TITLE 3

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CROW TRIBAL COURTS AND TRIBAL JURISDICTION

CHAPTER I.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3-1-101. Crow Tribal Court. (1) There is hereby established the "Crow Tribal Court."
- (2) The Crow Tribal Court shall be a court of general civil and criminal jurisdiction and shall hear appeals from final decisions of the Tribal Administrative bodies.
- 3-1-102. Crow Juvenile Court. (1) There is hereby established the "Crow Juvenile Court."
- (2) The Crow Juvenile Court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over all cases arising under the Tribal Juvenile Code as set forth in Title 9 of the Crow Tribal Law and Order Code.
- 3-1-103. Crow Court of Appeals. (1) There is hereby established the "Crow Court of Appeals."
- (2) The Crow Court of Appeals shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction to hear all appeals from final judgments and/or orders of the Crow Tribal Court and the Crow Juvenile Court.
- 3-1-104. Applicable Law. (1) The laws, ordinances, resolutions, treaties, customs and traditions of the Crow Tribe shall be the law applied in all courts established under this Title.
- (2) The laws and treaties of the United States shall be the applicable law in the Courts of the Crow Tribe where they specifically apply to the Crow Indian Reservation or the Crow Tribe as a matter of federal law or where incorporated by reference in tribal law. (3) Wherever the issue in controversy shall not be resolved by federal law or by the laws of the Crow Tribe, the judge may seek authority in the custom, usage, and jurisprudence of the Crow Tribe, traditional or modern, and in common law jurisprudence both in law and equity. (4) State laws and federal laws not applicable to the Crow Tribe or the Crow Indian Reservation shall not be deemed applicable law in any proceeding, except as provided herein, unless agreed to be applicable by the parties by stipulation with consent of the court, but in no event shall they be construed to have any greater authority that the laws, ordinances, resolutions, treaties, or the traditions and customs of the Crow Tribe.

CHAPTER II. JURISDICTION OF THE CROW TRIBAL COURTS

- 3-2-201. Jurisdiction. The Crow Tribal Court shall be a court of general jurisdiction. It is the intention of the Crow Tribe of Indians to exercise that jurisdictional authority which has not otherwise been abrogated by the United States Supreme Court or by legislation by the United States Congress. The failure of the United States Congress to legislate in a particular area shall not be deemed a waiver of the jurisdictional authority of the Crow Tribe. The jurisdiction of the Crow Tribal Court shall be used to insure due process and equal protection of the law for all persons, as defined herein.
- 3-2-202. Jurisdiction--Territorial. The jurisdiction of the Crow Tribal Courts shall extend to any and all lands within the exterior boundaries of the Crow Indian Reservation as the same may exist from time to time including all easements, rights-of-way and fee patented lands within such boundaries.
- 3-2-203. Jurisdiction--Personal. (1) The Crow Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction over all persons who reside, enter, and/or transact business within the exterior boundaries of the Crow Indian Reservation, provided that the Court shall not exercise criminal jurisdiction over non-Indians, unless such jurisdiction is granted by laws of the United States Congress.
- (2) For purposes of jurisdiction "persons" shall include individuals, businesses, partnerships, associations, cooperatives, and corporations.
- 3-2-204. Jurisdiction--Property. (1) The Crow Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction over all property, real and personal, which is located within the exterior boundaries of the Crow Indian Reservation. Such jurisdiction shall extend to the determination of ownership rights in property, interests in property, and the application of property to the satisfaction of a judgment for which the owner of the property is deemed to be liable.
- (2) The jurisdiction of the Crow Tribal Courts shall be limited only by federal law; provided however, that the Crow Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction to render money judgments against persons, businesses, partnerships, corporations, and cooperative associations who are not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the court only if the action is commenced by an attachment of the defendant's property which is located within the exterior boundaries of the Crow Indian Reservation. Unless the defendant subjects himself to the jurisdiction of the court, any judgment in an action commenced by the attachment of property belonging to a party not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the court may be executed only against the property actually attached.
- 3-2-205. Jurisdiction--Subject Matter. The Crow Tribal Courts shall have jurisdiction over all causes of action arising within the exterior boundaries of the Crow Indian Reservation an over all criminal offenses which are enumerated in Title 8 of the Crow Tribal Code and which are committed within the exterior boundaries of the Crow Indian Reservation.
- 3-2-206. Sovereign Immunity. Nothing contained in the preceding provisions on jurisdiction, or any other provision of the Crow Tribal Code shall be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Crow Tribe, its officers, or businesses, unless specifically waived by such entity.
