Tribes and shall be satisfied by the Tribal government, subject to the availability of funds in the Tribal treasury.

(2) Limitation on tort recovery. Except as may otherwise provided by law, when the government of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes has consented that it or its officials, agents, or employees may be named a party defendant in a lawsuit sounding in tort, or when a corporation in which the tribes are a owner is found liable under the terms of this ordinance, the damages available to a prevailing claimant are limited as follows:

(a) No punitive or exemplary damages may be recovered, except as provided by the Tribes' Wrongful Discharge law.

(b) For claims arising from a single transaction or occurrence, a plaintiff may not recover a total compensatory sum greater than Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) or the maximum sum payable by an insurer under any policy required by federal law, whichever is less.

(c) Multiple plaintiffs whose claims arise from one transaction or occurrence may not recover a compensatory sum greater than Seven Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000) or the maximum sum payable by an insurer under an policy required by federal law, whichever is less.

(3) Interest on Judgments. In an action for damages not arising in contract, the award of interest on a judgment may be given at the discretion of the Court, but in no case shall interest exceed ten percent (10%) per annum on any unpaid balance. Interest shall commence accruing upon the date of final judgment.

(4) Severability. If any provision of this Ordinance, or the applicability thereof, is found to be ineffective by a court of final recourse of a competent jurisdiction after all parties have been heard, the remainder of this Ordinance shall not be affected thereby. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-2-205. Nominal damages when no appreciable detriment. When a breach of duty has caused no appreciable detriment to the party affected, the party may yet recover nominal damages.

4-2-206. Measures of particular damages. (1) no person can recover a greater amount in damages for the breach of an obligation that he could have gained by the full performance thereof on both sides unless a greater recovery is specified by law.

(2) The value of an instrument in writing is presumed to be equal to that of the property to which it entitles the owner.

(3) Where the cost of repairing a motor vehicle exceeds its value, the measure of damages is the actual replacement value of the vehicle. Actual replacement value is the actual cash value of the vehicle immediately prior to the damage.

(4) For breach of contract, the measure of damages, except when otherwise provided by law, is the amount which will compensate the party aggrieved for all the detriment which was proximately caused thereby or in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom. Damages which are not clearly ascertainable in their nature and origin cannot be recovered for a breach of contract. Recovery is prohibited for emotional or mental distress alleged to be caused by a breach of contract.

(5) The detriment caused by the breach of an obligation to pay money only is deemed to be the amount due by the terms of the obligation with interest thereon.

(6) For the breach of an obligation not arising from contract, the measure of damages, except as otherwise expressly provided by statute, is the amount which will compensate for all the detriment proximately caused thereby, whether it could have been anticipated or not.

(7) The detriment caused by the wrongful occupation of real property is deemed to be the value of the use of the property for the time of the occupation, not exceeding the 5 years next preceding the commencement of the action, and the costs of recovering possession.

(8) The detriment caused by the wrongful conversion of personal property is presumed to be the value of the property at the time of its conversion with the interest from that time and a fair compensation for the time and money properly expended in pursuit of the property.

4-2-207. Collateral source reductions in actions arising from bodily injury or death. (1) As used in this Section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Collateral source" means a payment for something that is later included in a tort award and which is made to or for the benefit of a plaintiff or is otherwise available to the plaintiff:

(i) for medical expenses, hospitalization, home care, or disability payments under the federal Social Security Act, the Indian Health Care Act, or other federal, state, or Tribal law or program to implement such law;

(ii) under any health or disability insurance or automobile accident insurance that provides health benefits or income disability coverage, and any other similar insurance benefits available to the plaintiff, except life insurance;

(iii) under any contract or agreement of any person, group, organization, partnership, or corporation to provide, pay for, or reimburse the costs of hospital, medical, dental, or other health care services, except gifts or gratuitous contributions of assistance;

(iv) any contractual or voluntary wage continuation plan provided by an employer or other system intended to provide wages during a period of disability; and

(v) any other source, except the assets of the plaintiff or his or her immediate family.

(b) "Person" includes individuals, corporations, government entities, associations, firms, partnerships, and any other entity or aggregate of individuals.

(c) "Plaintiff" means a person who alleges that he or she sustained bodily injury, or on whose behalf recovery for bodily injury or death is sought, or who would have a beneficial, legal, or equitable interest in a recovery. The term includes a legal representative, a person with a wrongful death or surviving cause of action, a person seeking recovery on a claim for loss of consortium, society, assistance, companionship, or services, and any other person whose right of recovery or whose claim or status is derivative of one who has sustained bodily injury or death.

(2) In an action arising from bodily injury or death, when the total award against all defendants is in excess of $10,000 and the plaintiff will be fully compensated for his damages, exclusive of court costs and attorney fees, a plaintiff's recovery must be reduced by any amount paid or payable from a collateral source.

(3) The jury shall determine its award without consideration of any collateral sources. After the jury determines its award, reduction of the award must be made by the trial judge at a hearing and upon a separate submission of evidence relevant to the existence and amount of collateral sources. Evidence is admissible at the hearing to show that compensable damages awarded to the plaintiff have been paid from a collateral source or that the plaintiff has been or may be reimbursed from a collateral source.

4-2-208. Right to interest. Every person who is entitled to recover damages is entitled also to recover interest thereon, except that no interest may be had in actions for recovery of damages arising from injury to person or property brought against a governmental entity. Interest accrues from the date that the right to recovery vests except during such time as the debtor is prevented by law or by the act of the creditor from paying the debt.

4-2-209. Interest on torts. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, in an action for recovery on an injury, a prevailing claimant is entitled to interest at a rate of 10% on a recovery of damages in a sum certain.

(2) Interest may not be had on damages not capable of being made certain by calculation, including but not limited to future damages, until such damages are incurred and damages for

(a) pain and suffering

(b) injury to credit, reputation, or financial standing;

(c) mental anguish or suffering;

(d) punitive damages;

(e) loss of established way of life;

(f) loss of consortium; and

(g) attorney fees.

(3) If a jury is the trier of fact, it is to be advised by the court that the court will determine the amount of prejudgment interest due, if any, on a judgment.

4-2-210. Interest on contracts. A rate of interest, not to exceed 21%, agreed to by contract remains chargeable after a breach until the contract is superseded by a judgment or other new obligation. If no rate is stipulated, the trier of fact may award post judgment interest to the prevailing party at a rate of 10%.

4-2-211. When award of interest discretionary. In an action for the breach of an obligation not arising from contract and in every case of oppression, fraud, or malice, interest may be given in the discretion of the trier of fact.

4-2-212. Waiver of interest by accepting principal. Accepting payment of the whole principal waives all claim to interest.

4-2-213. Punitive damages. A trier of fact may award, in addition to compensatory damages, reasonable punitive damages for the sake of example and for the purpose of punishing a defendant, subject to the following exclusions and conditions:

- (1) Punitive damages may be expressly prohibited or limited by statute;
- (2) Punitive damages may not be recovered in any action arising from a contract, except that they are not prohibited in a products liability action;
- (3) Punitive damages may not be recovered, except as otherwise provided by statute, in any action against a governmental entity;
- (4) Punitive damages may not be recovered in any action unless the trier of fact has found that the defendant committed actual fraud or acted with actual malice.
 - (a) A defendant acts with actual malice if he or she has knowledge of facts or intentionally disregards facts that create a high probability of injury to the plaintiff and deliberately proceeds to act in conscious or intentional disregard of, or indifference to, the high probability of injury to the plaintiff.
 - (b) A defendant commits actual fraud for purposes of this section when the plaintiff has a right to rely on the representation of the defendant and suffers injury as a result of that reliance and if the defendant:
 - (i) makes a representation with knowledge of its falsity; or
 - (ii) conceals a material fact with the purpose of depriving the plaintiff of property or legal rights or otherwise causing injury.
- (5) All elements of the claim for punitive damages must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. Clear and convincing evidence means evidence in which there is no serious or substantial doubt about the correctness of the conclusions drawn from the evidence. It is more than a preponderance of the evidence, but less than beyond a reasonable doubt.
- (6) After liability for punitive damages is determined by the trier of fact,
 - (a) if by a jury, the amount of damages must be determined by the jury in an immediate, separate proceeding, at which evidence of a defendant's financial affairs, financial condition, and net worth is admissible and must be considered,
 - (b) if by a judge, the judge shall clearly state his reasons for making the award in findings of fact and conclusions of law, demonstrating consideration of each of the following matters:
 - (i) the nature and reprehensibility of the defendant's wrongdoing;
 - (ii) the extent of the defendant's wrongdoing;
 - (iii) the intent of the defendant in committing the wrong;

- (iv) the profitability of the defendant's wrongdoing, if applicable;
 - (v) the amount of actual damages awarded by the jury;
 - (vi) the defendant's net worth;
 - (vii) potential or prior criminal sanctions against the defendant based upon the same wrongful act; and
 - (viii) any other circumstances that may operate to increase or reduce, without wholly defeating, punitive damages.
- (c) The judge shall review a jury award of punitive damages, giving consideration to each of the matters listed in subsection (6)(b) of this Section. If, after review, the judge determines that the jury award of punitive damages should be increased or decreased, he may do so. The judge shall clearly state his reasons for increasing, decreasing, or not increasing or decreasing the punitive damages award of the jury in findings of fact and conclusions of law, demonstrating consideration of each of the factors listed in subsection (6)(b) of this Section.

Part 3

Specific Performance of Obligations

4-2-301. When specific performance may be required. Specific relief may be given

- (1) when such relief could also be granted as a traditional remedy as provided in Sections 4-2-101 and 4-2-102, and
- (2) as provided in this Part.

4-2-302. When specific performance of an obligation may be compelled. The specific performance of an obligation may be compelled when:

- (1) the act to be done is in the performance, wholly or partly, of an express trust;
- (2) the act to be done is such that pecuniary compensation for its nonperformance would not afford adequate relief;
- (3) it would be extremely difficult to ascertain the actual damage caused by the nonperformance of the act to be done; or
- (4) it has been expressly agreed in writing by the parties to the contract that specific performance may be required by either party or that damages shall not be considered adequate relief.

4-2-303. Obligations which cannot be specifically enforced. The following obligations cannot be specifically enforced:

- (1) an obligation to render personal service or to employ another in the rendering of personal service;
- (2) an agreement to marry or live with another;
- (3) an agreement to perform an act which the party has no power to perform lawfully when required to do so;
- (4) an agreement to procure the act or consent of any third person; or
- (5) an agreement the terms of which are too ambiguous to ascertain the precise act which is to be done.

4-2-304. Right to specific performance mutual. When either of the parties to an obligation is entitled to a specific performance thereof, the other party is also entitled to it, together with full compensation for any want of entire performance by the other party.

4-2-305. Parties who cannot be compelled to perform. Specific performance cannot be enforced against a party to a contract in any of the following cases:

- (1) if he or she has not received adequate consideration for the contract;
- (2) if it is not, as to him or her, just and reasonable; or
- (3) if the party's assent was
 - (a) obtained by the misrepresentations, concealment, circumvention, or unfair practices of any party to whom performance would become due under the contract or by any promise of such party which has not been substantially fulfilled, or

(b) given under the influence of mistake, misapprehension, or surprise.

4-2-306. Parties who cannot obtain specific performance. Specific performance cannot be enforced in favor of a party who has not fully and fairly performed all the conditions precedent on his or her part to the obligation of the other party except where his or her failure to perform is only partial and either entirely immaterial or capable of being fully compensated, in which case specific performance may be compelled upon full compensation being made for the default.

Part 4

Prejudgment Attachment

4-2-401. Cases in which property may be attached. (1) Property may be attached in an action upon a contract, express or implied for the direct payment of money where the contract

(a) is not secured; or

(b) was originally secured and the security has, without any act of the plaintiff or the person to whom the security was given, become valueless.

4-2-402. Property subject to attachment. All property within the Flathead Reservation of the defendant not exempt from execution may be attached and, if judgment is recovered, sold to satisfy the judgment and execution. Property exempt from execution is exempt from attachment.

4-2-403. Court record not public until writ returned. In cases involving attachment, the Clerk of Court must not make public the fact of the filing of the complaint or the issuing of a writ of attachment until after the filing of return of service of attachment.

4-2-404. Attachment book to be kept by Clerk of Court. There must be kept by the Clerk of Court a book called the "attachment book", in which must be entered, in alphabetical order, the names of all persons against whom any writ or notice of attachment has been filed. There must also be entered in said book the time such writ or notice was filed.

4-2-405. Time for issuance of writ--notice. A writ to attach the property of the defendant may be issued by the judge assigned to the case at the time of or after issuing summons and before answer, on approving an affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff showing the facts required in section 4-2-401, 4-2-406, and, if applicable, 4-2-407, and an undertaking as provided in section 4-2-408; and when the party seeking attachment has made a prima facie showing

(1) in the case of real property, of his or her right to attachment and the necessity for seizure;

(2) in the case of personal property,

(a) of his or her right to attachment and the necessity for seizure at a show cause hearing with at least 3 days' notice to the defendant; if the defendant cannot be found for personal service, notice shall be posted on the property and in three public places within the Reservation and within 10 miles of the location of the property; or

(b) of his or her right to attachment and the necessity for seizure and that the delay caused by notice and hearing would seriously impair the remedy sought by the party seeking possession. Evidence of such impairment must be presented in open court, and the court must set forth with specificity the reasons why such delay would seriously impair the remedy sought by the person seeking attachment.

4-2-406. Plaintiff's affidavit. When attachment of a defendant's property is sought, an affidavit must be made by the plaintiff or his authorized agent stating:

(1) facts which show the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the manner specified in Section 4-2-401.

(2) that the attachment is not sought to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant;

(3) facts creating a reasonable belief that the defendant

(a) is leaving or about to leave the Reservation taking with him or her property, money, or other effects which might be subjected to payment of the debt;

(b) is disposing or about to dispose of his or her property which would be subject to execution; or

(c) is likely to suffer liens or encumbrances on his or her property which would be subject to execution; and

(4) a particular description and the actual value of the property to be attached.

4-2-407. Affidavit requirements when debt not yet due. An action may be commenced and writ of attachment issued upon any debt for the payment of money before the same shall have become due when it shall appear by the affidavit, in addition to what is required in sections 4-2-401, 4-2-405, and 4-2-406,

(1) that the defendant is leaving or is about to leave the Reservation, taking with him property, moneys, or other effects which might be subjected to the payment of the debt, for the purpose of defrauding his or her creditors, or

(2) that the defendant is disposing of his or her property or is about to dispose of his or her property, subject to execution, for the purpose of defrauding his or her creditors.

4-2-408. Plaintiff's undertaking. Before issuing the writ, the court must require a written undertaking by the plaintiff, with two or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the court, in a sum not less than double the amount claimed by the plaintiff if such amount be $1,000 or under or, in case the amount claimed by the plaintiff exceeds $1,000, then in a sum equal to such amount. In no case shall an undertaking be required exceeding the sum of $20,000. The condition of such undertaking shall be to the effect that if the defendant recovers judgment or if the court finally decides that the plaintiff was not entitled to an attachment, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant and all damages he may sustain by reason of issuing the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking.

4-2-409. Form and content of writ -- defendant's undertaking to prevent levy. (1) The writ must be directed to the Chief of the Tribal Police and must require him to:

(a) attach and safely keep all the property of the defendant within the Reservation not exempt from attachment, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, the amount of which must be stated in conformity with the complaint; or

(b) if the defendant gives to the police security by the undertaking of two sufficient sureties in an amount sufficient to satisfy the demand, without costs, take such undertaking.

(2) A defendant's undertaking accepted by the police must be to the plaintiff and must be approved in writing on the back thereof by the plaintiff or his or her attorney or, upon their refusal, by the judge issuing the writ.

4-2-410. Custody of books and evidences of title. The police must take into their custody all books of account, vouchers, and other papers relating to the personal property attached and all evidence of defendant's title to real property held in fee attached, which they must safely keep.

4-2-411. Attachment of non-trust real property. Real property or any interest therein belonging to the defendant, to which legal title is not held by the United States, and recorded on the books of a county in the name of the defendant or of any other person is attached by filing with the county clerk a copy of the writ, together with the description of the property attached and a notice that it is attached.

4-2-412. Personal property capable of manual delivery. Personal property capable of manual delivery must be attached by taking it into custody unless it is in the possession of a third person, in which case it may be attached as provided in Section 4-2-411.

4-2-413. Debts, credits, and personal property in control of third person or not capable of manual delivery.

Upon receiving information in writing from the plaintiff or his or her attorney that any person has in his possession or under his control any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant or is owing any debt to the defendant, the sheriff must serve upon such person a copy of the writ and a notice that such credits or other property or debts, as the case may be, are attached in pursuance of the writ. Debts and credits attached may be collected by the police if the same can be done without suit. A police receipt is a sufficient discharge for the amount paid.

4-2-414. Duty to execute and security for police costs. The Chief of Police must execute any writ of attachment directed to him without delay. The police may not attach more property than appears necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand. If the police will incur substantial costs in transporting, keeping, or storing the property seized, the party requesting service of a writ shall provide a bond or other security to pay for all costs which may be incurred as a result of the service of such writ.

4-2-415. Personal property subject to a security interest.

(1) Personal property subject to a security interest may be taken on attachment, provided that, prior to the taking, the officer levying the writ pays or tenders to the secured party the amount of the security agreement debt and interest or deposits the same with the Clerk of the Court.

(2) Upon 15 days' written notice served upon a secured creditor by any creditor seeking a writ of attachment, a secured creditor shall file with the Clerk of Court an affidavit showing

(a) the amount of indebtedness then actually due and owing to the secured creditor,

(b) the amount of the original obligation,

(c) all additional advancement of money or property made by the creditor to the debtor on the principal obligation since the date of execution of the security agreement,

(d) all payments of principal or interest made by the debtor since the date of execution of the security agreement, and

(e) the balance then remaining due and unpaid to the secured party.

(3) If the secured creditor fails or refuses to file such an affidavit with the Clerk of the Court, the security agreement is of no force or effect as against an attaching creditor.

4-2-416. Examination of defendant or person controlling property or debts -- order that property be delivered. Any person owing debts to the defendant or having in his possession or under his control any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant may be required to appear before the court and be examined on oath respecting the same. The defendant may also be required to attend for the purpose of being examined on oath respecting his property. After such examination, the court may order

(1) personal property capable of manual delivery in the hands or under the control of the defendant or a third person to be delivered to the Chief of Police on such terms as may be just in consideration of any liens thereon or claims against the property, and

(2) a memorandum to be given by the defendant quantifying and describing all other personal property.

4-2-417. Sheriff to retain nonperishable attached property and proceeds of sales--claim by third person. (1)

The proceeds and other property attached by the police must be retained by the Chief of Police to answer any judgment that may be recovered in the action unless earlier subjected to execution upon another judgment issued prior to the issuing of the attachment.

(2) If personal property attached is claimed by a third person, the claimant shall deliver to the Chief of Police an affidavit stating his claim, ownership, and a description of the property. Unless the plaintiff, within 10 days of receiving notice of the filing of the affidavit with the Chief of Police, gives to the police a good and sufficient bond indemnifying the Chief against loss or damage by reason of retaining said property, the Chief shall deliver the property to the claimant.

4-2-418. Inventory of attached property -- cooperation of persons controlling credits or debts. (1) The Chief of Police must make a full inventory of the property attached and return the same with the writ.

(2) To enable the Chief of Police to make a return of debts and credits attached, he must request, at the time of service of the writ, that the person owing the debt or having the credit give him a statement of the amount of the debt or credit. If such a statement is refused, the Chief of Police may apply upon one days' notice to the court for an order to compel the statement to be provided. If the order is granted, it shall also direct the payment of costs of the motion by the person refusing to supply the statement.

4-2-419. Return of the writ. The Chief of Police must return the writ of attachment with the summons if issued at the same time, otherwise, within 20 calendar days after its receipt, with a certificate of his proceedings endorsed thereon or attached thereto.

4-2-420. Notice of right to post seizure hearing--quashing a writ. (1) When a writ has been issued upon real property or upon a showing specified in Section 4-2-407, notice of the right to challenge the seizure of the property at a post seizure hearing shall be served personally on the defendant, or if the defendant cannot be found for personal service, notice shall be posted on the property and in three public places within the Reservation and within 10 miles of the property. Defendant must exercise the right to a post seizure hearing within 3 days after the seizure or 3 days after personal service or the posting of constructive notice, whichever is later.

(2) At such hearing the defendant may challenge the merit of the underlying action, the need for the prejudgment seizure of property, or both. The writ shall be quashed if the court makes a preliminary finding that:

(a) the plaintiff cannot establish the prima facie validity of his claim; or

(b) the plaintiff cannot establish by a preponderance of the evidence the need for the continued attachment of the defendant's property.

4-2-421. Discharge of writ improperly issued. (1) The defendant may also, at any time either before or after the release of the attached property or before an attachment shall have been actually levied, move, with reasonable notice to the plaintiff, to discharge the writ of attachment on the ground that the writ was improperly or irregularly issued.

(2) If it appears that the writ was improperly or irregularly issued, it must be discharged, but the court may allow the plaintiff to amend his or her affidavit or undertaking.

(3) Before issuing an order of discharge which releases from the operation of the attachment any or all of the property attached, the court shall require an undertaking by at least two sureties on behalf of the defendant to the effect that in case the plaintiff recovers judgment in the action, the defendant and the sureties will, on demand, pay to the plaintiff the full value of the property released.

(4) An order discharging or releasing attachment of real property by a defendant shall be filed in the office of the county clerk in which the notice of attachment was filed.

4-2-422. Sale of attached property. (1) If any of the property attached is perishable, the Chief of Police must sell it as property is sold on execution on a judgment.

(2) When property has been taken by an officer under a writ of attachment, a plaintiff On reasonable notice to the defendant or his attorney, may apply to the court for an order of sale. If it appears to the court that the interest of the parties will be best served by a sale, it may order that the property be sold in the same manner as an execution on a judgment and that the proceeds be deposited in the court to await judgment in the action.

(3) When the property sold under a writ of attachment is subject to a security agreement, the officer levying the writ must apply the proceeds of the sale as follows:

(a) to the repayment of the sum paid to the secured party, with interest to the date of payment; and

(b) the balance, if any, applied as proceeds of sales are applied in execution on a judgment.

(4) An attaching creditor is required to deliver to the debtor the security agreement and any note or other evidence of indebtedness secured thereby obtained from the secured party when the property is sold for the amount of the indebtedness under the security agreement or an amount in excess thereof.

4-2-423. Judgment when debt not due. (1) On trial of any cause brought under the provisions of 4-2-407, judgment may be rendered on a debt not due upon satisfactory proof to the court of the facts alleged in the affidavit for attachment. Such judgment shall include a rebate of interest from the date of the judgment until the date when the date would have become due.

(2) The defendant may object to the allegations of the affidavit required in 4-2-407, and if the plaintiff fails to substantiate any cause required to be alleged in the affidavit, the suit for debt or debts not due shall be dismissed.

4-2-424. Disposition of attached property and proceeds of sales. (1) If the defendant has judgment against the plaintiff, any undertaking received in the action, all of the proceeds of sales and money collected by the Chief of Police, and all property attached remaining with the police must be delivered to the defendant or his agent. The order of attachment shall be discharged and the property released.

(2) If the plaintiff has judgment against the defendant, the Chief of Police must satisfy it out of the property attached which has not been delivered to a party or a claimant, as herein before provided, or subjected to execution on another judgment recovered prior to the issuing of the attachment, if it be sufficient for that purpose:

(a) by paying to the plaintiff the proceeds of all sales of perishable property or property order by the court to be sold, or of any debts or credits collected by the police, or so much thereof as is necessary to satisfy the judgment;

(b) if any balance remain due and an execution shall have been issued on the judgment, by selling under the execution a sufficient amount of attached property to satisfy the balance, if enough of such property remains in the hands of the police. Notices of the sales must be given and sales conducted as in other cases of sales on execution.

(3) When the judgment is paid, the Chief of Police must deliver to the defendant the attached property remaining under police control and any proceeds of sales not applied to the judgment.

(4) If, after selling the attached property and applying the proceeds, together with the proceeds of any debt or credit collected by the Chief of Police, and deducting the police fee, any balance remains due on the judgment, the Chief of Police must collect the balance as upon executions in other cases.

Part 5

Declaratory Judgments and Injunctions

4-2-501. Declaratory judgment -- creation of remedy. In a case of actual controversy within its jurisdiction, the Tribal court, upon the filing of an appropriate pleading, may declare the rights and other legal relations of any interested party seeking such declaration, whether or not further relief is or could be sought. Any such declaration shall have the force and effect of a final judgment or decree and shall be reviewable as such.

4-2-502. Procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment. The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment pursuant to Section 4-2-501 shall be in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and a trial by jury may be demanded. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

4-2-503. Interpretation. Except as may be otherwise provided by statute, sections 4-2-501, 4-2-502, and 4-2-504 shall be interpreted and construed to harmonize, as far as possible, with federal laws and interpretations of declaratory judgments.

4-2-504. Further relief. Further necessary or proper relief based on a declaratory judgment or decree may be granted, after reasonable notice and hearing, against any adverse party whose rights have been determined by such judgment.

4-2-505. Definition of injunction. An injunction is a court order requiring a person to refrain from a particular act.

4-2-506. When injunction may not be granted. An injunction cannot be granted:

- (1) to stay a judicial proceeding pending at the commencement of an action in which the injunction is demanded;
- (2) to prevent the lawful exercise of a Tribal office by the appropriate officer or officers;
- (3) to prevent a legislative act; or
- (4) to stay execution upon a valid and subsisting judgment after expiration of one year from the rendition of the judgment.

4-2-507. Form and scope of injunction or restraining order. An order granting an injunction or a restraining order shall:

- (1) set forth the reasons for its issuance;
- (2) be specific in its terms;
- (3) describe in reasonable detail, and not by reference to the complaint or any other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and
- (4) be binding only upon the parties to the action; their officers, agents, employees, and attorneys; and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

4-2-508. Temporary restraining order. When an application for an injunction is made upon adequate notice or an order to show cause, as provided in Section 4-2-511, the Tribal Court may enjoin the adverse party, until the hearing and decision of the application, by an order which is called a temporary restraining order.

4-2-509. Grant of restraining order without notice. (1) A temporary restraining order may be granted without written or oral notice to the adverse party or opposing attorney only if:

(a) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that a delay would cause immediate and irreparable injury to the applicant before the adverse party or the opposing attorney could be heard in opposition; and

(b) the applicant or the applicant's attorney certifies to the court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give notice and the reasons supporting his or her claim that notice should not be required.

(2) Each temporary restraining order granted without notice must:

(a) be endorsed with the date and hour of its issuance;

(b) be filed immediately in the Clerk's office and entered in the record;

(c) define the injury and state why such injury is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice; and

(d) expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed 10 calendar days, as the court fixes.

4-2-510. Application for injunction to be heard without delay. Whenever a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the application for an injunction must be set for hearing at the earliest possible time and takes precedence over all matters. At the hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for the injunction, or if he or she does not do so, the court or judge shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On 2 days' notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification and in that event the court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion expeditiously.

4-2-511. Notice of application for preliminary injunction. (1) No preliminary injunction may be issued without reasonable notice to the adverse party of the time and place of the making of the application.

(2) Before granting an injunction order, the court shall make an order requiring cause to be shown, at a specified time and place, why the injunction should not be granted, and the adverse party may in the meantime be restrained as provided in Sections 4-2-507 through 4-2-509.

4-2-512. Evidence required for issuance of preliminary injunction. (1) Upon the hearing each party may present affidavits or oral testimony. An injunction order may not be granted on affidavits unless

(a) they are duly verified, and

(b) the material allegations of the affidavits setting forth the grounds for the order are made positively and not upon information and belief.

4-2-513. Application to dissolve or modify an injunction -- hearing. The party enjoined may apply to the court to dissolve or modify an injunction. The application may be made upon reasonable notice or upon an order to show cause returnable at a specified time or immediately after service thereof. The application must be supported by an affidavit showing that there is not sufficient ground for the injunction to continue or that the scope of the injunction is too broad. If, upon the hearing, it satisfactorily appears that there are not sufficient grounds for the injunction order, the order must be dissolved; or if it satisfactorily appears that the extent of the injunction order is too great, the order must be modified.

Part 6

Repossession

4-2-601. Jurisdiction over Indian property. Personal property owned by an Indian subject to the Tribal Court's jurisdiction may not be repossessed from within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation except pursuant to the provisions of this Part.

4-2-602. Jurisdiction over parties seeking repossession. By either attempting to repossess personal property owned by an Indian subject to the Tribal Court's jurisdiction from the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation, or by pursuing remedies under the provisions of this Part, a person or business entity becomes subject to the Tribal Court's jurisdiction for the purposes of asserting defenses or counterclaims.

4-2-603. Consent to repossession. (1) Personal property may be repossessed without an Order of the Tribal Court if, at the time repossession is sought, the defendant voluntarily consents to the repossession in writing by signing a waiver that meets the following requirements:

(a) It must be in a readable type style of at least 14 point type; and

(b) It must contain this language:

CONSENT TO REPOSSESSION

You may voluntarily consent to the repossession of this property if you believe that the repossession is lawful. If you have any questions about whether this action is lawful, you have the right to a hearing in the Tribal Court before the property can be repossessed. Please sign below to indicate your choice:

I, _____, waive my right to a hearing in the Tribal Court on the issue of whether repossession is lawful at this time. I voluntarily agree to the repossession of the following property:

Signed this ____ day of _____, _____.

(Signature of Creditor's agent)

(c) It must be filed with a Civil Complaint pursuant to Rule 8 of the Rules of Practice if a deficiency judgment is sought.

(2) If consent is not obtained in accordance with this section, a person or business entity seeking repossession of personal property must first obtain an Order of the Tribal Court under the provisions of this Part. This Part shall control the manner of repossession of personal property, notwithstanding contractual provisions between the parties to the contrary. Any contractual provisions that allow advance consent to repossession of personal property are void and of no effect. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-2-604. Repossession with foreign judgment. If repossession of personal property is sought pursuant to a judgment of another jurisdiction, the Tribal Court retains the authority to inquire into the jurisdiction of the foreign Court to enter the judgment, pursuant to Section 4-3-205. (Rev. 1-27-00)

4-2-605. Action for repossession commenced by filing complaint. (1) An action to foreclose on personal property is commenced by filing a complaint in the Tribal Court. On verified allegations of the following elements, the Court shall issue an Order requiring the defendant to preserve the property at issue and not to remove it from the Flathead Reservation:

(a) The location of the property sought to be repossessed, if known.

(b) A description of the property in sufficient detail to identify it for the Court and those enforcing a repossession order.

(c) A description of the agreement which gives rise to the right to repossess the property. A copy of the agreement shall be attached to the complaint.

(d) Facts showing that the plaintiff is entitled to repossess the property, and that the matter is within the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court.

(e) Where applicable, the total amounts due and owing to the Plaintiff.

(f) Any claim for a deficiency judgment, if one exists after repossession of the subject property.

(g) The names of any other persons or business entities, if known, making a claim to an interest in the same property.

(2) The Order and the complaint for repossession shall be personally served on the defendant. If the plaintiff can show by verified affidavit to the Court's satisfaction that the subject personal property is in immediate danger of being concealed, damaged, destroyed, or removed from the Flathead Reservation, the Court may also order that the property be immediately surrendered to the Plaintiff to be stored on the Reservation pending a hearing.

(Rev. 1-27-00) (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-2-606. Answer to complaint and hearing. An answer to the Complaint must be filed within 10 days of service of the Complaint. If no answer is filed within this period of time, the plaintiff shall be entitled to an Order for immediate repossession of the property. If an answer is timely filed, a hearing shall be held within 10 days of the filing of the answer. At the hearing, the Court shall take evidence and determine if the plaintiff has made a prima facie case entitling it to relief, and that there do not appear to be any meritorious defenses or counterclaims. On making these findings, plaintiff shall be entitled to an order of repossession. (Rev. 1-27-00)

4-2-607. Interlocutory relief. If the defendant files an Answer raising defenses or counterclaims that appear to the Court to be meritorious, or presents evidence of the same at the hearing, then the Court may enter an order for any of the following relief:

(1) Impounding the property in the custody of the Plaintiff to be stored on the Reservation pending a final resolution of the case; or

(2) Requiring a bond to be posted by the plaintiff in an amount sufficient to cover the defendant's claims as a condition to issuing an order of repossession.

(3) Requiring a commercially reasonable disposition of the property under supervision of the Court, and payment of the proceeds into Court, pending final resolution of the case. (Rev. 1-27-00)

4-2-608. Procedure after repossession. (1) In all cases where repossession of property is permitted, a return shall be filed with the Court showing what action was taken on the repossession order, and how the property was disposed of by the plaintiff. The plaintiff shall fully account to the Court for the proceeds from the property.

(2) All repossessed property shall be disposed of in a commercially reasonable manner and the proceeds applied to the claims of the plaintiff. Any surplus shall be returned to the defendant, unless claims to the proceeds are made by others with security interests in the property or proceeds thereof, in which case the surplus shall be paid into the Tribal Court pending resolution of those claims. (Rev. 1-27-00)

4-2-609. Relief for improper repossession. (1) If personal property owned by an Indian subject to the Tribal Court's jurisdiction is repossessed from within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation in violation of the provisions of this Part, the affected person may bring an action to have the Court order the return of the property and to reinstate the underlying agreement. In addition, the affected person may seek actual damages caused by the unlawful repossession, or he may elect to bring an action for damages in an amount equal to twice the amount of the alleged underlying debt. In either event, the affected person shall also be entitled to costs and reasonable attorney fees if he prevails in the action.

(2) If suit is filed concerning the underlying debt in a jurisdiction other than the Tribal Court, then a violation of the procedures set forth in this part shall act as a complete defense to any claim for a deficiency judgment. (Rev. 1-27-00)

CHAPTER 3
CIVIL JUDGMENTS

Part 1

Civil Judgments and Records

4-3-101. Definition. "Judgment" includes a final trial court ruling on the merits, a decree, and any order from which an appeal lies. Every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in the party's pleadings.

4-3-102. Whose rights determined. Subject to the provisions of Rule 54(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, judgment may be given for or against one or more of several plaintiffs and for or against one or more of several defendants, and the court may, when the justice of the case requires, determine the ultimate rights of the parties on each side as between themselves.

4-3-103. Judgment on findings by the court. In all actions tried on the facts without a jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and judgment shall be entered. In granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the court shall similarly set forth findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary in decisions on motions.

4-3-104. Validity and effect of judgment. (1) The requisites of a valid judgment are

- (a) adequate notice and an opportunity to be heard by persons whose interests are to be adjudicated,
- (b) the court must have territorial jurisdiction, and
- (c) the court must have subject matter jurisdiction.

(2) An objection of lack of adequate notice or opportunity to be heard may, in the absence of default, be waived by not raising the objection in the trial court.

(3) A trial court determination of territorial jurisdiction is conclusive if raised and adjudicated.

(4) A defense of lack of subject matter jurisdiction may be raised by any party or by the court at any time and cannot be waived.

(5) In considering the effect of a former adjudication in Tribal Court, the rules of res judicata are applicable to domestic and foreign judgments, including but not necessarily limited to, the concepts of barring relitigation and issue preclusion.

4-3-105. Default. (1) When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the court.

(2) A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment.

(3) No default of any party shall be entered, and no default judgment shall be entered against any party, except upon application of the opposing party. No judgment by default shall be entered when service has been by publication unless through a showing of evidence deemed satisfactory to the court, the moving party demonstrates that other available methods of service were reasonably attempted and failed. No judgment by default shall be entered against a minor or incompetent person unless represented by a guardian, conservator, or other such representative who has appeared in the proceeding. If the party against whom the judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, the party (or, if appearing by representative, the party's representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least 3 days prior to the hearing on such application.

(4) If, upon receipt of an application for a default judgment, the court finds that in order for it to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings as it deems necessary and proper.

(5) The provisions of this section apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim.

(6) No judgment by default shall be entered against the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes or an official or agency thereof unless the claimant establishes a claim or right to relief by evidence satisfactory to the court. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-106. Setting aside default. For good cause shown, the court may set aside a judgment of default.

4-3-107. Offer of judgment. At any time more than 10 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against the defending party for the money or property or to the effect specified in the offer, with costs then accrued. If within 10 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the Clerk shall enter the judgment. An offer not accepted is deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible.

4-3-108. Records of judgments. (1) The Clerk of Court shall keep with the records of the court a "judgment book" in which judgments must be entered.

(2) The Clerk shall also keep a docket. A docket is a book with each page divided into eight columns and headed as follows: judgment debtors; judgment creditors; time of entry of judgment; where entered in judgment book; date of taking appeal; judgment of appellate court; and time of entry of satisfaction of judgment. If the judgment is for relief other than money damages, the general character of the relief granted must be stated in the docket.

(3) The judgment book and the docket are open for public inspection during office hours of the Clerk of Court at no charge.

4-3-109. Entry of judgment. Upon a verdict by a jury or a decision by the court granting any relief or denying all relief, the Clerk shall prepare a form of judgment for the prompt approval and signature of the court. Each judgment shall be set forth on a separate document. Upon approval, the Clerk shall enter the judgment by placing it in its chronological order in the judgment book. Parties or their attorneys or representatives shall not submit forms of judgment except upon direction of the court, and these directions shall not be given as a matter of course.

4-3-110. Docketing of judgment--period of lien. (1) Immediately after the entry of the judgment in the judgment book, the Clerk must make the proper entries of the judgment under the appropriate heads in the docket.

(2) From the time the judgment is docketed, it becomes a lien upon the non-exempt property of the judgment debtor owned by him or her at the time of the judgment or which may be afterward acquired. The lien continues until the judgment is satisfied or for a period of 10 years, whichever first occurs. The judgments and court-ordered restitution referenced in Section 4-3-316(2)(b) of this Code are exempt from such time limitation. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-111. Entry of satisfaction of judgment in docket. Satisfaction of a judgment shall be entered in the Clerk's docket upon an execution returned satisfied or upon an acknowledgment of satisfaction filed with the Clerk. An acknowledgment of satisfaction is made by endorsement of the judgment creditor or his or her attorney on the face or the margin of the record of the judgment. Whenever a judgment is satisfied in fact otherwise than by execution, the creditor or his or her attorney must give such endorsement. Upon motion, the court may compel the endorsement or may order the entry of satisfaction to be made without it.

Part 2

Enforcement of Foreign Judgments

4-3-201. Definition. "Foreign judgment" means a judgment, decree, or order of a court of the United States, of a State, or of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

4-3-202. Filing and status of federal court judgment. A copy of a federal court judgment, authenticated by the court of its origin, may be filed with the Clerk of Court. The Clerk shall treat the federal foreign judgment in the same manner as a judgment of the Tribal Court. A judgment so filed is subject to the same procedures of reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of the Tribal Court and may be enforced in like manner.

4-3-203. Notice of filing of federal judgment. (1) At the time of the filing of the federal court judgment, the judgment creditor or the creditor's attorney shall file with the Clerk of Court an affidavit setting forth the name and last-known post office address of the judgment debtor and judgment creditor. The affidavit must include a statement that the federal judgment is valid, enforceable, and not appealable, and the extent to which it has been satisfied.

(2) Promptly upon filing the federal judgment and affidavit, the judgment creditor or someone on his or her behalf shall mail notice of the filing of the judgment and affidavit, attaching a copy of each to the notice, to the judgment debtor and to the debtor's attorney of record, if any, each at his last-known address, by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice must include the name and post office address of the judgment creditor and the judgment creditor's attorney, if any, within the Reservation. The judgment creditor shall file with the Clerk an affidavit setting forth the date upon which the notice was mailed.

(3) The federal judgment may not be executed upon by the judgment creditor earlier than 30 days after the date of mailing the notice of filing.

(4) If, during the 30-day period, the judgment debtor shows the Tribal Court any ground upon which a similar Tribal Court judgment would be stayed, the court will stay enforcement of the federal court judgment for an appropriate period.

4-3-204. Filing and status of state court judgments and the judgments of other tribal courts. In the interests of comity, a party in whose favor a state court judgment or the judgment of another tribal court was entered may bring an action for enforcement of the judgment in Tribal Court. Such action shall be commenced by the filing of a verified complaint, to which the authenticated foreign judgment and a copy of the entire record of the state court or tribal proceeding shall be attached. The complaint shall include

(1) jurisdictional facts sufficient for the court to determine that the state or tribal court had subject matter jurisdiction over the cause and personal jurisdiction over the defendant during the proceedings, and

(2) have attached an affidavit attesting to the existence of:

(a) adequate notice and an opportunity to be heard by persons whose interests were adjudicated, and

(b) proper jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter in the court issuing the judgment. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-205. Grounds for declination of enforcement of state court judgment. (1) A defendant in an action to enforce a state court judgment or the judgment of another tribal court may collaterally attack the judgment in a first responsive pleading on grounds of jurisdictional defects or infringement of the rights of the defendant under the federal Indian Civil Rights Act.

(2) If a defendant fails to file a responsive pleading, the court will subject the foreign judgment and record to strict scrutiny for jurisdictional or constitutional deficiencies. Such scrutiny may include an evidentiary hearing on any jurisdictional or constitutional issues raised on the face of the foreign judgment or record of proceedings.

(3) If the court finds jurisdictional or constitutional defects in the judgment or the record of the state or tribal court proceedings, it will decline to enforce the judgment.

4-3-206. Decision and enforcement. A ruling accepting or declining a state or tribal court judgment for enforcement shall be based upon findings of fact and conclusions of law. The court's ruling shall be filed with the Clerk of Court for entry in the judgment book and docket. If enforcement of the judgment is declined by the court, the Clerk shall transmit the findings and conclusions to the court issuing the judgment.

4-3-207. Authentication of foreign judgment and court records. An official record kept within the United States, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having legal custody of that record, or by the officer's deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody.

4-3-208. Fees. Any person filing a foreign judgment or a complaint seeking to enforce a foreign judgment shall pay to the Clerk of Court a fee of $75.

Part 3

Execution on Judgment

4-3-301. Time limit for issuing execution. (1) The party in whose favor judgment is given may, at any time within 10 years after the entry thereof, have a writ of execution issued for its enforcement.

(2) When the judgment is for the payment of child support, the party in whose favor the judgment is given may, at any time within 10 years after the termination of the support obligation or within 10 years from entry of a lump-sum judgment or order for support arrears, whichever is later, have a writ of execution issued for its enforcement. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-302. Renewal after 10 years. A judgment may be renewed for an additional 10 years after the lapse of the initial 10 year term by motion or by a new judgment founded on supplementary pleadings filed within 40 days of such lapse. Except as provided in 4-3-316(2)(b) of this Code, such judgment may not be renewed a second time. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-303. Execution after death of a party. Notwithstanding the death of a party after the judgment, execution may be issued or it may be enforced as follows:

(1) In case of the death of the judgment creditor, the judgment may be enforced upon application of the creditor's personal representative or successor in interest.

(2) In case of the death of the judgment debtor, if the judgment is for the recovery of non-exempt property or for the enforcement of a lien, execution may be issued with the same effect as if the judgment debtor were living.

4-3-304. Compelling contribution or repayment. (1) When property liable to an execution against several persons is sold and more than a due proportion is satisfied out of the proceeds of the sale of property of one or them, or one of them pays, without a sale, more than his share, he or she may compel contribution from the others. When a judgment is against several persons and is upon an obligation of one of them as surety for another and the surety pays the amount or any part of the judgment, the surety may compel repayment from the principal.

(2) The person so paying or contributing is entitled to enforce contribution or repayment if, within 10 days after the payment, he or she files with the Clerk of the Court notice of the payment and claim to contribution or repayment. The Clerk shall make an entry of the notice in the margin of the docket.

4-3-305. Methods of enforcement. (1) When the judgment is for money or the possession of non-exempt real or personal property, it may be enforced by a writ of execution.

(2) When the judgment requires the sale of property, it may be enforced by a writ reciting the judgment or its material parts and directing the Chief of the Tribal Police to execute the judgment and apply the proceeds as the judgment directs.

(3) When the judgment requires the performance of any other act than those designated in subsections (1) and (2) of this Section, a certified copy of the judgment may be served upon the party against whom the same is rendered or upon the person or officer required to obey the judgment, and obedience may be enforced by the court.

4-3-306. Application for writ of execution. A person in whose favor a judgment is rendered may apply to the court for a writ of execution. An application for a writ shall be directed to a judge of the Tribal Court. The application for the writ shall contain

(1) the name, address, and telephone number(s) of the applicant,

(2) the name and address of the person against whom the judgment is to be enforced, and, if the person is a Tribal member, the member's enrollment number,

(3) the date of the judgment, a description of the property to be executed upon and its location, the principal amount owed if the judgment is for the payment of money, and any accumulated post judgment interest,

(4) if personal property subject to a security interest is to be taken on execution, evidence that a deposit in the amount of the secured debt and interest, payable to the secured party, has been made with the filing officer with whom, pursuant to law, the financing statement has been filed,

(5) a copy of the judgment,

(6) a form of the writ, and

(7) evidence of payment of a fee of $75 to the Clerk of the Tribal Court upon the filing of the application.

4-3-307. Execution Upon Property Subject to a Security Interest (1) Notice to Secured Party A judgment creditor may execute upon personal property of the judgment debtor that is subject to a security interest but before any such property may be taken on execution the judgment creditor must serve written notice upon the secured party under any security agreement of record of the judgment creditor's intent to satisfy a judgment of said creditor against property of the debtor. The notice may be served by U.S. Mail directed to the secured party's last known address appearing of record or by personal service. Such notice must state the address and telephone number of the judgment creditor or its counsel of record and request that the secured party file or serve an affidavit within 15 days showing the amount of indebtedness then actually due and owing to the secured party; the amount of the original obligation for which the security agreement was given as security; all advancements of money or property on the principal obligation since the date of the execution of the security agreement; all payments of whatever kind, whether on principal or interest, made by the debtor to the date of the execution of the affidavit; and the balance then remaining due and unpaid to the secured party. If the secured party files an affidavit as requested in the office of the filing officer with whom the financing statement covering the security agreement is filed or serves such affidavit directly upon the judgment creditor or its counsel of record by U.S. Mail directed to the address contained in the notice received from the judgment creditor, before the judgment creditor may execute upon the personal property subject to the security interest, the officer levying the writ must pay or tender to the secured party the amount of the security agreement debt then remaining due and unpaid or must deposit such amount with the filing officer with whom the financing statement covering the security agreement is filed payable to the order of the secured party.

(2) Duty of Secured Party. The secured party under any security agreement of record shall, upon 15 days' notice in writing served upon him in the manner as described in paragraph (1) above by any judgment creditor seeking to satisfy a judgment, is required to file an affidavit in the office where the financing statement covering the security agreement is filed showing the amount of the indebtedness then actually due and owing to the secured party; the amount of the original obligation for which the security agreement was given as security; all additional advancements of money or property on the principal obligation since the date of the execution of the security agreement; all payments of whatever kind, whether on principal or interest, made by the debtor to the date of the execution of the affidavit; and the balance then remaining due and unpaid to the secured party. If the secured party fails, refuses, or neglects within 15 days from the service of any notice in writing to file or serve the required affidavit in the manner as described in paragraph (1) above, the security agreement shall be of no force or effect against such judgment creditor upon the taking on execution of any property subject to the security agreement.

(3) If the amount shown to be due is paid to the filing officer or to the secured party in satisfaction of the security agreement by any execution creditor against the debtor, the secured party is required to surrender to the filing officer the security agreement and any note or other evidence of indebtedness secured thereby, which security agreement or other evidence of indebtedness shall be delivered by the secured party or filing officer to the execution creditor. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-308. Contents of writ. The writ of execution must

- (1) be issued in the name of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, sealed with the seal of the Tribal Court and subscribed by a judge;
- (2) be directed to the Chief of the Tribal Police, the Tribal Records Manager, or the employer of the judgment debtor, as prescribed in section 4-3-311;
- (3) describe the judgment, stating the name and address of the applicant for the writ and of the person against whom the judgment is to be enforced, the date when the judgment was entered, and, if it is for money, the amount of the judgment and the amount actually due thereon, or if not for money, the amount of the execution stated in dollars and cents;
- (4) describe in detail the property to be executed upon;
- (5) require the Chief of the Tribal Police, the Tribal Records Manager or the employer of the judgment debtor, as appropriate, to act substantially as provided in Sections 4-3-310 and 4-3-312;
- (6) contain directions to the levying officer as provided in Sections 4-3-316 and 4-3-317, or as may be required to complete the execution pursuant to law; and
- (7) have copies of Sections 4-3-316 and 4-3-317 attached for presentation to the judgment debtor at the time of levying. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-309. Issuance of writ. (1) Not less than 5 nor more than 10 days after the filing of an application for a writ of execution, the court will approve the application and issue the writ unless it finds, in writing, that incomplete or inaccurate information is contained in the application or the form of writ, that exempt property is proposed to be executed upon, or that the execution would be in contravention of the rights of a secured creditor.

(2) Upon subscription of the writ by the judge, the Clerk of Court shall docket the writ and transmit it or a certified copy of the same, with the application, to the levying officer.

4-3-310. Execution in particular circumstances. (1) A judgment rendered against debtors and sureties shall so state, and an execution shall direct the levying officer to make the amount due out of the non-exempt goods, lands, wages, or assets of the debtors, and only if the judgment cannot be so satisfied, to make the balance out of the non-exempt property, personal or real, of the sureties.

(2) If the writ of execution is against the property of a judgment debtor, it shall require the levying officer to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of the non-exempt personal property of the debtor and, if sufficient personal property cannot be found, out of his non-exempt real property.

(3) If the writ of execution be against non-exempt real or personal property in the hands of personal representatives, heirs, devisees, legatees, or trustees, it shall require the levying officer to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of such property.

(4) If the writ of execution be for the delivery of the possession of non-exempt real or personal property, it must require the levying officer to deliver the possession of the property, particularly describing it, to the party entitled to possession.

4-3-311. To whom execution issued. (1) In the circumstances where execution upon a Tribal member's per capita payment is permitted as provided in Section 4-3-316, the writ shall be issued to the Tribal Records Manager.

(2) Where the writ is against the non-exempt property of a judgment debtor or where it requires the delivery of non-exempt real or personal property, it must be issued to the Chief of the Tribal Police.

(3) Where the writ is against earnings or wages of a judgment debtor it may be called a writ of garnishment, and it must be issued to the debtor's employer in compliance with the requirements of Section 4-3-312(3) of the CSKT Laws Codified and 15 USC Sec. 1673. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-312. How writ executed. (1) If the Chief of Tribal Police is the levying officer, he must execute the writ against the property of the judgment debtor no later than 60 days after receipt of the writ by levying on a sufficient amount of non-exempt property, and paying to the plaintiff or his attorney so much of the proceeds as will satisfy the judgment. Any excess in the proceeds over the judgment and accruing costs must be returned to the judgment debtor unless otherwise directed by the judgment or order of the court. When there is more property of the judgment debtor than necessary to satisfy the judgment and accruing costs, the Chief of Police must levy only on such part of the property as the judgment debtor may select if the property selected is sufficient to satisfy the judgment and costs.

(2) If the levying officer is the Tribal Records Manager, where the writ is issued at least 21 days prior to a date certain established by the Tribal Council for a distribution of per capita payments, the writ shall be executed upon the per capita payment made upon the date certain, and upon each succeeding such payment until the judgment, with interest, is satisfied or expires. If the writ is issued to the Tribal Records Manager after the twenty-first day prior to the date certain established by the Tribal Council for a distribution of per capita payments, the Manager will execute upon the writ commencing with the next future per capita payment, if any, after the payment made upon the date certain, and upon such successive payments as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment with interest or until such time as the judgment expires. In the event of multiple competing writs, the Tribal Records Manager shall prioritize and execute against the Tribal member's per capita payments according to Section 4-3-316(2) below. The Tribal Records Manager shall retain all writs issued against per capita payments until they are paid in full or until the Tribal member is no longer entitled to receive per capita payments.

(3) If the levying officer is an employer of the judgment debtor, the sum to be levied for each pay period is to be calculated as follows:

(a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), the maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of a judgment debtor for any workweek that is subjected to garnishment may not exceed the lesser of:

(i) the amount by which his or her disposable earnings for the week exceed 30 times the federal minimum hourly wage in effect at the time the earnings are payable; or

(ii) 25% of his or her disposable earnings for that week.

(b) The restrictions of subsection (a) of this Section do not apply in the case of an order or judgment for the maintenance or support of any person issued by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(c)(i) The maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of a judgment debtor for any workweek that is subject to garnishment to enforce a maintenance or support order described in subsection (b) of this Section may not exceed:

(ii) 50% of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings for that week if he or she is supporting a spouse or dependent child (other than a spouse or child for whom the order is issued); or

(iii) 60% of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings for that week if he is not supporting a spouse or dependent child.

(d) For purposes of this subsection, the definitions of earnings, disposable earnings, and garnishment are as set for in 15 U.S.C. Section 1672. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-313. Security for costs when property seized. If the Chief of Police will incur substantial costs in transporting, keeping, or storing the property seized, the party requesting service of a writ of execution shall provide a bond or other security to pay for all costs which may be incurred as a result of the service of such writ.

4-3-314. Return of the execution. (1) A writ of execution issued to the Chief of Police shall be made returnable to the Clerk of the Court not more than 60 days after imposition of the levy as provided in Section 4-3-311(1).

(2) A writ of execution issued to the Tribal Records Manager shall be made returnable to the Clerk of the Court not more than 30 days after the judgment is satisfied or within 6 years from the date of its issuance, whichever shall earlier occur.

(3) A writ of execution issued to an employer for the garnishment of the wages of a judgment debtor shall be made returnable to the Clerk of the Court not more than 30 days after the judgment is satisfied or within two years from the date of its issuance, whichever shall earlier occur.

4-3-315. Clerk to record returned execution. If property is levied upon, the Clerk of Court must record the execution and the return of the writ and certify the same as true copies in a book to be called the "execution book", which must be indexed with the names of the plaintiffs and defendants in execution alphabetically arranged, and kept open at all times during office hours for the inspection of the public, without charge.

4-3-316. Property subject to execution -- limitations and exemptions. (1) All goods, chattels, moneys, and other property, both real and personal, or any interest of the judgment debtor in such property, except exempt property as provided in section 4-3-317, are liable to execution subject to the limitations set out in subsections (2) and (3) of this subsection.

(2) Although per capita payments distributed by the Tribes are not the property of Tribal members until distributed, upon the Tribal Council's declaration of intended distribution in a sum certain on a date certain, a member's payment is subject to assignment by the member unless the payment is subject to execution and levy by the Tribal Records Manager in the following priority of circumstances:

(a) on a judgment and order for child support;

(b) on a judgment rendered in favor of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes or any Tribal entity;

(c) for court-ordered restitution imposed as a sentence or a component of a sentence for a criminal offense or as a penalty ordered in connection with an adjudication of juvenile delinquency; or

(d) on a valid judgment predating August 11, 1995, with a writ of execution issued as provided in Sections 4-3-308 and 4-3-309, or with a prior writ of execution and creditor's accounting as provided in the Resolution of the Tribal Council 95-200, dated August 11, 1995, which Resolution is superseded and repealed by this Ordinance.

(3) Only those earnings of a judgment debtor subject to garnishment as provided in Section 4-3-312 are liable to execution. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-317. Property exempt from execution. A judgment debtor is entitled to exemption from execution on the following:

(1) any assets or property, real or personal, within the Flathead Indian Reservation, to which the legal title is held by the United States of America for the benefit of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes or any individual Indian;

- (2) all lands, buildings, and grounds with the fixtures, equipment, furniture, books, papers, computers, and appurtenances pertaining to the public offices or for the use of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes or the public use of its members, and such property as may be necessary to carry out the governmental functions of any governmental entity with property located within the Reservation;
- (3) professionally prescribed health aids for the judgment debtor or a dependent of the judgment debtor;
- (4) personal property recognized by the Tribal Court or the Tribal Council as having significant spiritual, religious, or traditional value;
- (5) benefits the judgment debtor has received or is entitled to receive under
- (a) federal social security
 - (b) federal, state or Tribal public assistance,
 - (c) veterans' disability programs
 - (d) unemployment compensation or workers' compensation programs,
- (6) a home,
- (7) maintenance and child support
- (8) the portion of a wage remaining after once being garnished;
- (9) the judgment debtor's interest, not exceeding a value of $1,000 in any item or $5,000 in the aggregate, in household furnishings and goods, appliances, jewelry, wearing apparel, books, firearms and other sporting goods, animals, feed, crops, and musical instruments,
- (10) the judgment debtor's interest, not to exceed $2,500 in one motor vehicle, and
- (11) the judgment debtor's interest, not to exceed $3,000 in aggregate value, in any implements, professional books, and tools, of the trade of the judgment debtor or a dependent of the judgment debtor. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-3-318. Effective date and application to pending proceedings.

Chapters 1 through 3 of this Title apply to all civil actions filed on or after June 3, 1996, to judgments in proceedings pending on that date, and to post judgment procedures and limitations, and enforcements on judgments outstanding on that date.

CHAPTER 4

SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURES

Part 1

General Provisions

4-4-101. Purpose. It is the purpose of this Chapter to promote the disposition of small claims in Tribal Court without the necessity of a formal trial.

4-4-102. Application and Parties. (1) Procedures provided by this Chapter shall be applied by the Tribal Court sitting as the Small Claims Division of the Tribal Court in all actions for money damages, as follows:

- (a) when the amount claimed is not less than $50, nor more than $3000, exclusive of costs; and
 - (b) when the claim arises within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation; and
 - (c) when the parties are subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court pursuant to Section 1-2-104 of this Code and applicable federal law.
- (2) A plaintiff in a small claims action may be an individual, partnership, corporation, association, firm, government agency or subdivision, guardian, conservator, or personal representative.
- (3) No plaintiff may file an assigned claim in the Small Claims Division.
- (4) By filing a claim pursuant to these procedures, a plaintiff consents to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court for the purpose of adjudicating any counterclaim against him or her that the defendant may have. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-103. Representation. (1) A party in a small claims proceeding may not be represented by an attorney or a Tribal Court Advocate unless every party is represented by an attorney or advocate. In the event that all parties are represented, each representative shall file a notice of appearance with the Clerk of Court no later than three (3) Tribal working days prior to the time set for hearing.

(2) An individual may represent himself or herself in a small claims action. A partnership may be represented by a partner or by an employee. Any other kind of organization may be represented by a member or an employee. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Part 2
Procedure Before Trial

4-4-201. Commencement of a small claims action and assistance to claimant.

(1) A small claims action is commenced whenever any person appears before the Clerk of Court and executes a sworn small claims complaint in substantially the same form as that set forth in Section 4-4-202.

(2) The Clerk of Court shall assist any claimant who requests assistance in preparing his or her complaint. The Clerk of Court shall prepare, in plain language, instructions explaining the procedures for prosecuting and defending a small claim. The Clerk shall give the plaintiff a copy of the instructions when the plaintiff appears to execute his or her complaint, and a copy must be attached to the order of court/notice to defendant.

4-4-202. Form of Complaint, and Order of Court, and Notice to Defendant. The sworn complaint, the order of court, and the notice to defendant shall substantially conform to the appropriate sample forms included at the end of this Chapter. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-203. Hearing date. The date for the appearance of the defendant to be set forth in the order shall be determined by the Clerk of Court and may not be more than 30 working days nor less than 15 working days from the date of the order. Service of the order and a copy of the sworn complaint shall be made upon the defendant not less than 7 working days prior to the date set for his or her appearance by the order. If the order is not timely served, the plaintiff may have a new appearance date set by the Clerk and a new order delivered to the process server. If necessary, repeated orders may be issued at any time within one year after the commencement of the action. If no service is accomplished within one year from the date of the complaint, the complaint will be dismissed without prejudice. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-204. Service on defendant, return of service, and notification to plaintiff. (1) The original of the order and notice shall be shown to the defendant and a copy of it together with a copy of the sworn complaint shall be served upon the defendant in the same manner provided for service of process in civil actions generally.

(2) The process server shall, after effective service, remit the original order, with his or her signature and the time of service affixed thereto, to the Clerk of Court. Upon receipt of the returned original order, the Clerk shall mail a copy thereof, first class, postage prepaid, to the plaintiff.

4-4-205. Removal from Small Claims Division and effect of failure to remove. (1) Any action commenced in the small claims division of the Tribal Court may be removed to the trial court of the Tribal Court by a defendant upon the filing of a notice of removal, in substantially the same form as that provided in Section 4-4-206, with the Clerk of the Court within 5 working days of the service of the complaint and order, or by a plaintiff within 3 working days of the service of a counterclaim as provided in Section 4-4-207.

(2) From the time of the filing of the notice of removal, the small claims division has no further jurisdiction over the claim, and the trial court of the Tribal Court has and exercises the same jurisdiction as though the action had been originally commenced in that court.

(3) Upon the filing of a notice of removal, the Clerk of Court shall mail first class, postage prepaid, a copy of the notice to the other party in the action. The plaintiff is not required to replead unless the court so orders, and no additional fee is required of a plaintiff for the filing of the complaint or of a defendant for the filing of a Counterclaim. The time for the defendant to file an answer to the complaint commences upon the date of the filing of the notice of removal. All laws and rules governing proceedings originally commenced in the trial court of Tribal Court are applicable to removed proceedings.

(4) Failure to request removal within the time provided in subsection (1) constitutes a waiver of the right to trial by Jury and to representation by an attorney or by a Tribal Court Advocate, and the judge shall inform the parties of such fact prior to the hearing. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-206. Notice of removal. A notice of removal shall substantially conform to the appropriate sample form included at the end of this Chapter. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-207. Defendant's counterclaim. (1) The defendant may assert a counterclaim against the plaintiff arising out of the same transaction that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim by appearing before the Clerk of Court and executing a sworn small claims counterclaim in substantially the same form as set forth in subsection (3). The defendant shall cause the counterclaim to be served on the plaintiff not less than 3 working days before the date set for the hearing. Service shall be made in the same manner and according to the same terms and conditions in which service of the order of court and notice to defendant is made on the defendant. A defendant may not assert as a counterclaim any claim not arising out of the transaction that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim.

(2) A counterclaim or set-off may not exceed $3000. If a counterclaim or set-off is asserted in excess of $3000, the claim and counterclaim shall be removed to the trial court of the Tribal Court by the filing of a notice of removal by the Clerk of Court, and the action will proceed as provided in Section 4-4-205 (2).

(3) A counterclaim filed by a defendant shall substantially conform to the appropriate sample form included at the end of this Chapter. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-208. No further pleading. No form of pleading other than the complaint, the order of the court and notice to defendant, and the counterclaim of the defendant, if there is one, is allowed. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-209. Fees. The Clerk of Court shall collect a fee of:

(1) $25 from the plaintiff upon the filing of the sworn complaint; and

(2) $10 from the defendant upon the execution of a sworn counterclaim.

Part 3

Proceedings at Hearing

4-4-301. Proceedings to be informal. The hearing and disposition of small claims actions shall be informal.

4-4-302. Witnesses, evidence, and subpoena power. The plaintiff and the defendant may offer evidence in their behalf by witnesses appearing at such hearing or by written evidence, and the judge may direct the production of evidence as he or she considers appropriate. The small claims division has the subpoena power of Tribal Court.
(Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-303. Burden of proof. A plaintiff has the burden of proving his or her claim by a preponderance of the evidence and a defendant bears the burden of proof of his or her counterclaim by a preponderance of the evidence.

4-4-304. Record of Proceedings. The Clerk of Court shall keep a record of all pleadings, returns of service, and the judgment in a small claims action. All proceedings in Small Claims Court are held before a judge of Tribal Court designated to hear such cases. Proceedings in Small Claims Court are tape recorded and the tape is maintained for a period of 20 days after entry of judgment but the tape will not be archived unless a timely appeal is filed in the manner provided by this Code. Decisions rendered in Small Claims Court may be appealed according to the Rules of Appellate Procedure. (Rev. 4-15-03)

Part 4

Judgment and Appeal

4-4-401. Entry of Judgment. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the judge shall make his or her findings and enter judgment. The entry of judgment shall be prepared by the Clerk of Court, and a copy of the same shall be mailed, first class postage prepaid, by the Clerk to the parties within 5 days of the conclusion of the hearing. The form of the judgment shall substantially conform to the appropriate sample form included at the end of this Chapter. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-402. Default Judgment and dismissal. (1) A defendant's failure to appear at hearing may result in a default judgment against him or her and in a dismissal with prejudice of any counterclaim he or she may have filed.

(2) A plaintiff's failure to appear at hearing may result in a dismissal of his or her claim and, if a counterclaim has been filed in a default judgment against him or her on the counterclaim.

(3) Non-appearance by both parties at a hearing will result in dismissal of the action with prejudice. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-403. Execution on judgment. Proceedings to enforce or collect a judgment are governed by the laws relating to execution upon Tribal Court judgments. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-404. Costs and interest. The prevailing party in an action before the small claims division is entitled to costs. If a money judgment is awarded, the party in whose favor the judgment is entered will be entitled to interest on the judgment amount commencing on the date of entry of judgment and continuing until the principal balance and accumulated interest is paid in full, by execution on the judgment or otherwise. Interest will be at the rate agreed to by the parties or 10% per annum on the judgment amount and accumulated balance, whichever is less. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-405. Appeal to the Tribal Court of Appeals. Judgments of the court of the Small Claims Division may be appealed according to the rules and practices of the Tribal Court of Appeals. (Rev. 4-15-03)

4-4-406. Attorney's fees upon removal or appeal. (1) If a either party removes a matter to the trial court under the provisions of Section 4-4-205 (1) and (2) but does not prevail in the trial court, the court may grant the other party reasonable attorney's fees, if any.

(2) A party may be represented upon appeal by an attorney and the court may grant the prevailing party reasonable attorney's fees in addition to costs of suit. (Rev. 4-15-03)

AND
THE CONFEDERATED SALISH AND KOOTENAI TRIBES OF THE FLATHEAD NATION

WHEREAS, the 1993 Montana Legislature enacted Senate Bill 368, which provided for the partial withdrawal of the consent of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes of the Flathead Nation (Tribes) to Public Law 280 jurisdiction on the Flathead Reservation; and

WHEREAS, Senate Bill 368 is codified in the Montana statutes at Mont. Code Ann. § 2-1-306 (1993) which provides that the Flathead Nation may, by tribal resolution, withdraw consent to be subject to the criminal misdemeanor jurisdiction of the State of Montana (State) and that within six (6) months after receipt of a tribal resolution withdrawing tribal consent, the Governor shall issue a proclamation to that effect; and

WHEREAS, the Tribes, the State, and affected county and local governments have a mutual desire to provide for a smooth implementation of tribal reassumption of exclusive jurisdiction over misdemeanor crimes committed by Indians; and

WHEREAS, the overriding purpose of this Memorandum of Agreement (Agreement) is to provide for timely and effective law enforcement and the protection of the public safety; and

WHEREAS, this Agreement is entered into pursuant to the State-Tribal Cooperative Agreements Act, codified at Mont. Code Ann. §§ 18-11-101 to -112 and Article VI, Section 1(c) of the Constitution of the Tribes approved by the Secretary of the Interior on October 28, 1935; and

WHEREAS, the Tribe's resolution to withdraw from Public Law 280 includes language allowing continued state misdemeanor criminal jurisdiction in limited areas as specifically delineated in the body of the agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE FLATHEAD NATION AND THE STATE OF MONTANA, FLATHEAD COUNTY, MISSOULA COUNTY, SANDERS COUNTY, THE CITY OF HOT SPRINGS, THE CITY OF RONAN, AND THE TOWN OF ST. IGNATIUS ENTER INTO THIS MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT AS FOLLOWS:

I. LAW ENFORCEMENT

A. Dispatch Assessment of Incoming Calls

1. Exigent Circumstances

Upon receiving an incoming call, tribal, state, county, and city dispatch officers will dispatch the nearest officer to the scene of a crime where exigent circumstances do not allow for an assessment of whether the persons involved are Indian or non-Indian.

2. Assessment of Dispatch Calls

When an incoming call to dispatch is not an immediate exigent emergency, the dispatcher shall determine the:

- a. Nature of the call;
- b. Possible suspect/victims; and
- c. Location of the incident.

3. Referral to Appropriate Agencies

If the key parties to the incident are Indian, and it is not clear that the reported offense would be charged as a felony, state, county, or city dispatchers will relay the information directly to tribal dispatch. If the key parties to the incident are Indian and tribal dispatch receives the call, tribal dispatch will contact tribal officers. If the key parties are non-Indian and tribal dispatch receives the call, tribal dispatch will relay the information directly to the appropriate state, county, or city dispatch officer. In either situation, the person making the call will not be told to call the other jurisdiction. The dispatchers of the respective jurisdictions shall directly relay information to the appropriate dispatch office.

4. Unclear Assessment

If a clear assessment of the status of the key parties is not possible by dispatchers, direct law enforcement services will be provided by the jurisdiction receiving the call.

B. Officer Response to Dispatch Calls

1. Field Response to Dispatch Calls

Law enforcement officers dispatched into the field, either as the nearest officer available for exigent circumstances or as the appropriate officer due to the status of the persons involved, shall respond as immediately as possible. Once dispatched, officers shall attempt no assessment of proper jurisdiction until public safety is secured. If it is clear to the law enforcement officer that the offense committed will be charged as a felony, the officer will proceed pursuant to the authority of the jurisdiction represented. If it is unclear whether the offense will be charged as a felony or as a misdemeanor, the officer will determine the status of the suspect involved.

2. Field Determination of "Indian"

Law enforcement officers will determine the Indian/non-Indian status of a suspect at the crime scene as soon as reasonable after providing any emergency law enforcement services and securing public safety. For purposes of the Agreement, an "Indian" is a person who is an enrolled member of a federally-recognized tribe. To make such determination, the suspect will be questioned as to whether she/he is an Indian.

a. Self-identification as Indian with proof of enrollment

If the suspect responds in the affirmative, the officer will obtain enrollment information and call the tribal dispatch officer, who will verify the enrollment status via contacting the specified Tribe's dispatch office and requesting an enrollment verification. If the suspect's Indian status is verified, the non-tribal officer will request tribal officer response, if necessary.

b. Self-identification as Indian without proof of enrollment

1. If the suspect claims to be an Indian to the non-tribal officer, but is unable to provide enrollment information, the suspect will properly be within the jurisdiction of the responding non-tribal officer until enrollment information is secured or until a successful defense of lack of jurisdiction is raised at trial.

2. If the suspect claims to be an Indian to a responding tribal officer, but is unable to provide verifying information, the suspect is properly within the jurisdiction of the Tribes unless a successful defense of lack of jurisdiction is raised at trial.

C. Traffic Stops

1. Non-Tribal Officer Stops

A non-tribal law enforcement officer may stop any vehicle upon a reasonable suspicion of criminal activity. The non-tribal officer may also conduct a protective frisk of the suspect and the area in the suspect's immediate control, whether the suspect is Indian or non-Indian, if the officer reasonably believes that the suspect may be armed with a weapon.

The non-tribal officer must then determine the Indian/non-Indian status of the suspect. If the suspect is Indian, as verified by the tribal dispatch, the officer may either issue a citation for the alleged violation pursuant to Section D or, if the officer determines that an arrest is necessary, request response by a tribal officer.

The non-tribal officer shall have authority to detain the Indian suspect pursuant to Section E: Unavailability of an Appropriate Officer.

2. Tribal Officer Traffic Stops

A tribal officer may stop any vehicle upon a reasonable suspicion of criminal activity. The tribal officer may also conduct a protective frisk of the suspect and the area in the suspect's immediate control, whether Indian or non-Indian, if the officer reasonably believes that the suspect may be armed with a weapon.

The tribal officer must then determine the Indian/non-Indian status of the suspect. If the suspect is non-Indian, the tribal officer may either issue a citation for the alleged violation pursuant to Section D or, if the officer determines that an arrest is necessary, request response by a non-tribal officer.

The tribal officer shall have authority to detain the suspect until the arrival of the non-tribal officer pursuant to Section E: Unavailability of an Appropriate Officer.

D. Citation Authority

1. Tribal Officers

Officers who have met tribal requirements for certification and who have been certified by the Tribes as law enforcement officers are hereby commissioned by each other party to this Agreement to exercise limited authority within those portions of the respective jurisdictions which lie within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Indian Reservation. These tribal officers may exercise authority limited to that necessary for issuance of citations for violations of the state traffic laws and laws regarding minors in possession of alcohol. This authority includes that necessary to collect bond for the respective jurisdiction.

When a tribal officer makes a stop upon a reasonable suspicion of a criminal violation and determines: (1) that the suspect is a non-Indian; and (2) that an arrest is not necessary, the tribal officer is commissioned to act as an agent of the appropriate non-tribal jurisdiction and issue a citation for violation of state traffic laws and laws regarding minors in possession of alcohol.

2. Non-Tribal Officers

Officers who have met the necessary requirements for certification as law enforcement officers of the respective state, county, and city jurisdictions and who have been certified by the respective jurisdiction, are hereby commissioned by the Tribes to exercise authority within the exterior boundaries of the Flathead Reservation. These non-tribal officers may exercise authority limited to that necessary for issuance of citations for violations of the tribal traffic ordinances and ordinances regarding minors in possession of alcohol. This authority includes that necessary to collect bond for the Tribes.

When a non-tribal officer makes a stop upon a reasonable suspicion of a violation and determines: (1) that the suspect is an Indian; and (2) that an arrest is not necessary, the non-tribal officer is commissioned to act as an agent of the Tribes and issue a citation for violation of tribal traffic ordinances and ordinances regarding minors in possession of alcohol.

3. Chain of Command

The chain of command for the law enforcement officers of the parties to this Agreement shall not be changed by the granting of authority to issue citations on behalf of a jurisdiction other than that of the officer. Officers will continue to report to and be accountable to superiors to whom they now report.

E. Unavailability of Appropriate Officer When Arrest Necessary

1. Stop by Non-Tribal Officer

If upon a request from a non-tribal officer, a tribal officer determines he is unable to respond to a traffic stop which necessitates an arrest of an Indian person for protection of public safety within thirty (30) minutes of the detention of the Indian suspect, the tribal officer may authorize the non-tribal officer to arrest and transport the suspect to the Tribal Law and Order facility. Such arrest and transport in a traffic-stop situation cannot occur without the express grant of authority from the tribal officer to the non-tribal officer pursuant to Section F. An arrest made with an express grant of authority from the tribal officer includes a grant of authority to completely process the suspect for the crime.

If the traffic stop of an Indian suspect by a non-tribal officer does not warrant the arrest of the suspect, the non-tribal officer may issue a citation for the alleged violation pursuant to Section D, or file a report of probable cause and report of traffic violation to the tribal prosecutor's office.

2. Stop by a Tribal Officer

If upon request from a tribal officer, the non-tribal officer determines he is unable to respond to a traffic stop which necessitates an arrest of a non-Indian within thirty (30) minutes of the detention of the non-Indian suspect, the non-tribal officer may authorize the tribal officer to arrest and transport the suspect to the county or city law enforcement facilities. Such arrest and transport in a traffic-stop situation cannot occur without the express grant of authority from the non-tribal officer to the tribal officer pursuant to Section F. An arrest made with an express grant of authority from the non-tribal officer includes a grant of authority to completely process the suspect for the crime.

If the traffic stop of a non-Indian suspect by a tribal officer does not warrant the arrest of the suspect, the tribal officer may issue a citation for the alleged violation pursuant to Section D, or file a report of probable cause and report of traffic violation to the tribal prosecutor's office, who will then forward it to the appropriate prosecutor's office.

F. Arrest Authority

1. Arrest by Non-Tribal Officer of Tribal Suspect

A non-tribal officer may make an arrest of an Indian person only when granted authority to do so by a tribal officer after the tribal officer indicates he or she is unable to assure he or she can be at the scene within thirty (30) minutes of the detention of the Indian suspect, and:

- a. The non-tribal officer establishes to the tribal officer that probable cause for the arrest exists;

or

b. When the crime by the Indian person is committed or being committed in the non-tribal officer's presence and an arrest is necessary to protect the public or preserve the evidence.

The tribal officer may verbally give the grant of arrest authority to the non-tribal officer.

2. Arrest by Tribal Officer of Non-Indian Suspect

A tribal officer may make an arrest of a non-Indian suspect only when granted authority to do so by a non-tribal officer after the non-tribal officer indicates he or she is unable to assure he or she can be at the scene within thirty (30) minutes of the detention of the non-Indian suspect, and:

a. The tribal officer establishes to the non-tribal officer that probable cause for the arrest exists;
or

b. When the crime by the non-Indian person is committed or being committed in the tribal officer's presence and an arrest is necessary to protect the public or preserve the evidence.

The non-tribal officer may verbally give the grant of arrest authority to the tribal officer.

G. Investigations

1. Unknown Suspect

a. When the suspect is unknown and exigent circumstances do not allow for an assessment of whether the persons involved in an incident are Indian or non-Indian, officers of the responding jurisdiction will stabilize the situation and take the lead in the necessary investigatory work.

b. When the suspect is unknown and it is determined that the victims are both Indian and non-Indian, the responding jurisdiction will lead the investigation with the cooperation of the other jurisdictions until the identity of the suspect is determined.

c. When the suspect is unknown and it is determined that the victim is Indian, the tribal officers will take the lead in the investigation until the identity of the suspect is determined.

d. When the suspect is unknown and it is determined that the victim is non-Indian, the non-tribal officers will take the lead in the investigation until the identity of the suspect is determined.

2. Known Suspect

a. When the suspect is known to be Indian, the tribal officers will take the lead in the investigation.

b. When the suspect is known to be non-Indian, non-tribal officers will take the lead in the investigation.

c. When there are multiple suspects known to be Indian and non-Indian, the respective jurisdictions will each conduct investigations in preparation for separate prosecutions. However, each jurisdiction will fully cooperate with the other jurisdiction in its investigation and will share investigatory information with the other jurisdictions.

3. Cost of Investigations

Each jurisdiction will cover the costs of investigations conducted by its officers.

H. Cooperative Meetings

1. Cooperation Between Local Law Enforcement Agencies

The parties agree to meet once a year throughout the term of this agreement, resources and personnel permitting, to discuss implementation issues, changes in law or process that impact this agreement, or other concerns arising from this agreement.

II. CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

A. Misdemeanors

1. All misdemeanor crimes committed by Indians shall be prosecuted in the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribal Court with the exception of those misdemeanor convictions resulting from a guilty plea entered in state court pursuant to a plea bargain agreement reducing a felony to a misdemeanor, or the result of a conviction in state court on a lesser included offense in a felony trial.

2. The State may retain jurisdiction of Indian persons for misdemeanor crimes in the limited circumstances that they result from a reduction of a felony offense due to a lesser included offense jury instruction at trial. If probation is a part of the sentence, it may be monitored by tribal probation personnel pursuant to agreement between the State and the Tribes.

3. The State may retain jurisdiction of Indian persons for misdemeanor crimes in the limited circumstance that they result from plea bargains which are negotiated before a trial verdict which reduce felony crimes to misdemeanors. If probation is a condition of the plea bargain, such probation may be monitored by tribal probation personnel pursuant to agreement between the State and the Tribes.

B. Concurrent Tribal/State Felony Jurisdiction

The Tribes continue to retain concurrent jurisdiction with the State over felony crimes committed by Indians, but may transfer prosecution of such crimes to the State. Factors the Tribes will consider when retaining jurisdiction over felony crimes include:

1. Seriousness of crime;
2. Age of defendant;
3. Criminal history of defendant;
4. Ties to the Reservation;
5. Family on Reservation;
6. Sentence upon conviction in state court versus actual jail time likely in tribal jail;
7. Prospect of rehabilitation; and
8. Access to appropriate services.

The State continues to retain jurisdiction, concurrent with that of the Tribe, over felony crimes committed by Indians, but may transfer prosecution of such crimes to the Tribes if warranted.

C. Transfer of Prosecution

1. Reduction From Felony to Misdemeanor Before Trial

When a crime is charged as a felony by the State, but prosecutorial discretion necessitates a reduction to a misdemeanor before trial, the State prosecutor will inform the tribal prosecutor. After providing adequate time for the tribal prosecutor to file the charging document in tribal court, the State will move to dismiss its action without prejudice.

2. Upgrade From Misdemeanor to Felony Before Trial

When a crime is charged as a misdemeanor in tribal court, but evidence necessitates an increase to a felony before trial and the tribal prosecutor determines that the case should be transferred to the State, the tribal prosecutor will inform the appropriate county attorney. After providing adequate time for the county attorney to file the charging document in state court, the tribal prosecutor will move to dismiss its action without prejudice.

D. Probation

1. Probation ordered for all tribal defendants in Tribal Court shall be monitored by tribal probation personnel.

2. Probation ordered for all tribal defendants who are convicted in a state district court for a felony offense shall remain under state jurisdiction, but may be supervised by tribal probation personnel pursuant to agreement between the State and the Tribes. Tribal probation personnel shall fulfill reporting requirements of state jurisdictions for purposes of revocation. Such revocations shall be within state jurisdiction when the conviction and ordered probation occurred within a state jurisdiction.

E. Testimony of Law Enforcement Officers at Trial

All non-tribal law enforcement officers shall abide by the subpoena power of tribal court jurisdiction, and all tribal law enforcement officers shall abide by the subpoena power of state, justice, or city court jurisdiction. Specifically, law enforcement officers agree to provide testimony in all jurisdictions as appropriate.

F. Communication Between Tribes and Local Agents

The tribal prosecutors and the state prosecutors shall meet bi-monthly for a period of six (6) months. At the end of the six-month period, the frequency of such meetings shall be reviewed. These meetings will allow an open exchange of information on pending cases to ensure that each jurisdiction is prosecuting cases appropriate for that jurisdiction in good faith. Communication with other jurisdictions shall be on a case-by-case basis.

III. GENERAL PROVISIONS

A. Jurisdiction of State Courts Entering Judgment Prior to Date of Retrocession

Any state court issuing a judgment of conviction for a misdemeanor offense by an Indian prior to the effective date of retrocession will maintain jurisdiction over the case and the defendant, including jurisdiction to issue contempt orders, until the judgment of conviction is fully satisfied.

B. Public Access to Court Dockets

Court dockets of the courts of the respective jurisdictions will be open to the public.

C. Review of Process

Any party may request the Attorney General to convene additional meetings at any time during the term hereof, to discuss new developments or suggested improvements or changes to this agreement. The Attorney General will make every effort timely to accommodate such requests.

D. Effective Date and Term

The Agreement became effective upon execution by the parties in accordance with its terms, the Tribal Resolution and proclamation of the Governor of Montana. This renewal continues the agreement, as amended, for a term of eight years unless earlier terminated as herein provided. Prior to the expiration of this Agreement, or upon its termination, the parties may agree to the renewal of the Agreement for a term agreed upon by the parties. This clause does not affect the underlying jurisdiction of either party, which was altered by the legislation, the Governor's proclamation, and the Tribes' resolution in 1994, but only the cooperative law enforcement and prosecution aspects of this agreement.

E. Termination and Withdrawal

This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon written consent of all parties. Any party may withdraw from this Agreement provided said party gives notice of withdrawal to all other parties by certified mail at least 120 days prior to such withdrawal.

F. Amendments

This Agreement may be amended at any time provided said amendments are in writing and signed by all parties to the Agreement.

G. Negative Declaration

Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed as a concession by any party as to any other party's jurisdictional claims or an admission of the same, or a waiver of the right to challenge such claims upon termination of the Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall prejudice the right of any individual to challenge the regulatory or adjudicatory jurisdiction of either party. Neither this Agreement nor the activities of the parties pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed as enlarging or diminishing the jurisdiction or authority of any of the parties within the Flathead Reservation.

H. Liability

Each party shall remain liable for the acts, errors, or omissions of their officers and employees acting under this Agreement to the same degree that they are currently liable. No party assumes liability for the acts, errors, or omissions of the officers and employees of the other parties.

The parties agree that upon mutual consent, represented by an executed addendum attached to this Agreement, the non-Tribal parties may, to the extent allowed under federal law, be treated as federal employees for purposes of liability under the Indian Law Enforcement Reform Act, 25 U.S.C. § 2801 et seq. Any such addendum shall become effective upon execution by the parties and the United States and be incorporated into this Agreement as if in the original, without the need for additional review or approval.
