

JANUARY 2002 CROW TRIBAL LEGISLATURE

BILL NO. CLB02-02

INTRODUCED BY: Executive Branch

BY REQUEST OF THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE CROW TRIBE

AN ACT AMENDING TITLE 3, CHAPTERS I THROUGH VII, TITLE 4 AND TITLE 6, RULES 13 AND 26, OF THE CROW TRIBAL CODE TO DISSOLVE THE EXISTING LAW AND ORDER COMMISSION AND PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICER POSITION PROVIDING THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH OF THE CROW TRIBE THE AUTHORITY TO PERFORM ITS LIMITED DUTIES.

WHEREAS, the Crow Tribal Code previously vested the Law and Order Commission with the responsibility to investigate, review and hear complaints regarding Tribal Judges and to assist the Crow Tribe through amendments or modifications of the Crow Tribal Code; and

WHEREAS, the Crow Tribal Code previously provided for a Crow Public Safety Director who was vested with similar authority for law enforcement as well as direct supervision of the Crow Police Department and Crow Fish & Game Department; and

WHEREAS, amendments to Title 3 of the Crow Tribal Code currently vest the governance of the conduct and removal of Tribal Judges in a newly created Judicial Ethics Board removing the necessity for a Law and Order Commission; and

WHEREAS, the Crow Tribe currently does not have Tribal Police Department for the Crow Public Safety Director to supervise; and further the supervision of the Fish & Game Department is vested in the Crow Tribe's Director of Natural Resources thus rendering the position of Crow Public Safety Director obsolete; and

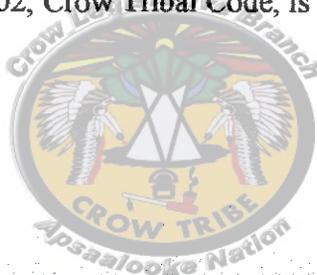

WHEREAS, the remaining function of the Law and Order Commission and Crow Public Safety Director is to enact additions, modifications, deletions or Legislative Branch of the Crow Tribe of Indians under its Constitution.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE CROW TRIBE:

Section 1. Section 3-3-305, Crow Tribal Code, is repealed in its entirety.

Section 2. Section 3-3-306, Crow Tribal Code, is repealed in its entirety.

Section 3. Section 3-5-502, Crow Tribal Code, is repealed in its entirety.

Section 4. Section 3-3-503, Crow Tribal Code, is repealed in its entirety.

Section 5. Section 3-6-602, Crow Tribal Code, is repealed in its entirety.

Section 6. Section 3-5-603, Crow Tribal Code, is repealed in its entirety.

Section 7. Section 4-4-101 and 102, Crow Tribal Code, are amended as follows:

4-1-101 Enforcement of Criminal Laws. The principal administrative body charged with the duty and responsibility of insuring the proper, efficient and fair enforcement of all criminal, juvenile, and game laws shall be the Legislative Branch of the Crow Tribe Law & Order Commission.

4-1-102 ~~The Law & Order Commission through the Director of Public Safety shall supervise the operation of Crow Police Department and the Crow Fish and Game Department on behalf of the Crow Tribal Council. The Commission~~ Legislative Branch of the Crow Tribe shall also recommend to the Council the enactment of any necessary additions, changes, amendments, modifications or deletions to the Crow Tribal Code as deemed necessary in the interest of justice, as well as amendments or modifications of the Crow Tribal Code:

Section 8. Section 4-1-103, Crow Tribal Code, is repealed in its entirety.

Section 9. Title 4, Chapter II, Crow Police Department, Crow Tribal Code, is repealed in its entirety.

Section 10. Rule 13 of Title 6, Crow Tribal Code, is amended as follows:

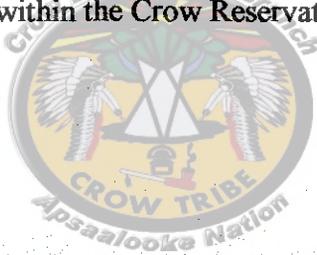

Rule 13. Juries and Selection of Jurors. Rules of Criminal Procedure, Title 6: (b) Jury Lists. The Clerk of Court ~~Crow Law and Order Commission~~ shall prepare annually a jury list for use by the Crow Tribal Court.

Section 11. Rule 26 of Title 6, Crow Tribal Code, is amended as follows:

Rule 26. EXTRADITION: SCOPE AND PROCEDURE

(a.) No person within the exterior boundaries of the Crow Reservation and the Jurisdiction of the Crow Tribal Court shall be arrested, tried, or convicted for any crime committed outside the Crow Reservation, except as is expressly provided by this Rule.

(b.) However, any officer or agency of another jurisdiction, authorized by the Law of the Jurisdiction to request extradition, may petition the Tribal Court for extradition of any person found within the Crow Reservation, a copy of which shall be served the same day upon the ~~Chairman of the Law and Order Commission Tribal Prosecutor's Office.~~

(c.) Upon receipt of a petition for extradition, the Tribal Court shall issue a warrant to apprehend the person sought and to bring him/her before the court as soon as possible after he/she shall be apprehended.

(d.) Before granting extradition, the Tribal Court must be satisfied that the extradition petition was properly issued by an authorized official or agency and that it alleges the commission of a crime punishable under the Laws of the petitioning jurisdiction.

(e.) The Court may refuse extradition if it learns that any effort has been made by the petitioning jurisdiction to secure the person or the alleged offender within the Crow Reservation by unlawful means or by unauthorized exercise of power within the Crow Reservation.

(f.) ~~The Tribal Prosecutor's Office Chairman of the Law and Order Commission or any person he shall designate, if he deems the cause so merits;~~ may enter an appearance of behalf of the defendant ~~in the name of the~~ Crow Tribe and offer such considerations of Law and policy in the particular case as he/she thinks fit. The Court in its discretion may, but need not, treat such consideration as determinative of the case.

(g.) If extradition is granted, the Court shall order the ~~Crow Tribal Police~~ Department to hold the person to be extradited without bail until such time as any authorized officers of the petitioning jurisdiction appear to take him into their custody, but in no case shall any person be held for extradition for more than one hundred, twenty (120) hours.

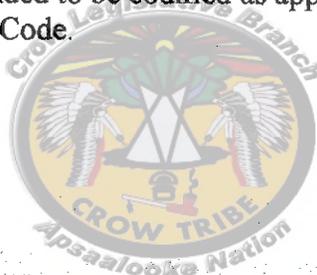

(h.) Extradition shall be granted by no other procedure than that provided by this section, provided, that the United States may serve warrants and apprehend persons within the Crow Reservation for violations of the Laws of the United States.

(i.) The privilege of extradition may be executed by means of written agreement between the Crow Tribe and any state, territory, tribe or other Governmental entity desiring the privilege to extradite. The privilege of extradition shall not be extended by the Crow Tribe to any state, territory or tribe that does not as a matter of comity extend the privilege of extradition to the Crow Tribe.

(j.) ~~The Law and Order Commission through its Chairman, or any person designated by him~~ Executive Branch of the Crow Tribe shall have the authority to negotiate extradition agreements or compacts, provided that the Tribal Council Legislative Branch of the Crow Tribe shall have authority to approve such agreements or compacts.

Chairman, Crow Law & Order Commission

CODIFICATION. Section 1. Codification instruction. This Bill, upon adoption by the Crow Tribal Legislature, is intended to be codified as appropriate in Titles 3, 4, and 6 of the Crow Tribal Law and Order Code.

Re: Bill passed but no record of chairman's signatures on bill.

This letter is to inform you that the Bill numbers CLB02-01 / CLB02-02 were passed on March 21, 2002. In concurrence with the office records, there isn't anything that justifies the Chairman's approval for CLB02-02. (See attachment of the minutes for that date of vote and submission of the original documents CLB02-01 / CLB02-02 to the Chairman's office, also highlighted for you).

Stated on the minutes of March 21, 2002, Chairman Bird In Ground's office was given the bills. Fortunately we received the original documents from the Elk River Law Firm for the bill CLB02-01, but nothing was sent for the bill CLB02-02. I have also contacted the Legal Department of the Crow Tribe, but there is no record of this.

CLB02-01 – Bill #4

A BILL TO REVISE TITLE 3 OF THE CROW LAW AND ORDER CODE WHICH ESTABLISHES CRITERIA FOR TRIBAL COURT JUDGES.

CLB02-02 – Bill #8

AN ACT AMENDING TITLE 3, CHAPTERS 1 THROUGH VII, TITLE 4 AND TITLE 6, RULES 13 AND 26, OF THE CROW TRIBAL CODE TO DISSOLVE THE EXISTING LAW AND ORDER COMMISSION AND PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICER POSITION PROVIDING THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH OF THE CROW TRIBE THE AUTHORITY TO PERFORM ITS LIMITED DUTIES.

Please feel free to contact the office if you should have any further question regarding this matter, thank you.
